Bernard's Marriage.
The Great Falls Tribune of the 24th gives an account of the marriage of our popular county superintendent, P. N. Bernard, in that city in the following commendatory article:
Prof. P. N. Bernard, formerly editor of the Kalispell INTER LAKE, and superintendent of schools in Flathead county, and Miss Grace Herrick, formerly of Columbia Falls, but recently residing in this city, were married last night at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. F. A. Riggin, the ceremony occurring at the parsonage of the Methodist church.
Prof. Bernard came to Montana about five years ago from Iowa, and by his sterling manhood and excellent qualities so won the approbation of his fellow citizens that they honored him with the prominent position he now holds and his chances for re-election are considered hopeful.
The bride for a short time past has been in the employ of the New York Bazaar and has the respect and confidence of her employers and associates and has won many friends during her brief residence in this city.
The bride and groom will soon be at home at Kalispell and thither the congratulations and best wishes of the Tribune will precede them.

MARRIED,
CANNON—CURTIS—At Seattle, on Dec. 27, 1893, by Rev. John Glenn, H. S. Cannon and Mrs. E. B. Curtis.
Clathier Cannon is no longer numbered among those who chant the praises of single blessedness. He has taken unto himself a wife. Last month he quietly hied himself to the city of Seattle and immediately proceeded to entangle himself in the meshes of matrimony. So quiet and unostentatious were the proceedings that his most intimate friends around town were unaware of his marriage until he returned this week with his bride. The INTER LAKE joins many friends in wishing the happy couple a long, prosperous and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Cannon are now at home at their residence on Main street.
The only kick we have coming is that friend H. S. did not come around and ask our consent.

Esmay—Clynick. We copy the following marriage notice from the Missoula Democrat for the benefit of Billy's many friends in the Flathead valley. He was some three years book-keeper for the M. M. Co. at Demererville and we are glad to know that he has joined the Salvation army: A wedding in high life, surrounded by rather romantic circumstances, occurred at the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Haskins in the Hammond block, yesterday afternoon, by which William Esmay of this city, and Miss Clynick of Bonner, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. W. B. Coombe officiating. The wedding was a complete surprise to their hosts of friends, for the contracting parties were well and favorably known in the Garden City. Miss Clynick is the estimable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clynick of Bonner. She is a lady of rare talents and womanly graces. Mr. Esmay is the popular stenographer in the office of the M. M. Co. He is a gentleman who enjoys a wide circle of friends. The loving couple will start out on the matrimonial sea with the best wishes of a host of relatives and warm friends.

MARRIED.
GALE—RITCHIE—At the residence of the bride's mother, on Thursday Oct. 18, 1894, Miss Mary Ritchie to Edmond Gale Jr., Rev. Geo. M. Fisher officiating.
 The above event created little surprise as it is well known that friend Gale some time ago became converted to the idea that it is not good for man to live alone and it is but the sequel to a courtship that has been an open secret. Mr. Gale is one of our rising young business men and commands the respect and confidence of our citizens. The bride is a young lady of excellent qualities and the INTER LAKE joins with their friends in wishing them a happy voyage on the matrimonial sea. Mr. and Mrs. Gale will be at home to their friends in their pleasant home on 3rd Avenue east.
