Commencement Exercises.
 The Kalispell High School had its first commencement exercises last Friday evening when a class of six who had completed the prescribed course bade their school work good bye. In spite of the unfavorable weather a large crowd was present. The stage was tastily and prettily decorated with the class colors and class flowers. In addition to the orations of the graduates the exercises consisted of musical selections, and a short and excellent address by T. D. Long. The diplomas were presented by Captain Eaton, acting chairman of the board. The graduates were: E. Marie Knapp, Maud Kimmeely, M. Esterre Sinclair, Anna C. Davis, Lester P. Edge, Edward G. Siahl. The orations were as follows:

Geddes E L
 Gates Caroline
 Eaton Jennie C
 Spurek Fannie L
 Spalding Marjorie
 Goding Clara
 Pomeroy Alice
 Ingersoll Alice L
 Ingersoll Francis
 Staves F Adelaide
 Stoere Prof E A
