

Surname

Given Names

Publication Date

Bebee

Sara Mead

Mar 10 1905 p5

OBITUARY.

Died:—At the home of Mrs. R. J. Ball, Wednesday, March 1st, Sara Mead Beebe, age twenty-four years, wife of Edward C. Beebe.

Mrs. Beebe was taken ill in the morning and Dr. Phoebe Bottorf was summoned, but she died shortly afterward of neuralgia of the heart. The husband, father and brother being absent engaged in county bridge construction work, the sad intelligence came to them as a painful surprise.

She had been married only a few months and leaves a husband, parents, two brothers and six sisters to mourn her loss. Her remains were removed to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mead, where the funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday, Rev. Craven officiating. From here her husband and brother took her to Winoua, Minnesota, for interment.

Mrs. Beebe came to Kalspell with her parents three years ago from Waupaca, Wisconsin and in these brief lines we record not only the great sorrow of a home but of a community in which none were better known and loved than she. She departed from this life ere its morning mellowed into noon, but her good and noble disposition as a daughter, sister, wife and friend won the admiration and affection of many who now share the bereavement of her home.

Bull

George B

Feb 10 1905 p5

OBITUARY.

George B. Bull died last Friday evening, February 3rd, at his home, death being caused by an attack of pneumonia. The funeral services were held at the Christian church on Sunday, the funeral sermon being preached by Rev. A. C. Downing, in the presence of a large number of the friends of the family.

George B. Bull was born in Scotland county, Missouri, January 21st, 1863. He leaves a wife and little daughter, a number of relatives, and a large circle of friends, who deeply regret his death.

A more honorable, trustworthy man was hard to find. He was worthy of the confidence so fully placed in him by all who knew him well, and the happiness a noble and loving wife and dear little girl could give him.

Jones

Owen

Mar 24 1905 p4

OWEN JONES KILLED IN WRECK.

Engineer Owen Jones, running between Troy and Spokane, was killed in a wreck a short distance west of Troy yesterday morning, and at the same time Jas. L. Horsley, the fireman was badly hurt, and the mail clerk and baggageman injured, though not dangerously.

The wrecked train was No. 1, the west bound night passenger. A short distance from Troy the engine struck a large rock that had been carried upon the track by a slide, and went over into the Kootenai river, dragging the mail and baggage cars after it. Mr. Jones was pinned down in the cab, and according to report of the occurrence received here, was killed almost instantly. It was at first reported that the fireman's injuries were so serious that they might result fatally, but later reports are that he will probably recover. The mail and baggage cars were set on fire, and the parts not covered by water burned up.

The passenger coaches were all filled, but beyond a shaking up it is said that not a single passenger was hurt, a continuation of the remarkable good luck that has attended accidents to passenger trains on the Great Northern.

Mr. Jones was well known in Kalispell, having run between here and Troy a number of years before taking the Troy-Spokane run. He was one of the oldest and best known engineers on the system, and had a host of friends, not only among the railroad men, with whom he was very popular, but in every community in which he was known.

He was about 45 years old, and leaves a widow and three children.

Keith

Homer

May 26 1905 p5

FUNERAL OF HOMER KEITH.

The funeral of Homer, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Keith, who died suddenly at Des Moines, Iowa, last week, occurred Wednesday afternoon from the residence, the service being conducted by Rev. Alexander Pringle, of the Presbyterian church.

The business houses closed during the afternoon until after the funeral, and there was a very large attendance of the friends of the family, who followed the flower covered casket to the cemetery.

The stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their loss.

Khyler

Harry J

May 19 1905 p4

RESOLUTION ON THE DEATH OF THE LATE HENRY J. KHYLER.

At a meeting of the Homestead No. 485 of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, at Kalispell, Montana, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, for the second time since its organization this Homestead has been called upon to mourn the loss by death of one of its members, and

Whereas, while we do not understand the will of Him who has so suddenly and tragically taken from us a beloved brother of our order, we cannot question His wisdom, therefore,

Be it Resolved, by Homestead No. 485 of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen at Kalispell, Montana, that the death of Harry J. Khyler we have lost a most worthy and valued friend and beloved brother who met death in true Yeomanlike style, thinking only of the loved ones whom he was leaving to mourn his untimely death, without one word of complaint of his own sufferings; and be it further

Resolved that we extend to his sorrowing widow and children our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, with the belief that, although deprived of his companionship, they will find comfort in the knowledge that their husband and father left behind him no enemies, and only friends who respected, honored and loved him because of his possessing in a marked degree those sterling qualities which made of him the true man; and be it finally

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Homestead, that a copy thereof be sent to the bereaved widow, and that a copy be furnished to each of the Kalispell newspapers for publication.

James K. Lang,
C. E. Foot,
A. J. King,
Committee.

Madison

Florence

May 12 1905 p5

MISS MADISON IS DEAD.

On Tuesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. L. Gray, Miss Florence Madison peacefully passed away from the illness and suffering she had so patiently borne for many months past.

A home service, conducted by Reverends H. E. Clowes and J. W. Falls, was held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. A kindly tribute was paid by Mr. Falls when he spoke of Miss Madison's connection with the public library, as librarian, for so many years, and unmeasured good her influence had been in directing young minds along the better avenues of reading.

Beautiful flowers, tokens from the Library Association and other loving friends, transformed the casket into a couch of rest.

A quiet life, a life of gentleness and good deeds, has gone out and upward to her God.

Marantette Vinia

Jun 16 1905 p5

MRS. MARANTETTE DEAD.

Mrs. Vinia R. Marantette, wife of C. H. Marantette, died at her home in Kalispell Monday, June 19th, after a long illness, lasting eight months. She was forty years old, and leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Marantette has lived in Kalispell for four years, and had made many friends here, who attended the funeral services, which were held at the Catholic church Wednesday morning. The interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Nye Adam L

4 Aug 1905 p4

OBITUARY.

At Rollins, Montana, on July 26th, 1905, Rev. Adam L. Nye—Father Nye, as he was called by his friends and neighbors—passed from his earthly to his heavenly home.

He was born at Lebanon, Pennsylvania, in 1823, so that at the time of his death he was upward of 82 years of age. When he was but 11 years of age his father removed to Ohio. In that state he has lived for 25 years. Thence he moved and spent a number of years in Iowa. He lived also in Michigan, Nebraska and South Dakota. From the latter state he came to Rollins almost six years ago.

He was twice married, and five children survive him. For 25 years he and his aged companion, who survives him, had lived together. And very beautiful was Mother Nye's care of him in the declining years of his life. He too was ever thoughtful of her.

He was converted when 20 years of age, and ever after led a consistent Christian life. Two years later he felt the call of God upon him in reference to the ministry. He was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, but took up that sacred work. Labored most of his ministerial life out on the frontier, first in Ohio, then westward. He was a good minister of Jesus Christ. At first, and for a few years, he identified himself with the M. E. church. Afterward he cast his lot with the Church of God, which fellowship he continued to the time of his death. He was a member of the Masonic order.

Esteemed by all, full of years he passed away. And the language of Holy writ is most appropriate. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

The funeral was from the home the afternoon of July 27th. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends, Rev. W. G. Evans officiating.

A Friend.

Redmond

H G

Jun 9 1905 p5

TOOK HIS OWN LIFE.

H. G. Redmond, who lived in the north part of town, committed suicide last Friday evening by shooting himself through the head with a revolver.

Redmond walked into the house through the kitchen where his wife was working, and passed into a bed room. A moment later came the report of a revolver and she heard her husband fall. She called to a neighbor and rushed to the room, to find that he had been instantly killed by the bullet, which had passed through the brain. He had placed the muzzle of the revolver into his left ear and pulled the trigger. It is reported that Redmond had been drinking heavily, and also that when in that condition he had a tendency toward suicide, and had several times declared that he would kill himself.

The funeral took place Sunday from the Methodist church.

Redmond came to Kalspell last year from Wisconsin with his father-in-law, Mr. Briggs, of the cottage House. He leaves a wife and two children.

Shepherd

Charles M

Mar 24 1905 p4

C. M. SHEPHERD DEAD.

Charles M. Shepherd, at one time a well known man in the valley, died at the soldiers home on Wednesday, and was buried yesterday. His death resulted from paralysis, of which he had had a number of severe attacks. He had recently been granted a pension for services during the rebellion, and had arranged to go to California to try the effect of a change of climate as soon as his money came.

In the palmy days of Demersville Shepherd was justice of the peace there, and among the old timers are many stories of his eccentric method of dealing out justice to criminals and litigants in his court.

He was 59 years old, and had no relatives here.

Streich

Edward

Jan 20 1905 p4

The young man Edward Streich, who was injured at Lakeview, and who died from the injuries, was brought home Saturday, and the last sad rites were held at his parents' home Sunday, under the auspices of Camp No. 10, 588, M. W. A. of which he was a member. It was indeed a sad affair, and greatly so, as he was a young man just in the bloom of manhood, and leaves a young wife of but a few months, besides a father, mother, three brothers, two sisters, and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. The services were conducted by M. J. Wilcox, V. C., assisted by the other officers, according to the ritual of the order. The entire Camp, accompanied by a large concourse of sympathizing friends, formed the funeral cortege to the Bethel cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest.