Miller Aleck 19 Sep 1913 p4

ALECK MILLER FOUND DEAD
The community was shocked yesterday morning to hear of the death of Aleck Miller. The body was found about 8 a. m. by Mr. Searf in his buggy shed which faces on the public road opposite the Whiteside place west of town. Mr. Miller was engaged in the ice business and his ice house, one mile west of Kallepell, was burned on Tuesday night.
There was nothing to indicate that death had resulted from other than natural causes.
Mr. Miller was a young man of apparently robust health and his death came as a great surprise to his friends. He walked to Kallepell in the early evening and evidently started home about two o'clock. The body was found sitting in a cutter under the shed where he died.
During the fire which consumed his ice house and wagons and threatening other property, Mr. Miller worked very hard and it is possible that over exertion had something to do with his death. He was thirty-five years old and single.
The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon if the brother arrives who is on the way from Portland.
Mr. Miller was a man of many fine qualities and his death is greatly deplored by all who knew him.

bottom of the coach, and being stopped to see what was under, the dead man was taken to the crew. Coroner George W. Libby and brought the body to Libby; they were having a detaking party Wednesday.

Miller was in snow service and cleared the track from Essex to Browning ahead of the fast express. He stopped at Browning for orders and after receiving them from the operator stepped out and was seen no more until his body was discovered under the pilot of the incoming train, badly crushed. It is supposed that when Miller stepped out from the depot in the raging blizzard he did not see the incoming train and stepped right in front of it.

MURRAY BROTHERS ARE DROWNED AT BIGFORK

TESTING NEW BOAT THEY WERE ABOUT TO BUY, WHEN IT CAPSIZED

Ben and Gilbert Murray of Polson met their death yesterday morning by drowning at the mouth of the Bigfork river. The men came up from Polson to buy a launch from Mr. Wells of Bigfork, and when taken out to be shown the boat were somewhat intoxicated. Mr. Wells started up the engine and with the two brothers went out some distance from shore. Everything went smoothly until the Murray boys began rocking the launch, probably to find out the amount of rough weathering it could stand, when suddenly it lurched completely over, throwing the occupants into the water.

Mr. Wells succeeded in saving himself by clinging to a tool box, which had been thrown out of the boat when it tipped over. When rescued some time later he was nearly exhausted by the cold drenching.

Ben Murray managed to swim about 300 yards toward shore, but sank before help could reach him. His body was recovered about noon yesterday, but the search for that of his brother is still going on.

Both young men were married and leave wives to mourn their death. They were breeders and well known in Polson and the surrounding country.

VICTIM DRAGGED AND KICKED BY RUNAWAY TEAM—LIVED BUT HALF AN HOUR

R. D. Nelson, a homesteader of Big Meadow, in the Tally lake district, was accidentally killed about 12 o'clock Saturday. Nelson was working with the Gardiner road crew on the Tally lake road, near the Crossly ranch and had driven his team up to the camp for dinner, dragging a chain and double trees. The horses were fractious, and when Nelson took the bridles off without unhitching from the double-trees, the team ran away, and in some manner he was caught and dragged for a considerable distance the team kicking as they ran.

He was badly bruised and cut about the head, and died in half an hour, without regaining consciousness. Dr. Lamb was called to the scene of the accident, but the injured man died before he arrived. The body was brought to town by Coroner Waggener.

The doctor left the next morning. Shortly after his departure his son received a second message stating that Mrs. Redeker had taken a turn for the worse. Before his departure, Dr. Redeker stated that his wife had been afflicted with heart trouble and was in a weakened condition when she reached the east, and that he was satisfied that her serious illness was due to the extreme heat in Philadelphia. Saturday a telegram was received announcing the death of Mrs. Redeker. The message was telephoned to Dr. Redeker at Kalispell before he boarded the train for the east. Searce Mrs Frank

4 Aug 1913 p2

BODY OF MRS. SEARCE RECOVERED AT DIXON

Word was received over the telephone Friday evening last that the body of Mrs. Frank Searce had been found that afternoon on an island opposite Dixon. Mrs. Searce, together with her baby and brother were drowned in the Flathead river about three miles south of Sloan's ferry on June 17, the other two bodies having been previously recovered and buried at Dixon.

Word was at once sent to Mr. Searce at Sloan and the next morning, accompanied by another brother of Mrs. Searce, drove to Dixon, where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Searce and Rev. J. G. Ross, and the funeral was held there Saturday at 11:30. Interment was made in the Dixon cemetery.

The body was not badly mutilated, although it had drifted in the stream for nearly four weeks. All the clothing and some pieces of jewelry were still on the body and it was easily recognized.

It is fully twelve miles, following the meanderings of the river, from where the accident occurred to where the body was found, and it probably had been lodged for some time. Some trees and brush held the body.

The husband father certainly feels a relief from the strain of constant strain and anxiety over the failure to locate all the bodies of his loved ones, and his friends rejoice with him over finally finding them.—Ronna Pioneer.

A. P. SCHMUCKER TAKES OWN LIFE WEDNESDAY

A. P. Schmucker committed suicide Wednesday afternoon at his dairy and fruit ranch, five miles south of Kallispell. Mr. Schmucker returned from Kallispell in the afternoon, and going into a root cellar some distance from the house shot himself in the forehead with a revolver. The body was found later by Mrs. Schmucker. Mr. Schmucker was injured in a runaway accident last winter and since then had been dependent at times over ill health, which is the only known reason for his rash act.

Mrs. Schmucker and daughter, Mrs. Rhoads are the only remaining members of the family, and through the trying ordeal both of the ladies were extremely brave, but of course greatly shocked by the sad affair.

Mr. Schmucker belonged to the Masons, which order conducted the funeral this afternoon from the Wagner undertaking parlors, interment being made in the Conrad cemetery.

Mr. Schmucker also leaves a mother and brother in Pennsylvania; the brother being a prominent college lecturer.

W. P. SHERMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

PROMINENT CITIZEN AND BUSINESS MAN DIED YESTERDAY. MASONIC FUNERAL SUNDAY.

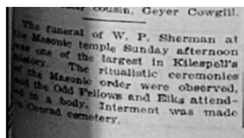

William P. Sherman, well known citizen and business man, died at his home in this city at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, April 3, after an illness of about a year. Mr. Sherman was 52 years of age. He has two brothers, business men of Butte, and a sister, Mrs. W. F. Dummey, of Dillon, Montana.

The death of Mr. Sherman had been expected at almost any time for some months, he being afflicted with the dread Bright's disease. Until last November he was able to attend to his business in a general way, but since that time he had been an invalid. The past winter was spent in California by Mr. and Mrs. Sherman in hopes of relief, but climatic change was of no avail, and they returned home by easy stages about three weeks ago.

William P. Sherman was a native of Dubuque, Iowa, coming to Montana about 25 years ago. He was engaged in business in Butte for a number of years, going to Seattle where he spent four years of successful effort and came to Kalispell about 10 years ago, engaging in the undertaking and piano business. He was one of the best known men in the county, of unquestioned honor and integrity, and held the highest regard of all with whom he came in contact. His passing away in the prime of life is a severe loss to the community.

Mr. Sherman was married to Nora Dougherty in Deer Lodge, Montana, 22 years ago the 19th of this month, who with a family of seven children, four boys and three girls, survive him.

The funeral, under the direction of the Masonic fraternity will be held at the Masonic temple at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The remains will lie in state at the temple from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Sunday. Mr. Sherman was also an honored member of the Elks and Odd Fellows fraternities.

The funeral of W. P. Sherman at the Masonic temple Sunday afternoon was one of the largest in Kalispell history. The ritualistic ceremonies of the Masonic order were observed, and the Odd Fellows and Elks attended in a body. Interment was made in Grand cemetery.

LITTLE GIRL DROWNED IN SWIFT ASHLEY CREEK

Ashley creek was the scene of another drowning last Saturday afternoon. Anna, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Shorde, residing on Seventh avenue west, went to the creek with her 11-year-old brother fishing. At about 2 o'clock the children attempted to cross a log near the stock yards. The log tilted and the little girl fell into the swift current, which carried her rapidly down the stream.

She grasped an overhanging limb and had almost pulled herself out of the water when the limb broke. Meanwhile the little boy was making desperate efforts to save his sister. Several times he plunged into the stream, but the current took the girl out of his grasp. Finally she disappeared, and the boy, in despair, ran for help. Neighbors quickly gathered at the stream and a search for the body was commenced. Jesse James, formerly a member of the local police force, was the successful searcher. The body was found under a pile of drift logs and brush. As it had been in the water about an hour and a half, resuscitation was out of the question.

The funeral of the little girl was held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the home of the family. Interment was made in Conrad cemetery. The parents and brother are grief-stricken over their sad loss.

FUNERAL OF KENNETH SMITH HELD SATURDAY MORNING

The funeral of Kenneth Smith of Whitefish, the express messenger who was killed in the Great Northern wreck at Everett, Washington, September 23, was held from the Catholic church at Whitefish at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. A special funeral train furnished by the Great Northern was run to Kalspell, where interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery. The funeral was under the direction of Coroner J. E. Waggener.

The Whitefish Pilot of September 23, says:

Mr. Smith was express messenger on No. 4 eastbound train, which was derailed on account, it is supposed of a broken rail, and before a warning could be given the west-bound overland train crashed into a portion of the wreckage that was scattered over both tracks.

The sudden death of Mr. Smith is especially sad, as he leaves a family to mourn his untimely death. Besides his wife are four children, two girls and two boys, namely, Evelyn, aged 12, Morris, aged 11, Cathryne, aged 9, and Charles, aged 5, all attractive children, who miss their father more than can be expressed, and Mrs. Smith is almost prostrate from the shock, as he was a kind loving husband and father, and a good citizen, leaving a host of friends, who express the deepest sorrow and regret.

Mr. Smith, who has been running between here and Minot for the past three years, lately took a run on the west end between here and Seattle, and it was arranged to have Mrs. Smith and the children, who have been visiting relatives in St. Paul, to meet him here on Tuesday, and after a brief visit to go to Seattle, where they would make their home for the winter, where the children could go to school, and they were en route when she received news of his injury in the wreck of No. 4, upon which train they were to meet him here, but did not learn the worst until their arrival at Whitefish Tuesday.

The funeral of Mrs. Lewis Sommers was held this afternoon from the family residence, Third avenue east, and interment was made in the Conrad cemetery. The deceased was 45 years of age, and had been a sufferer from an internal cancer for a long time, from which death resulted on Sunday last.

Twins, a girl and a boy, arrived Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stensvik, but the boy died soon after birth. This is the second advent of twins in this family, the first little daughters being now three years of age.

DEATH OF MISS STOUT

Friends in this city were shocked to learn this morning of the death at Lakeside last night of Miss Pearl Stout. Death is said to have resulted from stoppage of the bowels. Relatives here were notified early this morning and left immediately for Lakeside. The funeral is to be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from the home, interment to be made in Conrad cemetery.

The young lady was but 25 years of age, well educated and of lovable nature. She had been ill only since Sunday. Her death is a sad blow to parents, sisters and brother, beside a host of friends.

This community was shocked to hear of the death of Miss Pearl Stout on Friday morning. Although it was known she was seriously ill, her early recovery was hoped for. We will all miss her in our gatherings, as she always graciously consented to assist whenever requested. The love and sympathy of the entire neighborhood goes out to the bereaved family in their bereaved hour of sorrow. The funeral services were conducted Saturday morning by the Rev. ## AGED PIONEER DROP DEAD

JACOB TEETERS, WELL-KNOWN CHARACTER IN MONTANA, EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Libby, July 22.—Jacob Teeters dropped dead Saturday afternoon at Stonehill. "Old Jake" was one of the widest-known characters in this section of Montana, coming to Libby from Thompson Falls in 1893. Although he gave his age as 78, old timers here say they knew him in the Black Hills in 1876 as "Old Man Teeters," when he ran some kind of a station on White creek, between Deadwood and Custer.

From information received by the coroner, Mr. Teeters was born in Ithaca, N. Y., and has a niece, Mary Case, living in Lansing, Mich. His remains were brought to Libby for burial.

Jake Teeters was a noted trapper and bear hunter, and had the reputation of capturing more bear than any other man in this section of Montana.

Boatman Excites Him

At the time of his death he was packing provisions in to Senator J. M. Kennedy's homestead across the river from Stonehill. Saturday afternoon when he went to get his boat to take another load across, he saw a man in it pulling across the stream. The old man followed the boat upstream for a short way, berating the fellow, and upon his return to camp began telling a couple of men in an excited way of the incident, when he keeled over dead.

Jake Teeters made the remark several times that his father lived to be over 100 year of age and had dropped dead, and that he was sure he would go the same way.

To show the respect in which they held him, the citizens of Libby will purchase a monument for Mr. Teeters.

Coroner Waggener has succeeded in locating relatives of Ed Thurnstorm, the man who was killed in the local railroad yards in Cambridge, Minn. They have wired the coroner to ship the remains to that place.
