Sparling-Curtis

The friends of Miss Ruby Sparling and Mrs. James Curtis will be agreeably surprised to learn of their wedding which occurred at Newport, Wash., Saturday, June 11. The newly wedded pair arrived in KallsPELL last evening and surprised their relatives with the happy news of their marriage. They left today for Hot Springs where Mr. Curtis is employed in contract work. Mrs. Curtis is a sister of Mrs. W. T. Lavin.

Shower for Miss Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kronick entertained at a kitchen shower at their home on Second Avenue East on Monday evening, in honor of Miss Anna Lang, who is about to become the bride of Mr. Edward Dewey, a relative of Admiral Dewey.

Amid music, song and dancing the evening was passed very pleasantly. The kitchen articles were numerous and useful, showing the appreciation in which the bride-to-be is held by her many friends. There were about thirty guests present. A delicious repast was served by the hostess, in her delightful way, at the near approach of the new day, and when the many flowers with which the house was filled, were drooping their pretty heads.

The happy couple will take up their abode on the ranch of the groom near Lencopne, Mont. The best of wishes go with her to her new home from all her friends and companions.

Miscellaneous Shower

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. Logie (formerly Miss Gladys Yates), whose marriage took place about two weeks ago, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Williams last night, the occasion being a miscellaneous shower for the new bride. During the evening, games and conversation were enjoyed and refreshments were served. The young people were presented with a large number of pretty and useful gifts.

Melvin Lytle and Miss Ruth Fry, both of Somers, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. R. D. Brittain. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Diehl of Somers. Mr. Lytle is employed by the Somers Lumber company at the Somers lumber yards and the young people will make their home there.

Elwood-McClarty

Joseph Homer McClarty of Somers and Miss Burrell Elwood of KallsPELL were quietly married at Missoula on Thursday after they had slipped away from their friends and motored to that city. They returned to KallsPELL on Thursday evening. On the trip to Missoula after they had travelled about 18 miles from Polson the groom-to-be discovered that the suitcase containing his wedding suit had disappeared. They turned back and retraced their tracks for several miles but were unable to find the missing baggage and were forced to continue their trip to Missoula where the groom appeared at the ceremony in his "reglar" clothes.

A marriage license was issued today to John Elmer Moe and Ruth Esther Dick, both of Whitefish.

John Elmer Moe and Ruth Esther Dick, both of Whitefish, were quietly married this afternoon at the city hall by Justice Peter P. Weberg.

George D. Willis and Nora Winchell, both of KallsPELL, were married yesterday afternoon at the city hall. Justice of the Peace Weberg performing the ceremony. The young couple were accompanied by two sisters of the groom, Misses Jacie and Mary Willis.
