ESSEX MAN PASSES AWAY IN KALISPELL

Guy Ingrum of Essex passed away in Kalispell at an early hour Sunday morning after a brief illness. He was 42 years of age and had been located at Essex for many years in the employ of the Great Northern. The body is at the Waggener & Campbell chapel and funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of Mrs. Ingrum, who was in Arizona with her daughter.

Guy Ingrum died Sunday morning at the Sisters' hospital in Kalispell, following an operation for ruptured appendix. The body is at the Waggener & Campbell chapel waiting the arrival of Mrs. Ingrum and children from Arizona. Mr. Ingrum was 37 years old. He came here from Whitefish and has been a boiler-maker in the roundhouse here for a number of years.

JOE GAGNER, PIONEER OF FLATHEAD, IS DEAD

Joe Gagner, early pioneer of the Flathead, passed away in Missoula yesterday, according to word brought here today by James Dockstader of Somers, his son-in-law. Mr. Gagner had been ill for the last six months. He was 66 years of age.

It was in the year 1823, after having been in Missoula for two years, that Gagner first came to the Flathead. There were not many settlers here in those days and Deeraville was yet to be born.

He was the first sheriff of Flathead county and not only was his acquaintance over the valley wide but his friendships were many. Since 1915 he has been operating a cattle ranch at Dixon.

Mr. Gagner is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Gagner; a daughter, Mrs. James Dockstader; and three sons, Joseph and Fred of the Flathead and Austin of Alberta.
