

ISAAC JEFFORDS DIES
PAST 75 YEARS OF AGE

Isaac Jeffords passed away late Christmas eve at his home just north of the fairgrounds. He had been in poor health for some time, having passed his 75th year. Mr. Jeffords had made his home in the Flathead since 1919.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Waggoner and Campbell chapel by Rev. Edward C. Bartlett of the Methodist Episcopal church, and interment will be made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY FOR HIRAM JOHNSON

Funeral services for Hiram Johnson were held yesterday afternoon. On account of the contagious nature of the disease private services were first held at the house, Rev. George M. Fisher speaking from the altar to the family seated inside and a few sitting in cars in the street. Following this service the body was taken to Conrad Memorial cemetery where the Elks lodge held services in the open air a little distance from the casket and family. The services were led by W. F. Schnell, exalted ruler, and were very impressive. A large crowd of friends gathered at the cemetery and stood at a distance. Music was furnished by Don Shepard, Arthur Driscoll and Burt Carr. The pall bearers were I. D. Rognlien, W. C. Whipps, George Cade, E. S. Disbrow, James Lake and George Grubb. Interment was made under the direction of Waggoner & Campbell.

Poison, July 2.—Russell Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, died Wednesday night, death resulting from injuries received Monday night when he was thrown from his horse as he was nearing home after a ride with friends. He lay unconscious where he fell all night and was found early Tuesday morning by William Lauchlin as he was going to work.

MRS. E. M. JUDSON, AGED
MATRON, PASSES AWAY HERE

Mrs. E. M. Judson passed away shortly after midnight at the home of Mrs. Kate Smithers on Fifth avenue east, where she had lived the past five years. Mrs. Judson was 86 years of age.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. J. L. Stewart of Lead, South Dakota, who was with her at the end. A daughter-in-law, Mrs. Winifred Judson, widow of the late Rev. Eugene Judson, Baptist pastor here for a number of years, and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p. m., in the Baptist church, with Rev. E. Clutterbuck in charge.

MRS. DAISY C. JUMP
DIES AT DAYTON HOME

Mrs. Daisy C. Jump passed away early this morning at her home in Dayton. The family formerly lived in Kalispell, having come here in 1902. They lived here most of the time until 1919. Mrs. Jump was 51 years of age and had been in very poor health for some time. Earl Jump arrived last night from Blomington, Illinois, and reached his mother just a few hours before the end came. The body was brought to the Waggener and Campbell chapel and funeral arrangements are pending word from relatives in the east.

SERVICES TOMORROW FOR MRS. DAISY C. JUMP

Funeral services for Mrs. Daisy C. Jump will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. George M. Fisher at the Presbyterian church and interment will be made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.
