MRS. ELIZABETH RAY DIES
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Elizabeth Ray, wife of William E. Ray, died early this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Koppang, northeast of Kallispell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray came here five years ago and Mrs. Ray had passed her 65th year and was an invalid for many years.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. H. C. Hjelmervik at the Waggener & Campbell chapel and interment will be made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to those who sent flowers, the musicians and Rev. Hjelmervik at the time of our bereavement.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT DIES OF MENINGITIS

Fred Robinson, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of Ninth street east, passed away yesterday afternoon at his home of spinal meningitis. The lad had been ill only since Sunday.

Private funeral services were held this afternoon at Conrad Memorial cemetery, by Rev. Joseph Chester of the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment was under the direction of Waggener and Campbell.

Fred was a high school student and his many young friends were shocked to hear of his sudden going.

Roper George 5 Mar 1927 pg 1

GEORGE ROPER DIED THIS MORNING AT HIS HOME

George Roper passed away at an early hour this morning at his home on Third avenue west, at the age of 61 years. Mr. Roper had conducted a barber shop in Kallispell for about 26 years. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Florence and Edna, and by three brothers who live in the east, one of whom is expected here for the funeral. Arrangements are pending his arrival.
