Captain a Real Guy

A letter from Robt. R. Brown of Kallispell, and a former Inter Lake news boy, now in Camp Roberts California, relates an incident that will be of interest to many here. He says:

"On Saturday, Nov. 15, Private Philip Mueller, a former resident of Marion, and myself were talking about the home town and wondering where our old friends are now.

"Upon passing the officers quarters of the 79th Infantry Training Battalion, I heard a familiar voice, and turned to recognize Captain E. L. Sunde, Commander of Company B, known as plain Ed Sunde in Kallispell, and addressed as plain Ed Sunde by us two buck privates. It seems that when three men from the Flathead meet in as large a place as Camp Roberts, rank is forgotten.

"Trying to suppress our amazement at seeing two silver bars on Ed's shoulder, we had an informal 'bull' session with a darned good captain, who is still a good guy. We think he is a good captain because he was a such a good private under Captain Anderson in Company F, with the Montana National Guard."

Private Brown's address is Battery A, 54th Field Artillery Training Battalion, Bldg: 6116, Camp Roberts, Calif.
