

Zeeck William Jr 10 Jul 1942 pg 3 24 Nov 1942 pg 8 7 Dec 1942 pg 4

William Zeeck, Jr., received his commission as sergeant and was sent to duty in his street engineering work in Walla Walla, Wash., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zeeck received a cable from their son, Bill, stating that he is well and safe, and is receiving his family's mail. The cable did not state his whereabouts.

William Zeeck of Somers has received word from his son, Willy H. W. Zeeck, who is with a bomber squadron somewhere in England, that he has been promoted to technical sergeant.

Zook Clem 21 Nov 1942 pg 5

Clem Zook is leaving Sunday for Seattle, Wash., after spending a week in Kitsap on furlough. He is with the U. S. Merchant Marine.