

Young Charles Robert 30 Jan 1943 pg 4

Farragut, Idaho, Jan. 30.—One of the first students to enter the new Service school recently opened at the U. S. Naval training station here is Charles Robert Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Young of Holt Star Route, Kalispell, Mont.

He is enrolled in the radioman school, which he will attend for a period of 16 weeks. During this time he will learn the latest technical information in the field where he will serve, and take the first steps in advancement to petty officer ratings.

Staff Sergeant Edward L. Young has arrived from Fort Omaha on furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philo Young. He expects to remain here about a week, and will then go on to Spokane to see other relatives before returning. He brought greetings from Lieut. D. Gordon Roghien to his Kalispell friends.
