

Zachary Norman F 14 Oct 1943 pg 2

Norman F. Zachary, son of R. H. Zachary of Kalspell is now in the United States Marine Corps, having enlisted at Butte Tuesday. He returned to Kalspell on a 14-day furlough following which he will receive his basic training at the Marine Corps base, San Diego. His wife, the former Eva N. Anderson, will make her home at Somers during the time Private Zachary is in the service.

Zeeck William Jr 12 Feb 1943 pg 1

WILLIAM ZEECK, JR.,
OF SOMERS, MISSING
AFTER BOMBING TRIP

The War Department recently notified William Zeeck of Somers that his son William was missing in action over Germany. The younger Zeeck went to England with the 401st Bomber Squadron, and he was a member of the crew of a Flying Fortress (B-17) bomber. After a bombardment trip over Germany six of the bombers were reported missing and Zeeck was in the crew of one of them.

11 May 1943 pg 4

The War Department has confirmed a previous announcement made that Sergeant Willy H. W. Zeeck, son of William Zeeck of Somers, is missing in action in the European area. The first announcement was made last December that Sergeant Zeeck was missing in action.

Zeletzney Gene 12 Feb 1943 pg 3

Gene Zeletzney is home on furlough and is enjoying a visit with the home folks.

Zuehlke Julius S 8 Sep 1943 pg 4

Second Lieutenant Julius S. Zuehlke, former instructor in mathematics and science at St. Matthew's school in Kalspell, has just received his commission at the Marine Corps schools in Quantico, Virginia.

Lieutenant Zuehlke entered the Marine Corps in January, 1942, at San Francisco, at a private and served at San Diego, California. After attaining the rank of Corporal he was chosen for officers' training. The Lieutenant is a 1934 graduate of Carroll College at Helena, where he specialized in science and mathematics.

He also was a football player.

12 Nov 1943 pg 5

Second Lieutenant Julius S. Zuehlke, former teacher at St. Matthew's school here, has completed advanced officer training at the Marine Corps Reserve Officers School at Quantico, Virginia. He is now ready for assignment to a specialist school or a combat unit.