Vick	Richard V	27 Jul 1945 pg 4	8 Dec 1945 pg 5
		Vick With AACB Sergeant Richard V. Vick of Kalispell, Montana, is a China AACB specialist. China AACB—Army airways communications system—is the organization responsible for the safety of aircraft flying China skyways. In the course of the last two years in China, Vick has acquired the presidential unit citation and two bronze stars for his Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon. It would be impossible to say how many aircraft and airmen have "made it" safely over the "Hump" of the Himalayas as the result of Vick's skill and "savvy" and devotion to duty. Vick himself was a British radio operator for a long time. Vick is due for rotation, or stateside temporary duty, if China AACB can spare him.	S/Sgt. Richard V. Vick was released at Camp McCoy, Wis., Nov. 30, 1945. He entered the army in Oct. 1942 and fought at China and Ipin-Durma. He has the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon, the good conduct medal and the distinguished unit badge.
