

Cpl. Hilbert J. Zorzle was released from the Marines at Maro Island, Calif., January 11, 1946. He entered in October, 1942, and took part in operations against the enemy forces at Guam, Okinawa, Ryukyu Islands, the occupation of Tsingtao, China. He has the navy unit citation and Good Conduct medal.