TWO LOCAL YOUTH, EMIL STRUCK, KEVIN JOHNSON, ENLIST ARMY
 The U. S. Recruiting station located at the Post Office building, Kalispell, announced the enlistment of Emil E. Struck and Kevin Johnson in the Regular Army.
 Kevin Johnson, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heih, Route 2, Kalispell, enlisted in the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Ord, Calif. Kevin will be trained at Fort Ord and later assigned to the division at Fort Benning, Georgia. He attended Flathead county high school and was active in football, basketball and baseball, winning two letters for football and basketball. Kevin chose the enlistment in the Regular Army because of the advantages and benefits he would acquire under the G. I. Bill of Rights, since he intends to continue his education after completing his enlistment. The recruiting sergeant stated that Kevin had written from Fort Ord and said: "The hours are good and it is a good clean life and I like it."

SEVEN LOCAL YOUNG MEN ENLIST IN NEW NAVAL RESERVE

Lieutenant Commander Bernard Dickson, U. S. naval reserve, office in charge of the traveling procurement unit announced in Kalispell today that considerable interest had been shown by navy veterans in the new naval reserve program.

The new naval reserve is a voluntary organization and involves no compulsory training whatsoever. Veterans joining the naval reserve are enlisted in the rate in which discharged, the time spent in the naval reserve counts towards longevity, and they may request the annual training cruise if desired.

To take advantage of these benefits the following Kalispell men enlisted in the naval reserve today: Emil Nommenson, Raymond E. McMillan, Charles R. Young, Karl Bachman, Wendell D. Johnson, Claude A. Brist and Bert Orr, Jr.
