		NAVY VET IN REGULAR ARMY Dale C. Torrey, 23-year-old son of Cleo Torrey of Eureka, Montana, enlisted in the regular army at Fort Lewis, Wash., on August 12, according to announcement made today by M/Sgt. George W. Lehman of the U. S. army and air force recruiting service located at the post office building in Kalispell. Torrey was discharged last May as a pharmacist mate 1st class after nearly six years in the navy, and enlisted in the regular army as a staff sergeant. He was able to enlist with a grade or rating because the army recognizes the value of previous experience and gives grades at the time of enlistment accordingly, Lehman said.
