

Surname

Young

Given

Charles R

Publication Date

24 Apr 1947 pg 12

SEVEN LOCAL YOUNG MEN ENLIST IN NEW NAVAL RESERVE

Leutenant Commander Bernard Dickson, U. S. naval reserve, officer in charge of the traveling procurement unit announced in Kalispell today that considerable interest has been shown by navy veterans in the new naval reserve program.

The new naval reserve is a voluntary organization and involves no compulsory training whatsoever. Veterans joining the naval reserve are enlisted in the rate in which discharged, the time spent in the naval reserve counts towards longevity, and they may request the annual training cruise if desired.

To take advantage of these benefits the following Kalispell men enlisted in the naval reserve today: Emil Nommenson, Raymond E. McMillan, Charles R. Young, Karl Bachman, Wendell D. Johnson, Clyde A. Brist and Bert Orr, Jr.

Young

Jimmie

24 Jul 1947 pg 11

Jimmie Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Young, has just recently been discharged from the navy air corps and is spending some time with his wife and baby at the Hollis Young lakeshore cottage.