

MRS. RUTH GALLOWAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Galloway, 42, who lived at 234 Third avenue west, were held in the Johnson chapel at 10 o'clock Thursday morning with Rev. Fr. J. C. Touhey in charge of the services. Two selected hymns were sung during the service by Clide I. Carr with Miss Louise Hanger as accompanist. Friends chosen to act as pallbearers were Conrad Duhay, T. B. McBride, John Schwaboda, Louis O'Neil, Lloyd Erickson and Adolph Lindgren. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Ruth Galloway, known to her many friends here as "Montana Rose," was born in Cass Lake, Minn., Nov. 24, 1905, a daughter of A. L. and Verna Rossman. As a young girl she came to Montana with her parents and lived for a while at Lewistown. She came to Kalispell 30 years ago and had lived here since that time. She had been employed as a waitress.

Mrs. Galloway died at a local hospital Monday afternoon at the age of 42 years. She is survived by her father, A. L. Rossman, of Spokane, Wash., her mother, Mrs. Verna Rossman, and one sister, Mrs. Paul Montgomery, both of St. Paul, and a son, Ramon, in California.

FRANKLIN PIERCE GAREY

Franklin Pierce Garey was born in Jenningsville, Pennsylvania Jan. 7, 1861. His boyhood days were spent in Pennsylvania. On Aug. 10, 1887 he was married to Eliza L. Stoddard. They came to Eureka in 1903 and homesteaded there. He was a member of the board of county commissioners of Lincoln county for 12 years and served on the Glen Lake irrigation board. In 1928 he retired from active life and lived in Eureka until 1945 when he came to live with his children in Kalispell and Meteline Falls, Wash. He and Mrs. Garey celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Aug. 10, 1937. Mrs. Garey passed away Nov. 12, 1941. He observed his 87th birthday anniversary on Jan. 7 and passed away the following day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Wolf of Metaline Falls, Wash. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. G. F. Wolf of Metaline Falls, and Mrs. O. I. Wegner of Kalispell, two sons, J. M. and R. W. Garey, of Kalispell; a sister, Mrs. Marila Garey in Pennsylvania; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

RUBY S. GIBBONS

Mrs. Ruby S. Gibbons, who died recently in Eureka where she had resided for many years, had been outstanding in church and school work and community and organization activities in that town.

For several years she served as superintendent of the Episcopal Sunday school, was president of the local as well as the district Episcopal Guild, and a member of the Daughters of the King of the Episcopal church. She had been an active member of the American Legion Auxiliary for many years, was president of the Eureka unit two different years and district president one year.

Mrs. Gibbons had taught school at Chester, Bigfork, Perkins and Tooley Lake, and was serving her third term as teacher in the fourth grade of the Eureka schools at the time of her death.

She is survived by her widower, Walter S. Gibbons; one daughter, Mrs. Willis Rosenthal, the former Patricia Gibbons, who was assistant librarian from 1940 to 1941 and head librarian from 1941 to 1944 at the Kalispell City library; three sons, Walter J., John and James Gibbons; one sister, Mrs. James Fitzpatrick of Seattle; a brother, Ben Arndt of Mondamin, Iowa, and one granddaughter, Winnifred Rosenthal.

Funeral services were held at the Episcopal church in Eureka with the Rev. George Masuda officiating. Members of the American Legion auxiliary and children she taught in Eureka formed the lane of escort in tribute to her memory. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery in Kalispell.

CLIFFORD A. GLEASON

Clifford Arnold Gleason was born in Phillipsburg, Montana, on September 17, 1899 to Levi and Dora Merrittfeld Gleason. When four years of age he moved with his parents to Plains, Montana where he grew to manhood. Later he moved to Pablo, Montana to make his home.

In 1922 he was united in marriage to Thelma Gates of Whitefish, Montana. Four sons and two daughters were born to this union. Mr. and Mrs. Gleason made their home at Bigfork for a time and later moved to Kalispell. Mr. Gleason died suddenly, Sunday, May 16, 1948, at the age of 48 years. Surviving him are his wife, Maude Thelma; four sons, Clifford, Allen and Victor, all of Kalispell, and Paul who is in the U. S. Army in Italy; two daughters, Gertrude, now Mrs. Robert Leland, and Pearl, now Mrs. Alvin Chambers; his mother, Mrs. Augusta Gleason, and one brother, Eugene Gleason, both living in Pablo, Mont.

ELIZA A. GLENDENNING

Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza Ann Glendenning were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Richard F. Vick of Epworth Methodist church. Don Shepard sang two solo selections during the service, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pallbearers were A. J. Shaw, Otto Marken, J. E. Claypool, Maurice Boorman, W. T. Lavin and Arthur Overby. Interment was made in the Soldiers home cemetery at Columbia Falls.

Obituary

Eliza Ann Carpenter was born Sept. 13, 1864, in Sangamon county, Illinois, and 18 months later moved with her parents to Osage, Kansas, making the trip by ox team and covered wagon. When she was 15 years of age the family moved to St. Clair county, near Appleton City.

In 1891 she was married to John Line and lived for nine years near Rapid City, S. Dak. Two children Claude and Fern, were born there. They came to Kalispell in 1900 and moved to a farm six miles northwest. Mr. Line passed away there the following year and the son, Claude, died in 1903.

On Dec. 28, 1904, Mrs. Line was married to P. C. Glendenning and moved to the farm three miles south of Columbia Falls. One son, George, was born there. The family came to Kalispell in 1907 and Mrs. Glendenning had made her home here except since 1936 she has lived at the state Soldiers' Home a part of each year.

Mrs. Glendenning passed away at the Soldiers' Home on Feb. 4, 1948, at the age of 83 years, four months. She is survived by her two children, Mrs. Fern Blair of Seattle, Wash., and George Glendenning of San Jose, Calif., and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Glendenning had been a member of Epworth Methodist church since 1909.

JOHN W. GRAY

Funeral services for John W. Gray were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian church in Whitefish by Rev. C. P. Daane. During the service Burt Carr sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Otto Pryear. Friends acting as pall bearers were Guy Loomis, E. E. Littlefield, L. C. Hollar, Chester Yale, Ira Smith and Tom Maddison. Interment was made in the Whitefish cemetery under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

John Wesley Gray was born in Guthrie county, Iowa, April 24, 1866. He passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. C. Tallman, March 25, 1939.

On September 24, 1889, he was married to Elsie Simar at Estherville, Iowa. To this union six children were born, Dorothy, Charles, Sylvia, Jewell, Wesley and Violet. The latter two preceded him in death.

In September 1925 they moved to Whitefish, where he engaged in farming until ill health forced him to retire.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. J. W. Gray of Whitefish; four children, Charles Gray of Fondulac, Wisconsin, Mrs. T. S. Snyder, Mrs. P. C. Tallman, Mrs. Frank Yale, all of Whitefish, Mont.; a sister, Mrs. J. R. Estes of Spirit Lake, Iowa; a brother, Frank Gray of Harrisburg, S. D. and eight grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray would have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary this year.

LOUIS Z. GROB

Last rites for Louis Z. Grob were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel. The Rev. D. E. Allen of the Central Christian church officiated at the services and two beautiful musical selections were sung by Clyde Carr with Mrs. J. M. Carlson as organ accompanist. A large number of friends and neighbors of the Grob family gathered to pay their last respects. Those who served as casket bearers were John Boss, J. M. Bachman, R. H. Gatiss, Walter Manning, William Plummer and F. S. Calbie. Interment was in the family plot in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Louis Z. Grob was born July 12, 1881 in Obstaldin, Switzerland, and came to this country with his parents when eight years of age. They settled in Illinois where Louis grew up on a farm. When 14 years of age, his father passed away, leaving him as the supporter of the family.

In 1906 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Elgsti and of this union were born five sons and two daughters. In the fall of 1907 Mr. Grob moved to the Flathead to make his home and settled in the Creston district where he has lived since. Mr. Grob was always considered one of the most progressive farmers and ranchers in the valley. He was in possession of the first combine in this vicinity and imported the first Brown Swiss cattle in the valley.

Last December he made a trip to California to spend the winter months and passed away there suddenly on April 17, 1948, at the home of his sister in San Diego. He was 66 years of age at the time of his passing. Surviving him are four sons, Fred and Stanley of Kalispell, Chris and Arnold of Creston; one daughter, Mrs. Frank Anderson of San Francisco 14 grandchildren;

Peter Steider of San Diego, Mrs. Joe Steider of Metomora, Ill., and Mrs. Rose Minger of Chicago, Ill.

OPAL L. GROVER

Funeral services for Miss Opal LaVonne Grover were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Paul Jones of the Assembly of God Tabernacle. During the service two selected hymns were sung by Esther Mugrudd, Mildred Anderson and Mrs. Ruben Giopp. Mrs. J. M. Carlson accompanied at the organ. Friends acting as pallbearers were James VandenBos, Eugene Peterson, Arthur Hedlin, Harland Smith, Raven Snyder and William Briner. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Opal LaVonne Grover was born June 22, 1923 at Kalispell, Montana and grew up here attending the local grade and high schools. She had recently been employed as bookkeeper but had been ill the past two months. She passed away Feb. 10, 1948 at the age of 24 years 7 months.

She is survived by her mother and father and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen of Kalispell and Mrs. Edith T. Grover of Anacortes, Washington.

WILLIAM H. GUINARD

Private funeral services for William Henry Guinard were held Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel, with Rev. Frank B. Hillis officiating. Beautiful prelude and postlude organ music was played for the service by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Members of the family served as casket bearers and interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William Henry Guinard was born April 14, 1870, in Clearfield county, Penn., to Peter and Jane Guinard. In 1910 he came to the Flathead and settled in the Half Moon district. In 1922 Mr. Guinard went to Michigan where he resided for several years, later returning to the Flathead where he has since made his home.

He passed away at his home on the west shore of Flathead lake on Nov. 2, 1948, at the age of 78 years.

Surviving him are his wife, Martha; three daughters, Gladys Jensen of Watervliet, Mich., Alice Jystad of Fortine, Mont., and Georgia Jensen of Swan River; also two sons, Lucien and Poincaire of Kalispell, a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Two children, William and Lottie, preceded Mr. Guinard in

WILLIAM E. GUST

Last rites for William Edward Gust were conducted at the Waggener and Campbell chapel Saturday morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. D. E. Allen of the Central Christian church. During the services John Hushnell sang two beautiful selections with Mrs. J. M. Carlson as organ accompanist. Friends who served as pallbearers were Ben Reimer, H. N. Webb, O. L. Brown, L. T. Day, W. C. Gage, and L. D. Spafford. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William Edward Gust was born at Cyrus, Minn., on August 24, 1878 to Charles and Bertha Gust. In 1901 he came to the Flathead to make his home, living in Kalispell until 1940 when he moved to Whitefish. Mr. Gust was employed by the Great Northern railroad as an engineer and later as an engine inspector.

On November 7, 1906 he was united in marriage to Hilda Carolyn Sampson and to this union were born two sons and two daughters.

Mr. Gust passed away at his home on 626 Third avenue west north March 31, 1948 at the age of 69 years. Surviving him are his widow, Hilda C.; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Coppedge and Mrs. Lucille Green of Kalispell, and two sons, Lawrence M. of Spokane, Wash., and William E. Jr., of San Francisco, Calif.; four brothers, Robert, Richard, Fred and Bernard Gust, all living in Minnesota, and one sister, Mrs. George Hammerbacher of Chicago, Illinois, and 12 grandchildren.