Private E-2 Gregory L. Iverson, son of Mrs. Margaret Iverson, Rt. 4, Kalispell, served as Col. George M. Wallace's orderly. Col. Wallace is commanding officer of Company C, 1st Battalion, 1st AIT Brigade, U. S. Army Training Center, Fort Dix, N. J.

In a letter to Mrs. Iverson, Col. Wallace said Iverson had been selected as the colonel's orderly and "outstanding member of the Brigade Guard Mount for April 20, 1968.

"This time honored tradition of selecting this soldier, whose personal bearing and military equipment is perfect, as the colonel's orderly, has always been recognized as an honor to the individual and the military unit he represents.

"His selection reflects credit upon himself and those who have contributed to his character development. I wish to assure you he is in good health and has performed ably during Advanced Individual Training.

Private Iverson is in the Montana National Guard and is serving a six-month active duty tour. He entered the Guard in February and will return to the local unit in January.
