Butte Man Killed In War Action

BUTTE (AP) — Army Sgt. Florian J. Zahn, 20, was killed in enemy action in Vietnam, the Pentagon reported Tuesday. He was the 1124. Montana to die in Vietnam.

Zahn's mother, Mrs. John Zahn, received word her son was reported missing May 21 and it is assumed he was fatally injured on that date.

Zahn entered the Army following his graduation from Butte High School in June 1966.

He was born in Linton, N.D., and moved to Montana 17 years ago.

Survivors besides his mother include 10 brothers and sisters.
