G. V. Nyhuis Funeral Rites Announced

28 Oct 70
D-27 Oct 1970
WHITEFISH — Coroner-Sheriff Ross Wilson responded at 12:45 p.m. Monday when there was a call from Whitefish police for the coroner.

Wilson made the determination Gysbert Van Nyhuis, 53, died at his home from a self-inflicted gunshot wound from a 9 mm pistol.

No further investigation is planned by the coroner's office.

Mr. Van Nyhuis was born October 29, 1916 at Sheldon, Iowa. He had spent his childhood and received his education in Iowa. During World War II, he was employed at a munitions plant at Omaha, Neb. In 1946, he moved to Whitefish where he was employed as a locomotive engineer for the Great Northern Railway until his retirement about six years ago due to ill health.

He was a member of the Christ Lutheran Church; the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineers; Whitefish Lodge 64 AF&AM; Order of the Eastern Star, Vista Chapter 44; and the Whitefish Moose Lodge.

Aug. 7, 1953, he was married to June Eisinger at Long Lake, Minn., and is now survived by her at the family home.

He is also survived by one son, Mark, and one daughter, Margaret, at the family home; five sisters and one brother.

He was preceded in death by one brother, John.

Funeral services for Mr. Van Nyhuis will be conducted in the Christ Lutheran Church at 3 p.m. Wednesday with the Rev. Dennis Hanson officiating. Interment will be in the Whitefish Cemetery under the direction of the Austin Funeral Home. The family suggests friends who wish may contribute memorials to Christ Lutheran Church.
