

Bernard Yectorowic

16 Aug 1977

Graveside services for Bernard Yectorowic, known as Bernard Gandy were held Thursday 2 p.m. at Woodlawn Cemetery with the Rev. Dan Clark of United Methodist Church officiating.

Mr. Yectorowic, 72, died Tuesday in Kalispell. He was born March 25, 1905 in Minnesota, and moved with his parents to the Joplin area where they homesteaded. He came to the Flathead 25 years ago and worked in Hungry Horse Dam construction, also on the Anacosta plant. Two years ago he moved to Libby.

He was a single man and is survived by two brothers, Ben and J. G. and a sister, Ann Obie, all of Sweet Home, Ore.

Pallbearers were Hubert Hellman, Darrol Groven, Norman Groven, Bill Rowe, Bill Fish, Bob Trumbull. Van Leuven Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Edward Yankey, 56

20 Apr 1977

Libby — Edward Yankey, 56, passed away Wednesday in Libby. He was employed by W.R. Arace and Co. at the time of his death.

He was born Aug. 20, 1920 in Watts, Mich. He was raised in Michigan and served with the U.S. Army in World War II. He had lived in California before moving to Libby in 1966 where he was a welder and mechanic on the Libby Dam project. He had been Survivors include his widow, Clara of Libby; two sons, Mark and Edward, both of Libby; one brother, Richard of Carlton, Mich.; five sisters, Freda June of Dearborn Heights, Mich., Joyce Riley, Anna Belle Ferguson and Irma Carter, all of Carlton, Mich. and Jacqueline Hobbs of Bishop, Calif. and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at the Vial Funeral Home with Pastor Sheridan Erickson of Christ Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be Monday in LaSalle, Mich.

23 Nov 1977

Flossie York, 89

Mrs. Flossie York, 89, died in Newport, Ore., Wednesday.

She was born Dec., 17, 1887, in Monroe Center, Wis. She moved with her family to Kalispell, where she attended school and spent her early life. On April 26, 1906, she was married to Jonathan York in Scobey. The couple homesteaded there until 1925 when they moved to White Sulphur Springs. In 1926, they moved to Plains where they farmed until 1958 when they moved to Columbia Falls.

Mrs. York was preceded in death by her husband in 1969 at which time she moved to Depot Bay, Ore. She was also preceded in death by one son, Herbert, in 1970.

She is now survived by one daughter, Verna Decker of Depot Bay, Ore.; 11 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Services for Mrs. York will be conducted in the Van Leuven Chapel at 10:30 a.m. Monday with the Rev. Dan Clark, pastor of the United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Francis M. Young, 58

7 Apr 1977

LIBBY — Francis M. Young, 58, died Thursday in Wenatchee, Wash. He was born Dec. 30, 1918 in San Francisco.

Mr. Young had been superintendent of highway construction and also had worked on the Libby Dam project until moving to Wenatchee in July of 1976.

He was a veteran of World War II. On Sept. 19, 1943, he married June Soupherland in Los Angeles.

He now is survived by his widow, June, of Wenatchee and one daughter, Carol Young, of Libby.

Services will be 10 a.m. Monday at the Vial Funeral Home with Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Burial will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery.

Elsie Young, 83

17 May 1975
TROY — Elsie Nora Young, 83, died in St. John's Lutheran Hospital in Libby on Tuesday. She was born March 28, 1894, in Oconto, Wis. Calif., Loren and George, both of Troy; one daughter, Lillian Young of Madison, Wis., two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Charles, preceded her in death in 1926. She came to Troy in 1959 from the Great Falls area.

She is survived by three sons Stanley of Van Nuys,

Graveside services will be 2 p.m. Saturday at the Milner Lake Cemetery in Troy with Pastor Orville Forrest officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of the Vial Funeral Home of Libby.

Jack Young, 62

19 June 1977
TROY — Jack Young, 62, died Sunday at St. John's Lutheran Hospital in Libby.

He was born Dec. 19, 1914 at Renick, W.Va. He came to the Libby area at the age of three. He had worked as one of the early-day operators of the Urel ferry on the Kootenai River.

He later worked for the Forest Service, W.R. Grace and Co. and the Great Northern Railway until his retirement in 1970.

He is survived by two sons, David of Whitefish and Quentin of Libby; two sisters, Nancy Rippey of Hutchinson, Kan. and Fanny Hammons of Troy; two brothers, Bill of Fortine and James of Appleton, Wis.; two half-sisters and one grandchild.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Vial Funeral Home with the Rev. Wilford Luce officiating. Burial will follow in the City of Libby Cemetery. The casket will be open prior to services.

Susan Young, 49

18 Mar 1977
Susan Young, 49, a former resident of Kalispell and Creston, died Mar. 18 in San Jose, Calif. after a long illness.

Survivors include her husband Robert Young in San Jose; one son, Bill Young of Carrollton, Texas; one daughter, Robyn Young of Santa Cruz, Calif.; one brother, Fred Selleck of Golden, Colo.; and her mother Mary Selleck of San Jose.

Funeral services were in San Jose.