

3 June 1981

Clyde Bernard Yenne, 76

Clyde Bernard Yenne, 76, a native of Flathead County, died Wednesday afternoon at his home in Whitefish.

Mr. Yenne was born Oct. 31, 1904, in Creston, a son of Peter and Minnie Yenne. He received his schooling in the Cayuse Prairie School and later Flathead High School.

He worked in logging and highway construction after his schooling and was married to Grace Basye in 1927 in Kalispell. The couple made their home in Kalispell for a short time and then moved to Polson where they lived for several years before returning to Kalispell.

During World War II he was employed in the construction of air bases in Great Falls and Alaska.

In 1944 he started his career with the Great Northern Railroad and moved to Whitefish in 1945. He and his wife continued to make their home in Whitefish until he retired in 1969 as a locomotive engineer for the Great Northern Railroad.

He was a member of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen and the Teamsters.

Mr. Yenne is survived by his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Wesley (Lois) Bailey of Wallace, Idaho; one son, Bernard Yenne of Salem, Ore.; seven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; two brothers, William of Santa Cruz, Calif., and Tom of Bigfork; three sisters, Florence Markan of Bigfork, Frances Gudgel of San Jose, Calif., and Ann Hollinger of Creston.

Services will be conducted at the Austin Chapel at 1:30 p.m. Saturday with the Rev. Ron Piere of the Swan Chapel officiating. Interment will be made in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

25 June 1981

Claude T. Yerkes, 74

Claude T. Yerkes, 74, 484 N. Main St., died in Kalispell Friday.

He was born June 22, 1907, in Kalispell, a son of Frank and Ann Yerkes. He attended Kalispell schools and was a graduate of the Missoula High School. He then attended Gonzaga University in Spokane.

He had been a pharmaceutical salesman for the Brunswig Drug Co. for many years prior to his retirement. He was of the Catholic faith. He was preceded in death by his parents.

On July 29, 1961, he married Helen Reed in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and is now survived by her at the family home. He is also survived by a daughter, Deanna Goldizen, of Kalispell; four grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and a half-brother, Charles of Kalispell.

Rosary for Yerkes will be recited in the Johnson Funeral Home at 7 p.m.

today. Burial mass will be celebrated at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the Johnson Funeral Home with the Rev. Joseph Maria officiating. Burial will be in the Glacier Memorial Gardens. The family suggests memorials be made to the Flathead County Nursing Home or to the charity of the donor's choice.

10 Nov. 1981

Frances Young, 83

Frances Young, 83, who had resided at 11 Seventh St. E., died Tuesday morning in Kalispell.

She was born Sept. 13, 1898, in Kalispell, a daughter of Michael B. and Christina Leishman Greig.

She attended Kalispell schools and in 1925 married Dewey L. Young in Kalispell. The couple then moved to Alaska where Mr. Young was a foreman for the Alaskan Road Commission for 35 years. In 1964, they returned to Kalispell and had made their home here since that time.

Mrs. Young was preceded in death by her husband on March 26, 1974; four sisters and one brother.

She is survived by one sister,

Christina Walden, and one niece, Alice McDonnell, both of Kalispell.

Services for Mrs. Young will be at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Johnson Funeral Home with the Rev. Herbert Cies, pastor of the United Epworth Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

VERA V. YAHOLKOVSKY*1981*

Vera V. Yaholkovsky, 89, 728 South Main, Kalispell, died in the Kalispell Regional Hospital June 30th. She was born in Kuibisheff, Russia Jan. 10, 1892. She attended the University of St. Petersburg prior to entering the Russian Imperial Army Nursing Corps in World War One and served on the Romanian Front. She resided in Manchuria from 1920 to 1953 when she moved to San Francisco and to Sacramento in 1965 and to Kalispell in 1975, making her home here since that time. Mrs. Yaholkovsky is survived by two sons, including Dr. Vladimir A. Yaholkovsky of Kalispell. She was preceded in death by her husband Anthony in March of 1978. Friends and relatives will meet at the Conrad Memorial Cemetery Friday, July 3rd at 10:00 a.m. for graveside services with Father Paul Taylor of Christ Church (Episcopal) officiating. Arrangements by the Weatherford Funeral Home.

Finley A. Yungk, 71*2 May 1981*

COLUMBIA FALLS — Finley A. Yungk, 71, died Saturday at the Montana Veterans Home in Columbia Falls, where he had resided since 1975.

Yungk was born Jan. 25, 1910, in New Bethlehem, Pa., the son of Lottie and Gottlieb Yungk. He moved with his family to Kellogg, Idaho, in 1916 and attended schools there. He worked in the silver mines until moving to Jordan in 1929 where he worked on ranches and helped his mother care for the smaller children after the death of his father.

In 1933 he went to work on the Fort Peck Dam and in 1939 went to Seattle to work in the shipyards. He enlisted in the Army in 1943 and served with the 3001 Quartermaster Co. in both the American and Asiatic-Pacific theaters. He was awarded the good conduct medal and two bronze stars.

After his discharge in 1945, he worked on the oil fields near Glendive. He retired in 1972 and shortly thereafter entered the Miles City veterans hospital, where he resided until entering the Columbia Falls veterans home in August 1975.

Surviving are three sisters, Velma Sivara of Coeur D' Alene, Idaho, Grace Eads of Great Falls and LaVerna Kassner of Kalispell; and one brother, Clinton Yungk of Jordan. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and one sister.

Services will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Weatherford Funeral Home. Burial will follow in the veterans home cemetery in Columbia Falls with military graveside rites.