father in the management of the Cadillac Hotel. After the hotel was sold, he worked with the Burlington Northern Railroad as a clerk. In 1967 he became clerk of School District 44, a position he held since then.

He was married to Alda McFadden Stodden April 3, 1959.

He was a member of the Whitefish Methodist Church, a lay reader, a member of the Methodist prayer breakfast group and was assistant chairman of the board at the time of his death. In 1959, he was one of the founders of the Whitefish Little League, which he also umpired for a number of years, and in 1972 the first Jack Zerr Little League Invitational tournament was initiated. He was the first Whitefish Winter Carnival king, served as chairman of the Winter Carnival in 1963 and has remained active since its inception.

He was a current member and former president of the Montana Association of School Business Officials. He was a current member of the Whitefish Credit Union Credit Committee. He was a board member of the Flathead County United Way. He was chairman of the local government study commission of Whitefish. He was active in the Whitefish Regatta for many years. He was also a past member of the Lions Club and Whitefish Jaycees.

He is survived by his wife, Alda; two sons, Brad Stodden and Jeff Zerr, both of Whitefish; one daughter, Mrs. Gaylund (Janis) Olson, Thompson Falls; two grandchildren, Jeremy and Glen Olson; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zerr, Sun City, Calif.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Whitefish High School gymnasium, with the Rev. Bill Brackett of the Whitefish Methodist Church officiating. Memorials have been suggested to the Whitefish Athletic Fund and can be left at the Whitefish school clerk's office. Memorials to the Methodist Church have also been suggested.

Austin Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
