

11 Nov 1983
PLENTYWOOD UECKER,
Harold W., 74, died Friday of natural causes at a Plentywood hospital. Services will be 1 p.m. Monday at Plentywood Lutheran Church, with burial in Plentywood Memorial Cemetery. Fulkerson Funeral Home, Plentywood, is in charge of arrangements. Born in Jamestown, N.D., Uecker grew up in that area, attending a Jamestown college for one year. He worked the rest of his life as a meatcutter, first in the North Dakota communities of Windsor and Minot before coming to Montana in the 1930s. He worked in Malta, and during the Fort Peck Dam project at Wheeler, a boom-town near Fort Peck. Moving to Great Falls in 1941, he worked for several stores before Uecker Market. He later leased the business and worked for Buttrey's. He married Myranda Brenna Garrick at Great Falls in 1964, and they lived in both Great Falls and Helena. Illness forced his retirement in 1973, and in 1975 the couple moved to Plentywood. Survivors include his wife, Myranda, Plentywood; a son, Harold "Bud" Uecker, Whitefish; a step-son, Dean Fladager, Alexandria, Va.; a step-daughter, Mrs. Gerald (Donna) Kohler, Raymond, Mont.; two brothers, Russell, Seaside, Ore., and Glen, Lansing, Minn.; one sister, Mrs. Grace Rath, Jamestown, N.D.; and nine grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

1 July 1983
Alf Ueland, 73

Alf Ueland, 73, who lived at 380 First Ave. W.N., died in the Flathead County Nursing Home on Friday evening.

He was born May 5, 1910, in Stavanger, Norway, a son of John and Alma Ueland. As a child he moved with his family to the United States and attended schools in Wirt, Minn. He was then employed at the iron ore mines in Grand Rapids, Minn.

In 1935, he married Elizabeth C. Ames in Grand Rapids, Minn. In 1949 the family moved to Kalispell, where he worked at the Montana Saw Service until retirement in 1972.

He was a member of the United Epworth Methodist Church, Kalispell Fraternal Order of Eagles, and the Montana State Fiddlers Association.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, John; and a grandson, Kevin Hall.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, at home; four daughters, Eileen Ueland, Tacoma, Wash., Charlotte and Janice Dougherty, both of Kalispell, and Betty Jackson, Hungry Horse; four brothers, Dr. Ernest Ueland, Farmington, N.M., Leif Ueland, International Falls, Minn., Norman Ueland, Somers, and Finn Ueland, Troy; three sisters, Kenny Hendrickson, Magda Valtinson and Signe Ferguson, all of Kalispell; eight grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. C. Fred Crowe and the Rev. Marvin Northcut, pastors of the United Epworth Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Glacier Memorial Gardens.