Warren L. Hanna

Memorial services for Warren L. Hanna, attorney, historian and author took place Sunday at the First Lutheran Church, Kensington, Calif. Hanna, 89, died Sept. 28.

He was transportation agent at Many Glacier Hotel during summers of 1918 and 1920, and with Mrs. Hanna continued association with Glacier through the years. The World War I veteran was a University of North Dakota 1917 graduate who was awarded an honorary doctorate in 1970. He also received law and business administration degrees from the University of Minnesota in 1923 and 1924.

In July, 1984, Superintendent Robert Haraden of Glacier presented a certificate of recognition and complimented him for two recent books on Glacier "Montana's Many-Splendored Glacierland" and "The Grizzlies of Glacier."

Hanna continued research and writing, and his last book published in 1986 was "The Life and Times of James Willard Schultz (Apikuni)" which was dedicated to the James Willard Schultz Society, and "to its loyal members who have long awaited this story of their hero."

Hanna was born at Defiance, Iowa July 20, 1898 with his family coming to North Dakota the following year. His father George W. Hanna was superintendent of schools at Valley City for 47 years and lived to be 95.

The University of North Dakota Foundation at Grand Forks paid tribute to Warren Hanna in its annual report published last month. Hanna was first president of the North Dakota Alumni Association and Foundation. In 1931-43 Hanna was worker's compensation judge for the California Industrial Accident Commission. As a sideline he began to edit and write books on California law, and his four volume work on compensation law became the authority in that state. He founded Hanna Legal Publications in 1936 and during his publishing years more than a half million books bearing his name reached the shelves of California bar and bench. He was senior partner-emeritus in the law firm of Hanna, Brophy, Maclean, McAleer and Jensen founded in 1943 that now has offices in six California cities and more than 50 lawyers.

In 1983 on the 40th anniversary of his law firm establishment, the California Legislature presented him with a Congratulatory Legislative Resolution which said: "he has proven that business is not blind to justice."

Survivors are his wife, Fran and three daughters, five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Hanna arranged to have longtime Glacier friends visit him during his final days in late September. Among those attending the event were: John Mauff, Chicago; Bill and Ethel Wanser, Summit, Wash.; Mary Murphy, Spokane; Joyce Turvey, East Glacier Park; Ann Williamson, Oakland, Calif.; Dick Schwab, Mark and Heidi, Davis, Calif.; George and Rose Overacker, son and daughter-in-law, Walnut Creek, Calif. A telephone call received at the delayed 89th birthday anniversary party had Rolf Larson, Michael Young and Joe Haugesteun, Glacierites together in Minneapolis, sing "Happy Birthday."

A.E. Hutchinson, 93

Ansley E. Hutchinson, 93, who started his 37-year career with the U.S. Forest Service in 1919 on the Flathead National Forest, died Sunday at a Medford, Ore., hospital.

He was born Feb. 3, 1894, in Pleasant Plains, Ill., the son of Ansley White and Georgetta Hand Hutchinson.

Mr. Hutchinson first arrived in northwestern Montana in 1916 working as a guide and packer for the Park Saddle Co. at Glacier National Park. He later did packing for the Forest Service out of Coram, before joining the U.S. Army Engineers 20th Forestry Division that served in France. During his years on the Flathead National Forest as a forest ranger he served on several ranger districts.

On June 21, 1923, he married Ellen Davies of Tallula, Ill., in Kalispell. The two had been the only members of the class of 1912 of Tallula High School. Their first year of marriage was spent in a tent while he was ranger of the Hungry Horse District, which is now at the bottom of Hungry Horse Lake.

Since travel throughout the forest district was primarily by horseback or on foot he estimated he had walked about 10,000 miles on snow shoes. In later years he gave talks about his numerous encounters with grizzly bears.

A photograph he took of a mountain goat Sept. 7, 1920, on Mount Grant was used on the front of the Great Northern menus for a number of years.
