

OBITUARIES

Charles Young, 68

MISSOULA — Charles E. "Chuck" Young, 68, a former Kalispell resident, died of cancer Saturday at his home in Missoula.

He was employed by Westmont Tractor in Missoula and Kalispell for 36 years. The past five years he owned Beep Enterprises in Missoula.

Survivors include his wife, his mother-in-law, a daughter, a son, and a brother.

He was preceded in death by a son.

Services will be 11 a.m. Wednesday at Christian Life Center, 3801 Russell St., Missoula.

The family suggests memorials to Mountain West Hospice Care, 715 Kensington, Suite 15, Missoula 59801. 7 Mar 1988

11 April 1988

Wilma Margaret Yaeck, 86

Wilma Margaret Yaeck, 86, formerly of Lakeside, died on April 1 in the Highline Convalescent Center in East Wenatchee, Wash.

She was born Jan. 20, 1902, in Battie, Kansas, a daughter of early Kansas pioneers Neil J. and Martha Carter Farrar. She had spent her early life in Kansas and later moved to Centralia, Neb., where she graduated from high school. She had attended Hastings College and the University of Nebraska, where she was affiliated with the Alpha Delta Phi sorority. She had received her degree in mathematics in 1925, and after teaching high school mathematics for 10½ years, she became a sales representative with Gossards and with Luzier Cosmetics.

On Jan. 9, 1942, she married Reinhold Yaeck in Kalispell. The couple made their home on Flathead Lake near Lakeside. People traveled by boat and car to attend the annual Begonia Tea held at their home.

Following the death of Mr. Yaeck on July 26, 1970, Mrs. Yaeck moved to Kalispell. She lived there until June of 1982. She then moved to the Wenatchee, Washington area where she has since resided.

She was also preceded in death by a brother, Horatio R. Farrar in Kimberling City, Mo.; and a stepson, Karl C. Yaeck on March 22, 1988, in Stevensville.

She is now survived by a brother, Carter Farrar of Los Angeles; a stepson, Frederick Yaeck of Kalispell; a cousin, Audrey Taylor of Wenatchee; and many other cousins.

Cremation has taken place. Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday in the Johnson Mortuary Chapel with the Rev. J. Torrance Harvey, pastor of the Lakeside Chapel, officiating. The family suggests memorials be made to the Lakeside Chapel Scholarship Fund. Burial of the urn will follow in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Karl C. Yaeck, 75

STEVENSVILLE — Karl C. Yaeck, 75, died of natural causes March 22 at his home in Stevensville. 1988

He was born June 13, 1912, in St. Thomas, N.D., to Reinhold and Frederica Curtis Yaeck. He was educated in Rudyard.

He married Margaret Farrington in Rudyard on Jan. 3, 1941. They farmed in Rudyard for a while, then moved to Kalispell in 1947. He did carpenter work at Kalispell and Lakeside. They moved to Stevensville in October 1975.

He was preceded in death by a son, Keith.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret of Stevensville; a daughter, Sandra Alvarez of Sun River, Ore.; a brother, Frederick Yaeck of Kalispell; his stepmother, Wilma Yaeck of East Wenatchee, Wash.; and three grandchildren.

Memorial graveside services will be 2 p.m. Friday at Conrad Memorial Cemetery in Kalispell with the Rev. Earl Hargis officiating.

Memorials are suggested to Community Baptist Church in Stevensville.

Cremation and arrangements are under the direction of Whitesitt Funeral Home in Stevensville.

YOUNG, Robert B. 41, Marion.
No services planned at this time.

WEATHERFORD
Funeral Home
& Crematory

890 HWY. 93 NORTH • 752-0336

3 Feb 1988