Baginski Grant E Army 22 Jul 2011 pg A2

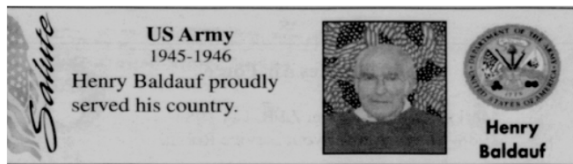

■ Army Reserve Staff Sgt. Grant E. Baginski is one of only 43 soldiers who recently competed in the Army Reserve Best Warrior Competition at Fort McCoy, Wis.

The week-long series of events included firing the M-4 rifle on a night qualification course, day and night land navigation, and combat-related tasks such as hand-to-hand combat, first aid and weapons assembly. The winners in the soldier of the year and non-commissioned officer of the year categories will move on to Fort Lee, Va., later in the year to compete in the Army-wide competition.

Baginski is a combat engineer team leader assigned to the 449th Engineer Company, Fort Thomas, Ky. He has served in the military for eight years. He has a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of Cincinnati in 2010, and is the son of Richard M. and Carole J. Baginski of Martin City.
