Couple celebrate 60 years together

Max and Eula Ogle of Columbia Falls will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary this week.

They were married Dec. 25, 1953, in Pinegrove, Tenn., at Eula's grandparents' house. The original plan was to be married at the Roaring Fork Baptist Church where Max's grandfather had donated the property and his dad helped build in Gatlinburg, Tenn. Due to the grandparents' health prohibiting their attending the wedding, the couple were married at the grandparents' home by a coal-burning stove to stay warm. Eula was 16 and Max was 19 at the time. Eula's uncle, Pastor Richard Watson, married them.

They moved to Columbia Falls in 1955 following Roy and Muriel Lindsey, Eula's parents. Max worked at the aluminum plant for 33 and a half years. Eula worked for the Bank of Columbia Falls after she attended Columbia Falls High School for two years, receiving her high school diploma in 1969.

They have two daughters, Kathy and Bill Brunnett of Columbia Falls, and Karla and Mike Stratton of Tennessee; four granddaughters and five great-grandchildren.
