

70TH ANNIVERSARY

Bob and Marilyn Cartwright

Bob and Marilyn Cartwright of Kalispell will celebrate 70 years of marriage on Feb. 23.

They were married at the First Presbyterian Church of Kalispell in 1952. They have lived in the Flathead Valley for the majority of their married life, and have resided in the same home for 59 years.

They were both born and raised in Montana, Marilyn in the West Valley area and Bob near Ashley Lake. Their children are Julene Swanson, Bobby Cartwright (wife Karla) and Kristi Bucher, all of Kalispell. They have five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A small family celebration will take place today, Feb. 20, hosted by their children.

70TH ANNIVERSARY

Richard and Maxine Conway

Richard and Maxine (Nelson) Conway of Whitefish will celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary on Feb. 28.

Both graduated from Missoula County High School, Class of 51. In 1952 they were married and Dick enlisted in the Air Force. Upon completion of four years in the military, the couple moved to Seattle to enable Dick to obtain his Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering degree at the University of Washington. During this time, employment was at Boeing Flight Test and Beechcraft. During this period Dick obtained his A & P Federal Aircraft Mechanics license, amateur radio license, and pilot's license.

The couple enjoyed hiking, fishing and backpacking. They purchased a Cherokee 180 aircraft to extend their travel areas. Maxine was known for her cross wind landing expertise.

When the couple moved back to Montana, they opened a Radio Shack in Kalispell, where they were able to work together. Maxine became and held the number one salesperson for all of the Radio Shack Northwest region.

The couple have three children, 10 grand- and great-grandchildren, all living in Montana.

60TH ANNIVERSARY

Jack and Linda Crandall

Jack and Linda Crandall of Hungry Horse are celebrating their 60th anniversary. The couple were married Sept. 1, 1962, in Ottawa, Kansas.

Jack served in the Army for 21 years. After his military retirement he spent many years working in various parts of the country before retiring in Hungry Horse.

The couple have three children. Son Jon lives in Coram, daughter Melinda lives in Hungry Horse, and daughter Kristin lives in Manhattan, Montana. They have four grandchildren.

70TH ANNIVERSARY

Richard and Leslie Ann Gunlikson

Richard and Leslie Ann Gunlikson celebrated 70 years of marriage on June 14. They were married June 14, 1952.

Rich is from Shelby and Leslie Ann is from Butte. They met in Missoula at college where Rich played basketball for the Grizzlies. They lived in Cut Bank for 30 years and moved to the Flathead Valley in 1983 where they still reside.

Rich was a CPA accountant and Leslie Ann a homemaker for six children. They now have 16 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren. The Gunliksons still reside in Kalispell and are in their 90s, still living independently.

They loved to ski, play golf and play bridge. Their favorite pastime was spending time with their family, their most favorite would be sitting on their deck on Flathead Lake, viewing the beautiful scenery, and enjoying their 30-plus immediate family members.

65TH ANNIVERSARY

Richard and Leslie Ann Gunlikson

Bill and Muriel Hagerman recently celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary at the Davenport Hotel in Spokane. They were married on June 1, 1957. They have lived in Kalispell their entire married life.

Bill founded and worked at Hagerman Drywall for over 40 years. Muriel was busy doing the books for the business, running the household and raising their four kids, Shelly, Lechia, Cody and Jody. Along with their kids they have nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The kids and their families have always loved Montana and all the outdoor adventures that Bill and Muriel led, from time at the cabin in the North Fork to floating and fly fishing on the river.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

Glen and Jean Hook

Glen and Jean Hook met and then married in Phoenix on April 29, 1972, but it was only a couple of years before they decided to pack up and move to the Flathead Valley. After a few years in the area, they hand built their home on 20 acres where they have lived since 1979. They have shared many activities and interests throughout their marriage — hunting, fishing, raising cattle, and loving animals being just a few.

Jean was a teacher and spent time at Fair-Mont-Egan and Glen was a master pipefitter/plumber in the AZ UA Local 469, which took him to several Western U.S. states for work over the years. Both are hard working and artistically inclined; gardening and painting are two of Jean's many interests, and Glen has enjoyed hobbies such as yard art welding projects and bull rope making. Most notably, he braided a custom bull rope that was used in the creation of the Lane Frost memorial bronze sculpture located at the Cheyenne Frontier Days Museum.

Always a cowboy at heart, Glen found his sweet country gal all those years ago and they now have the good fortune of celebrating 50 years of marriage together. Their children and family wish to congratulate them on this tremendous milestone.

Happy trails!
