Hackley William E Marble Gertrude 17 Jan 1890 pg 1

HACKLEY—MARBLE—At Missoula, January 6th, 1890, by Rev. H. Lamont, Mr. William E. Hackley of Sheldon, to Miss Gertrude Marble of Elleston, Montana.
Mr. Hackley is well known to everybody in the Lake country and has plenty of friends. He owns one of the best equipped freighting outfits in Montana, which runs from Ravalli to the foot of the lake. Near Sheldon, on the east of the river, he owns a valuable ranch, with a comfortable two-story frame building. "Hack" dons that personified air of "leige lord" with becoming grace. The happy bride we are told is a lady of culture and refinement. We wish them one continuous round of pleasure and happiness. They have gone onto their ranch.
