Miss Clara Graham of Missoula and Dr. J. A. Ghent of Kalispell were united in marriage yesterday morning, at the Grand hotel. Miss Graham is from Missoula, and came in on the delayed Northern Pacific train, while Dr. Ghent who is from Kalispell, came in on the late Great Northern train. Rev. Dean Richmond Babbitt was sent for and the ceremony was performed at once. Miss Graham is one of the most popular young ladies of Missoula, where she has resided for some time, and is also well known in this city. Dr. Ghent is a practicing physician of Kalispell but also well known in Spokane being a member of the E.D.s of this city. The couple will make Kalispell their future home.—The Spokesman-Review Dec. 3.

Miss Clara Graham accompanied by her sister, Mrs. James H. Pugh, departed for Spokane last night, where the young lady will be married to Dr. J. A. Ghent of Kalispell. The wedding was to have taken place several days ago but owing to washout and delayed trains the mails did not carry their love letters regularly, hence the reason the wedding was delayed until the present time. Dr. Ghent is spoken of as being one of the promising practicing physicians of Flathead county. His bride-elect, Miss Graham, is one of the many charming girls of the Garden city, where she has many friends who join in wishing her and the doctor many years of happiness. — Missoulian.

Miss Lottie Chapman, formerly of Boz., will be married this month at the residence of her brother in Stockton, Cal., to George Glover of Stockton.

A marriage license was issued to Ed. Haak and Minnie Barker yesterday.

Harris-Ferguson. At the residence of J. L. McIntire, on Sunday, April 12th, Mr. Robert E. Harris and Miss Marie Ferguson, both of Kalispell; Rev. O. W. Mintzer officiating. This wedding, which was a very quiet one, with only a few intimate friends in attendance, unites for life two of Kalispell's best and most popular young people. The bride has for the past year been a successful teacher in the public schools, and is one of the most cultured and best known young ladies in the city. Mr. Harris is an energetic and successful young business man, and worthy of the bride he has won. In common with their numerous friends the Inter Lake extends its best wishes to the newly wedded pair.

accepted by the state of Montana. HAYNES-DICKINSON. Missoulian. An unusually pretty wedding was that of Miss Hattie E. Dickinson and Rev. P. W. Hayes which took place last night at the M. E. church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Dickinson and has lived the greater part of her life in the Garden city, where her many noble qualities of heart and mind have made her an acknowledged favorite with a large circle of friends. The groom is at present pastor of the M. E. church at Columbia Falls. At the hour announced for the wedding the church, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, was filled to its utmost capacity by the many friends of the happy couple. Promptly at 8:30 to the strain of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party, preceded by the bridesmaids, entered the church and took their places.

... composed of sweet syringas and apple blossoms, and from the center of which hung a marriage bell also composed of the same lovely blossoms. They were met at the church by Rev. G. C. Stull of Butte, presiding elder of the M. E. church, who, assisted by Rev. J. J. McAllister of this city, performed the marriage ceremony after the impressive rites of the ceremony.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling dress of gray cloth, and a charming hat on silk. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Haynes were driven to the home of the bride's parents where they were surrounded by the juvenile band and tendered an informal reception until 10 o'clock, at which time they took the train for Helena, where they will attend the commencement of the Montana Wesleyan University of that place after which they will return to Missions for a short visit before proceeding to their future home at Columbia Falls.

O'Connell	John	Beckers	Miss Josephine	1 Jun 1896	2 Jun 1896	1	150	2 Jun 1896 pg 4	O'CONNELL-BECKERS. At the Catholic church this morning at eleven o'clock, with the solemn and impressive high mass ceremony of the church, Mr. John H. O'Connell and Miss Josephine M. Beckers were united in marriage. At the hour announced for the wedding the church, which had been beautifully and tastily decorated for the occasion, was filled with invited guests. Preceded by the ushers, Mr. A. J. Darnes and Mr. F. J. Matney, and two little girls dressed in white, bearing flowers, accompanied by the bridesmaid, Miss Mamie Hanson, the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her father. They were met at the altar by the groom and the groomsmen, Mr. Peter Pflater. The bride was daintily gowned in white silk brocade, with veil and white roses. The music for the occasion was unusually well rendered by a special choir consisting of Mrs. Long, Mrs. Nelson, Misses Peterson, Griffin, Phillips and McDonald, with Mrs. Vogt as organist. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell who witnessed the marriage ceremony and their many friends in the town and the valley, wish them a happy and prosperous future. The wedding presents were numerous and appropriate.
