

Surname

Given

Publication Date

Back

Andrew Emil

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Baker

David J

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Coran

Henry H

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Deschamps

Frank

18 Sep 1900 p4

Stephen Gorzi, a native of Austria, Joseph Ratier, of France, John Schneider of Germany, Mrs. Ellen Ganzer of England and Frank Deschamps of Canada were given final citizenship papers by Judge D. F. Smith of the district court, Monday, and are now full fledged subjects of Uncle Sam.

Dubee

Phillippe

30 Oct 1900 p3

There are two new American citizens in Flathead county, both having taken the oath necessary to become citizens of the United States. They are Phillippe Dubee a native of Canada and Louis Rost, a Norwegian.

Fleischer

August

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Ganser

Ellen

18 Sep 1900 p4

Stephen Gorzi, a native of Austria, Joseph Ratier, of France, John Schneider of Germany, Mrs. Ellen Ganser of England and Frank Deschamps of Canada were given final citizenship papers by Judge D. F. Smith of the district court, Monday, and are now full fledged subjects of Uncle Sam.

Gorzi

Stephen

18 Sep 1900 p4

Stephen Gorzi, a native of Austria, Joseph Ratier, of France, John Schneider of Germany, Mrs. Ellen Ganser of England and Frank Deschamps of Canada were given final citizenship papers by Judge D. F. Smith of the district court, Monday, and are now full fledged subjects of Uncle Sam.

Husby

John

11 Sep 1900 p4

John Husby, a native of Norway, has declared his intention of becoming an American citizen.

Johnson

John A

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Johnson

Wilhelm

19 Oct 1900 p3

Bjorneby Always a Citizen.

A mistake in giving the Bee the names of those who had been naturalized last week made it appear that E. G. Bjorneby had just taken out citizenship papers. Mr. Bjorneby was born in Wisconsin, has always been a citizen of the United States and only appeared as a witness for Wilhelm Johnson who was naturalized October 13.

Klopetzke

John

16 Oct 1900 p4

The district court convened Saturday and after the hearing of a number of applications for final citizenship papers, adjourned until November 12th. The following were made American citizens: Christ N. Laumann, a native of Germany; Adolph N. Laumann, Germany; John Sendin, of Sweden; John Klopetzke, of Germany; E. G. Bjorneby, of Norway; and Loren Martinsen, of Norway.

Laumann Adolph N 16 Oct 1900 p4

The district court convened Saturday and after the hearing of a number of applications for final citizenship papers, adjourned until November 12th. The following were made American citizens:
Christ N. Laumann, a native of Germany; Adolph N. Laumann, Germany; John Sendin, of Sweden; John Klopetzke, of Germany; E. G. Bjorneby, of Norway; and Loren Martinsen, of Norway.

Laumann Christ N 16 Oct 1900 p4

The district court convened Saturday and after the hearing of a number of applications for final citizenship papers, adjourned until November 12th. The following were made American citizens:
Christ N. Laumann, a native of Germany; Adolph N. Laumann, Germany; John Sendin, of Sweden; John Klopetzke, of Germany; E. G. Bjorneby, of Norway; and Loren Martinsen, of Norway.

Leitenstorfer Louis H 23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

The district court convened Saturday and after the hearing of a number of applications for final citizenship papers, adjourned until November 12th. The following were made American citizens:

Christ N. Laumann, a native of Germany; Adolph N. Laumann, Germany; John Sendin, of Sweden; John Klopetzke, of Germany; E. G. Bjorneby, of Norway; and Loren Martinsen, of Norway.

Olson

Olof

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Perry

George

12 Oct 1900 p3

George Perry, a native of Canada and a citizen of Kalispell, filed his first papers Wednesday declaring his intention to turn his back upon Queen Vic and become one of Uncle Sam's citizens. Then, not being satisfied with one good deed, he secured a license to marry.

Quame

Benjamin

31 Aug 1900 p3

On August 18th Ralph Swainston, a native of England, and Benjamin Quame, a native of Iceland, filed their intentions to become citizens.

Ratier

Joseph

18 Sep 1900 p4

Stephen Gorzi, a native of Austria, Joseph Ratier, of France, John Schneider of Germany, Mrs. Ellen Ganser of England and Frank Deschamps of Canada were given final citizenship papers by Judge D. F. Smith of the district court, Monday, and are now full fledged subjects of Uncle Sam.

Robinson

Andrew

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Rost

Louis

30 Oct 1900 p3

The are two new American citizens in Flathead county, both having taken the oath necessary to become citizen of the United States. They are Phillippe Dubee a native of Canada and Louis Rost, a Norwegian.

Sauerbier

Ferdinand

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Schneider

John

18 Sep 1900 p4

Stephen Gorzi, a native of Austria, Joseph Ratier, of France, John Schneider of Germany, Mrs. Ellen Ganser of England and Frank Deschamps of Canada were given final citizenship papers by Judge D. F. Smith of the district court, Monday, and are now full fledged subjects of Uncle Sam.

Sendin

John

16 Oct 1900 p4

The district court convened Saturday and after the hearing of a number of applications for final citizenship papers, adjourned until November 12th. The following were made American citizens:

Christ N. Laumann, a native of Germany; Adolph N. Laumann, Germany; John Sendin, of Sweden; John Klopetzke, of Germany; E. G. Bjorneby, of Norway; and Loren Martinsen, of Norway.

Smith

B N

15 Nov 1900 p3

Judge Smith administered the oath which made B. N. Smith a citizen of the United States Tuesday. Smith is a native of Germany.

Swainston Ralph 31 Aug 1900 p3

On August 18th Ralph Swainston, a native of England, and Benjamin Quame, a native of Iceland, filed their intentions to become citizens.

Swanson Emil 23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Tederburg Carl 9 Oct 1900 p4

Carl Tederburg, a native of Sweden, has filed a declaratory statement of his intention to become an American citizen.

Torell

Gust

23 Oct 1900 p4

ALLIENS MADE CITIZENS.

Twelve Take the Oath of Allegiance to Uncle Sam.

Judge Smith of the district court made twelve aliens, citizens of the United States, Saturday and yesterday. There were Germans, Irishmen, Swedes and Canadians who gladly stepped under the protecting arm of Uncle Sam, and are now full fledged subjects of their adopted country. Those who took the oath of allegiance were, Gust Torell, a native of Sweden; John A. Johnson, Norway; David J. J. Baker, Canada; Olof Olsen, Sweden; August Fleischer, Germany; Louis H. Leitenstorfer, Germany; Ferdinand Sauerbier, Canada; Andrew Robinson, Ireland; T. J. Luecken, Germany; Henry H. Coran, Canada; Andrew Emil Back, Sweden; Emil Swanson, Sweden.

Whalen

John

31 Aug 1900 p3

On August 25 John Whalen, a native of Iceland, declared his intention to become a subject of Uncle Sam.