Taylor Floyd W Tinney Clara J 10 Jul 1902 p1- marriage

Taylor-Tinney.
Mr. Floyd W. Taylor and Miss Clara J. Tinney were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, near Saco, on Wednesday, July 9th, 1902, at 12 o'clock noon, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Mr. Haynes, of Glasgow. Only near friends and relatives of the contracting parties were in attendance.
The lady, who by this rite, becomes Mrs. Taylor, is well known in Kalispell, and has hosts of friends among the young people here. She attended the schools here a number of years until the removal of the family to Saco, where they have since resided. She is a charming young lady, well endowed with the amiable and sensible qualities that go far toward making a happy home.
We do not know Mr. Taylor, but from what we have heard of him are inclined to think that he is a fine young man, well worthy of the supreme good luck that has fallen to him in winning such a splendid young woman for his bride.
They will reside in a home of their own near Saco, where the Herald-Journal hopes they may enjoy unbroken bliss.
