11 Jun 1903 p4- marriage

Kalispell Mag Married.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Ethel Webster, the only daughter of Mayor and Mrs. J. T. Webster, to Mr. J. W. Bell, of Kalispell, Montana. The marriage will be solemnized at the M. E. church on the evening of Wednesday June 3rd, and will be followed by a reception at the Webster home. Mr. and Mrs. Bell will make their home in Kalispell where the groom is train dispatcher for the Great Northern railroad. He at one time was agent at Atlanta for the Vandalia. Atlanta, (Ill.) Argus.

Bell-Webster Nuptials.

Atlanta, (Ill.) Argus.

One of the prettiest weddings ever seen in Atlanta took place at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening, June 3, at which time Miss Ethel M. Webster, the only daughter of Mayor and Mrs. J. T. Webster, was united in marriage with Mr. J. W. Bell, of Kalispell, Montana.

It was a pink and green wedding, the large auditorium being lavishly decorated in these colors. The pulpit was lanked high with flowers, palms, ferns, and potted plants, behind which was placed the church organ. On either side was a large pillar twined with myrtle and pink and green ribbons.

Some five hundred invitations had been issued, and at the time set for the ceremony, 8:30, the church was filled with a happy, expectant audience. At a few minutes after the appointed hour the inspiring strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Gertrude Horrom, announced the approach of the bridal party. Rev. J. C. Nate, the officiating clergyman, accompanied by the groom and his best man, Dr. Theodore H. Walters, entered from the church parlors and took a position in front of the flower embowered altar, where they awaited the approach of the bride and her attendants, who entered from the front vestibule. Miss Alta Chenoweth attired in pink silk mulle and Miss Mabel Sater in green silk voile advanced up the center aisle, uncoiling strands of white silk ribbon, which lined the bridal way. The party was ushered by Messrs. Wayne Carlock, of Bloomington, and George Church, of Atlanta, followed by little Elizabeth Nate, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nate, bearing the ring on a silver tray. Miss Katherine Keene, gowned in white batiste over pink silk and carrying pink roses, and Miss Elizabeth Snyder, in white batiste over green silk, carrying white roses and asparagus ferns, acted as bridesmaids. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Katherine Fitzgerald, of Chicago, in a gown of pink silk, and carrying a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The bride, leaning upon the arm of her father, Dr. J. T. Webster, completed the wedding procession. The bride was veiled in white tulle and gowned in an embroidered lace robe over cream peau de soie silk. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley and never looked handsomer than on her wedding night.

The bride is one of Atlanta's fairest daughters. Coming to this city when a little girl she has grown to womanhood here, and enjoys the highest esteem of the entire community. She is prominent in younger society and church circles and her departure is witnessed with regret by the entire community. She possesses an exceptionally good soprano voice, which has been carefully trained. Her sweet singing has been an attraction of nearly every program in recent years, and a regular feature of the Methodist church services. The groom is no stranger in Atlanta. For two years he was agent for the Vandalia at this place, where he made the acquaintance of his future bride. Since leaving here he has advanced in his chosen profession and holds the position of train dispatcher for the Great Northern railroad at Kalispell, Montana, where he will take his bride and establish his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell took the 1:37 train for Chicago and St. Paul, where they will make short visits before proceeding to Kalispell where they will be at home to friends after July 1st.

23 Jul 1903 p1- marriage

Chester-Bell Wedding.
Last night at 8:30 o'clock at the Methodist church occurred the ceremony that united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mr. Thomas Chester and Miss Effie M. Bell, the service being read by Rev. Wells the pastor of the church. At the wedding Mr. Earl Ritchey acted as best man, Miss Orise Tetrault as bridesmaid, and Grace Brookings and Gladys Tate as ring-bearer and flower girl. The wedding march was played in a masterly manner by Prof. Chapman. The ushers were Messrs. Bert Eaton, James E. Busey, Ed Brown and Fred Tate.
After the ceremony a reception and wedding supper was given at the residence of the bride's parents after which the young couple went to their own home on Seventh street.
The Herald-Journal takes peculiar pleasure in extending good wishes to this newly-wedded young couple. They are well known to all the people of Kalispell and their friends are legion. The groom has for years been a valued employe of the Missoula Mercantile company, while his charming bride was raised from childhood in this city and is a most estimable young lady.

Dotton Oscar L Phoenix Minnie Bell

25 Jun 1903 p1- marriage

An Overlooked Item.
 By an oversight in making up the forms last week the following item, which was in type, and should have appeared, was entirely overlooked:
 Married: At the home of the bride's parents on Fourth avenue west Tuesday evening, Rev. Craven officiating, Mr. Oscar L. Dotton to Miss Minnie Bell Phoenix. The rooms of the house were prettily decorated with flowers, and it was in the midst of a profusion of pretty blossoms that the ceremony was performed. A brother of the groom acted as best man and Miss Bessie Estey was bridesmaid. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The young couple were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Duncan-Gallinger.
A marriage license was issued in Spokane last Tuesday to Dr. A. R. Duncan and Miss Anna Gallinger, both of Kalispell, and the presumption is that they were married in that city either Tuesday evening or Wednesday.
Doctor Duncan has lived and practiced in this city for the past five or six years, enjoys a lucrative practice, and is held in high esteem by the community generally. His bride grew to womanhood here and the number of her friends is only limited by the number of her acquaintances. She is a charming young woman and no doubt will be a leading figure in Kalispell society. Kalispell welcomes the newly-married couple and wishes them well.

Tate-Sawyer

The marriage of G. Fred'k Tate to Miss Alice Anna Sawyer occurred at the hour of 8:30 last evening at the residence of the bride's parents on First avenue east, Rev. Wells performing the beautiful ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church. The house was filled with guests who were received at the door by little Gladys and Minnie Tate. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white roses, sweet peas and green vines.

Promptly at the hour set the wedding party entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Grace Sawyer. The bridal couple were attended by Hugh Sawyer, who acted as best man and Ethelyn Tate, as bridesmaid. The bride was gowned in a beautiful dress of white silk mousseline de soie trimmed with silk applique and medallions, and carried a bouquet of white bride's roses, the bridesmaid was attired in blue silk mousseline de soie trimmed with cluny lace.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding supper was served and a reception tendered the newly-wedded bride and groom. They were the recipients of a large number of handsome and useful presents. After the reception they went to their own rooms over No 14 Second street where they will soon be at home to their friends.

Those who were present on the happy occasion say that the wedding was one of the very prettiest and happiest of the summer, as indeed it should be, when it is remembered that the two contracting parties are of our most popular and highly respected young set. Both are graduates of the local high school, and both have lived here since childhood. The groom is one of our successful business men, while his bride is the elder daughter of one of our most respected merchants. They deserve all the happiness that has come to them.
