Crossley	Harry E	Pierson	Maggie	14 Oct 1905	20 Oct 1905 p8 The most novel feature of the county fair was the public wedding which occurred last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A platform had been erected in front of the grand stand and a moment before the appointed time the immense audience that packed the grand stand espied the carriage containing the bride and groom in the distance. Rev. R. M. Craven mounted the platform and assisted the young lady to alight and in a few moments the romantic ceremony had been performed and Miss Maggie Pierson and Harry E. Crossley were pronounced man and wife in the presence of nearly four thousand people. The platform was sadly lacking in trailing green vines and sweet scented blossoms, but this did not detract from the novelty of the affair. The bride was attired in a pink silk gown and wore a large white picture hat. The groom was attired in a conventional suit. After the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations of the multitude in the Floral hall. Mrs. C. M. Walker, of the Floral National furnished a beautiful wedding repast for the newly wedded pair and a number of friends at the popular hotelery that evening and the other useful and handsome donations were taken possession of by Mr. and Mrs. Crossley, transported to their suburban home. But Crossley says some joshers stole his box of fine cigars and he had to hit the pipe.

Eaton Robert Napier Dunham Florence Marie 23 Aug 1905

22 Aug 1905 p8
Mr. and Mrs. Forest Dunham Head have issued invitations to their friends to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Florence Marie to Mr. Robert Napier Eaton, Wednesday evening, August 23, at 8 o'clock at Christ church.

25 Aug 1905 p2
Robert's school Wednesday evening a large number of the friends of Mr. Robert Napier Eaton and Miss Florence Marie Head had gathered at the Episcopal church at 8 o'clock for the ceremony. The bride and groom were joined in holy bonds of matrimony. The bride is a most artistic, large bonnet of white and trailing dress worn to perfection from the huge bow to the feet. Promptly at the altar, Rev. Mr. Dinkley, Charles Baker, Esq. & H. H. Baker, Esq. marched slowly to the altar, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Cooklin, who was graciously greeted while standing. Next came the little flower girl, Suzanne, and Mrs. Frank, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Baker, who was graciously greeted as she sat in a white satin gown.

Fisher LV McGregor Cora

21 Apr 1905 p3- marriage

A wedding occurred on Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 which was a surprise to many of the friends of the young people. The contracting parties were Mr. L. V. Fisher and Mrs. Cora McGregor. The scene of the wedding was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harshman, parents of the bride. The ceremony was a most impressive one and was performed by Rev. George McVey Fisher. The bride is a handsome brunette—she has often been likened to pictures painted by old masters—she has wonderful large dark eyes and beside her beauty has, by the graciousness of her manner, made every one her friend. She was gowned in a beautiful cream pongee, trimmed elaborately in spider lace; she carried a huge bunch of pink geraniums and ferns. The groom has only been here a short time, but since his arrival has made many friends. He is special agent for the Equitable Life. After the ceremony a very elaborate supper was served, Rachel Harshman, Edna Brandenburg and Marian Fisher serving the guests. Only the members of the family were present.

- The number of wedding presents which were received by the bride shows in what esteem she is held by her many friends.
 - Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harshman gave table and bed linen, towels, etc., also cut glass creamer, sugar and hand painted bowl, lunch cloth and cuspidor.
 - Manly Harshman and Mr. Roggen, brother and brother-in-law of the bride, a beautiful cut glass water set.
 - Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graves, china dinner set.
 - Messrs. Geides and Stocking, bronze clock.
 - Clerks in McIntosh's, chest of silver.
 - Mrs. Reed, berry spoon.
 - Miss Lang, carving set.
 - Rev. and Mrs. Fisher, table linen.
 - C. E. Frinch of Cranbrook, D. C., hand-painted dish.
 - Mr. and Mrs. Jones, cut glass fruit bowl.
 - Mr. G. Sutherland, cut glass spoon tray.
 - Miss Conrad, hand-painted plate.
 - Mrs. McMoran, table spoons.
 - Miss Swaney, pancake dish.
 - Misses Brandenburg, Rockwood, pitcher.
 - Miss Head, embroidered center piece.
 - Hilbert Harmon, bed spread.
 - Dan Harshman, after-dinner coffee.
 - Rachel Harshman, silver cake knife.
- The happy couple after receiving hearty congratulations and best wishes departed for Havre where they will reside for a time.

Forcum	Raymond A	Hall	Jessie	9 Jul 1905	11 Jul 1905 p5	A pretty home wedding occurred at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the residence of Raymond A. Forcum and Miss Jessie Hall were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of the latter's parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. E. Duck of Chester. A lovelier or more beautiful bride is seldom seen than Miss Jessie Hall, as she stood by the side of her future husband arrayed in white silk and lace, carrying a bouquet of white roses. The groom was dressed in white, with a boutonniere of white flowers which very much resembled orange blossoms. After refreshments were served the bride and groom left for Kalspell and a shower of congratulatory rice. Yesterday morning they took the train for Boise from whence Mrs. Forcum will return in a few days to Hot, where she will remain with her parents the rest of this month. She and her husband will then go to Montezuma, Iowa, where they will spend three weeks with the latter's relatives. After September 1 Mr. and Mrs. Forcum will be at home at Essex, Mont. Mr. Forcum is a freeman on the Great Northern railway, being employed at present on the helper engine between Boise and Summit. He is a young man of good Christian character and has many warm friends. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hall are the parents of the bride, who graduated from the Montana Wesleyan university five years ago and has since been teaching in the public schools of Flathead county, most of the time in the city of Kalspell. She is an active member of the Methodist church and her sweet, sensible disposition has won for her a host of friends in Kalspell and the lower valley. The guests at the wedding were Miss Olivia Forcum, Mr. Charles Smith, and daughter, Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Newsum, Miss Zaida Albritton and O. H. Thurnhill. Hot, July 10, 1905.

COLUMBIA FALLS COUPLE
Married With Great Ecst and Commemorative Ceremony.
On January 15, 1905, at the residence of the groom's parents, near Columbia Falls, Miss Rosa Lerch to J. V. Harrington, Jr.
Promptly at 2 o'clock Miss Rosa Harrington took her seat at the place, and as the first chord was struck Father Arta took his place in the center of the parlor. Merrill Johnston came slowly down the stairs carrying the ring on a silver tray, followed by them the groom with his blushing bride took their place, and in a moment's time two happy hearts were made one in the presence of about forty-five guests.
The guests sat down to tables that were loaded with the best that could be procured.
The bride was gowned in a beautiful pale blue Honoria and carried an ostrich fan. The young couple are well known. Jimmie has grown to manhood in this county, as he came here from Dault when a child.
The presents were as follows:
The groom to the bride, diamond ring; the groom's grandmother, Canada, bedding; Mr. and Mrs. H. Richards, Canada, linen; Mr. and Mrs.
Harrington, Canada, linen; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, dish; Mr. and Mrs. W.
C. Whipple, silver spoon; Mr. and Mrs.
L. Johnston, hair outside ring; Mr. and Mrs. H. Fine, table linen; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. H. Brown, silver spoon; Mr. and Mrs. W. Mooring, oil painting; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brant mail, cut glass dish; Mr. and Mrs. J.
Donaldson, glass stand; Mr. and Mrs.
T. Hand, silver dish; Mr. and Mrs. J.
O'Connor, cake stand; Mr. and Mrs.
A. G. Hoeger, Libby, Mont., sofa cushion; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Conlon, table linen; Mr. and Mrs. Firestone, mounted bird; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Spaulding, pic cushion; Capt. and Mrs. Jenkins, bed spread; Mr. Woods and sister, china pitcher; E. L. Sullivan, carving set; Harold Jenkins, silver butter knife and shell; Bert Lerch, silver knives and forks; Adeline Lerch, lamp; Nell Richards, five dollars; bride's mother bedding; Viva Harrington, silver spoon; Mr. and Mrs.
J. V. Harrington, a $1000 threshing machine outfit.
One of the pleasant features of the evening was "the story" given by J. V.
Harrington, Sr., J. O'Connor and Capt.
H. Jenkins, just before the departure of the guests.
Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Harrington, Jr., will be at home to their friends Saturday night, January 21 from 8 to 12 at his father's residence.
W. C. Whipple toasted the bride and William Mooring responded.

8 Dec 1905 p10

The marriage of Miss Nellie Busey and Dr. Adelbert Howe took place at the home of the bride's parents last evening in the presence of about thirty-five friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Downing. The bride presented a most charming picture, her beautiful white dress greatly enhancing her loveliness. She carried white roses and was attended by Miss Maud McChung. The best man, Mr. T. A. Dusey, was a brother of the bride. After the ceremony had been performed and congratulations showered upon the happy couple, a sumptuous supper was served.
Many beautiful gifts were received by the young couple who are both very well known and have many friends who join in wishing them success, prosperity and happiness.
Dr. and Mrs. Howe will be at home to their friends after January 1, in the Bader cottage on First street

A Pretty Wedding.
At the Yeoman hall, Thursday, Miss Minnie Q. Ryther, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ryther, and Albert F. Johnson were united in marriage in the presence of a large gathering. L. Huggins called the house to order at 9:10. When the Oct orchestra struck the first chord of the Wedding March the doors opened and six boys, Arthur Small, Henry Weaver, Cecil Small, Winfield Scott, N. Cornish and A.
Lemson bearing two garlands of white Bour-de-lis, escorted with wild elephant and crown's feet, one on each side of the aisle, then the groom and Rev. Glendinning took their places.
Neta Cornish, carrying the ring on a silver salver took her place next to Rev. Glendinning. Miss Florence Beek, maid of honor, wearing white linen lawn, and Alvin Wegner, best man, took their places to the right and left of the pillows. Then the bride gowned in a cotton crepe, carrying a beautiful bouquet of flowers, leaning on the arm of her uncle, William Mooring, slowly advanced to the altar. The bride and groom kneeling on white pillows received the blessings of Rev. Pemberton. The bride was given away by her uncle and after the ceremony Mrs. Mooring, assisted by Mesdames Small, Cornish, Beek, Collins, Hunting, Sparling, VanDexter and the sister, served luncheon to 170 guests. The ushers were Roy Wiles, Harold Jenkins, Roy Crife and Everett Snow.
Homestead N. 725, of which both are members, presented them with a beautiful china toilet set. They received many beautiful and useful gifts.

The wedding of Miss Inglis and Jay Sailing takes place on Thursday evening at Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Stout's, the home of the bride's sister.

2 Jun 1905 p4- marriage

The first of the summer weddings took place last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Stout at 1:30 o'clock and a pretty wedding it was. Two of the best known young people in Kallispell, Mr. Jay Hammond Sailing and Miss Oats Inglis joined their fortunes in the presence of about seventy friends. The house had been artistically decorated in running vines and sweet scented flowers and the young couple stood in a bowery of blossoms while Father Arts pronounced the words which made them man and wife. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Miss McNaught and Miss Cloora Logan, during the ceremony they played "Hearts and Flowers" which added to its impressiveness. The bride who has visited her sister, Mrs. Stout, several years in succession came from Mount Carmel, Ill. and her blonde beauty was greatly enhanced by her beautiful gown of white Persian silk which was simply made and faintly trimmed with real lace. Her coronet white Brides' roses. The couple were attended by Mr. E. Brown and Miss Tate who wore pale blue silk mail. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs.

Schommer Nick Stennel Katie

21 Feb 1905 p8- marriage

NICK SCHOMMER'S WEDDING.
A Happy Affair—Expressions of Good Will for Bride and Groom.
There were grand doings at Emil Hertel's residence on Seventh avenue W. N. Saturday night, when Nick Schommer was married to Katie Stennel, a Spokane girl whom the dashing Nick had won before he moved to Kallispell to make a home. Nick is the big and popular driver for the Kallispell Milling & Brewing company, and is known and well liked by half the people of Kallispell. His bride is a fair young girl with many loveable qualities. The happy couple and Mrs. Schommer, Sr., will make their home on Fifth avenue west near the brewery. Judge Sullivan made them hold up their hands and swear to keep their plighted troth, and gave official sanction to the marriage. Nick has been a leader in the charivares of the several young couples who have elected to wear double harness this winter, and the boys planned a rip-roaring salute for him, but he took the bull by the horns by inviting all the men to the wedding, and they say that Nick furnished them with all the refreshments of a well conducted charivareo without any trouble on their part, except to keep the glasses empty. The hospitality extended was boundless and Nick and his pretty wife have the unqualified expression of their friends for a long life and a merry one.
