Murphy J B Pearson Blanch 5 Jan 1906 p8- marriage

THE MARRIAGE OF MURPHY

Everybody in Kalispell knows J. B. Murphy. He has been constantly regarded as the leading member of the confirmed old bachelors to whom a woman had ceased to be that thing of beauty and joy forever of which poets rave. However, J. B. has been and gone and done. The consequences of a mysterious trip to Spokane this week are revealed in an announcement of marriage license granted, in which J. B. Murphy of Kalispell and Miss Blanch Pearson, of Lockwood, Mo., play a star part. Miss Pearson has been visiting friends in Mount Vernon, Wash., recently, but the sly J. B. has been corresponding with his innamorata for a year or more and thus brought on the happy climax.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy will be joyfully welcomed and no doubt the grand ovation received will be one of the memories of their future lives, which every friend of the genial storekeeper hopes will be a century of bliss. Vale the bachelor and welcome J. B. Murphy the benedict.

Reynolds James H Pierce Opal E 29 Jun 1906 p4- marriage

On Saturday at Sapphire Ranch, there is to be an important gathering of friends of the family to witness the marriage of the beautiful and accomplished Miss Opal E. Pierce to Dr. James H. Reynolds, of Asheville, N. C. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom leave for the south.

6 Jul 1906 p2- marriage

At Sapphire Ranch, resplendent in summer's glorious foliage, occurred the wedding of Miss Opal Elizabeth Pierce to Dr. J. H. Reynolds on Saturday afternoon. At three o'clock Mrs. Broderick an agtendeissolin's Spring Chorus accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Clowes. The wedding party comprised of Mr and Mrs. E. C. Hedges, a sister of the bride who acted as the groom's attendant and matron of honor, and Miss Lapp the bridesmaid. The bride came in with her father. The beautiful impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. H. E. Clowes. The bride's gown was a beautiful princess creation of chiffon satin, trimmed in baby Irish lace made entrain. Biles of the valley were worn in her hair and she carried brides' roses. Mrs. Hedges wore a beautiful white lace gown and Miss Lapp was dressed in white silk mull. The house at Sapphire Ranch was decorated in wild flowers and pretty trailing vines, the parlors being profusely decorated. In the dining room where the luncheon was served everything was pink and white. Miss Pierce is the beautiful, accomplished and talented daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. L. Pierce. During a residence of about a year in this valley she had become almost indispensable where youth, beauty and talent gathered. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will reside in Asheville, N. C., where their wedding journey will terminate.

Ritchey Joseph Earle Campbell Edythe Pearl 21 Sep 1906 p5- marriage

Perfect in all its appointments was the wedding of Miss Edyth Pearl Campbell and Mr. Joseph Earl Ritchey, which took place yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gale.

The house was decorated in the most artistic manner and was a bower of fragrant blossoms and trailing vines. In the room where the ceremony was performed the decorations were white sweet peas and asparagus vines. The large circular window was banked with ferns, and festoons were used in great numbers. A huge wedding bell of white sweet peas suspended from the ceiling completed the decorations.

Promptly at the appointed hour the wedding march, played by Mrs. Clowes, began. Rev. H. E. Clowes took his place in the circular window followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. Charles D. Conrad. Four charming little lassies, Florence Gale, Jo Griffin, Louise Shoemaker and Doris Harbert, all dressed in sheer white gowns, came next carrying broad white satin ribbons forming an aisle for the bridal party. Miss Butler, the maid of honor, came first, gowned in a white cloth street suit, wearing a white hat and carrying a large bunch of pink roses. Then came the flower girl, little Eunice Whiteside, scattering white blossoms in the path of the charming bride who followed with Mr. Gale who gave the bride away. The impressive ceremony was witnessed by about seventy-five friends of the bride and groom.

The bride's gown was a white chiffon broadcloth street suit made princess, elbow sleeves, and trimmed in beautiful lace. She wore long gloves and a large white picture hat. After the ceremony the happy couple received the congratulations of those who witnessed the ceremony and about two hundred others who attended the reception.

Refreshments were served in the dining room by Misses Conrad, Shelton and Elliott. Here the decorations were all in red. From the electrolers hung a huge bow of red ribbon the ends touching the table. In the center of the table was a huge bowl of sweet peas; the red candles burning brightly cast a glow over the entire room. In the library where the decorations were all in pink Mrs. Kleinschmidt presided over the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey have gone to Conrad to live, where Mr. Ritchey is engaged in farming and mercantile pursuits. Miss Campbell was one of the most popular teachers in the KallsPELL public schools during the two years she has been here, and her attractive personality won her many friends and admirers. Of high character and attainments, and a wholesome, everyday girl, she will make an ideal wife. Earl Ritchey was "one of the boys" for a number of years in KallsPELL, no party or adventure was complete without him included and for him to settle down and get married was among the miracles. Having acquired a large slice of Uncle Sam's domain in the Milk River valley, and a half interest in a commercial enterprise at Conrad, Mont., Mr. Ritchey feels prepared to sit back among the substantial citizens of that new country and see his possessions increase and multiply.

The wedding presents were numerous and extremely useful and beautiful.

Rooney Francis J O'Connell Margaret 6 Jul 1906 p2- marriage

On Wednesday, June 27, occurred the marriage of Miss Margaret O'Connell, of Beechwood and Attorney Francis J. Rooney, of Seymour, Wis. The wedding ceremony was performed at St. Michael's Catholic church, by Rev. Father Bastian of Seymour, assisted by Rev. Father Burke of Cascade. The maid of honor was Miss Rose Connell of Janesville, Wis., and the groomsmen, William Murphy of Milwaukee.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride at Beechwood, where a wedding dinner was served and a reception held from noon until four o'clock. About seventy relatives of the contracting parties were present and a few intimate friends of the parties. The home was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers, smilax and festoons. The spacious well kept lawn of the O'Connell home was the scene of one of the happiest wedding parties which have assembled in this county for many years. Several photos were taken during the afternoon. Many fine selections of vocal and instrumental music were rendered.

Miss Margaret O'Connell will be remembered by many friends she made here about three years ago when she was the guest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. O'Connell, who have just returned from Wisconsin where they went to attend the wedding.

Salsbury Fred A Gaston Nellie 26 Oct 1906 p8- marriage

The marriage of Mr. Fred A. Salsbury and Miss Nellie Gaston took place on Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Clowes, the former performing the impressive ceremony. They were attended by Miss Myrtle Leach and Mr. Walter Bishop. The bride wore a beautiful traveling gown of gray silk with hat to match, and Miss Leach wore a garnet street suit. Immediately after they were pronounced husband and wife they were driven to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Johanna Gaston, where the wedding supper was served. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts of cut glass, china, bric-a-brac and linen. They will reside at Conrad, the new town in Chouteau county, where Ritchey & Salsbury are engaged in mercantile business. Mr. Salsbury has been a resident of Kallspell for the past three years and is a very popular young man. He held a position as head of the clothing department of the Carter Mercantile Co. during most of that time, resigning to go into business for himself in partnership with Earl Ritchey. The bride, nee Nellie Gaston, has grown like the other roses of the Flathead, to quick maturity, and is a young lady possessed of many graces and accomplishments. She is a girl of a thousand and will make a happy home for the lucky bridegroom.

Thomas Lew M DeStaffney Frankie

10 Aug 1906 p5- marriage

On the Quiet.

Last night Lew M. Thomas and Miss Frankie DeStaffney were married, the ceremony being simple and no company invited except the immediate relatives. Rev. Father Arta gave the sanction of the church, at the DeStaffney home, east of the city, and the train being late the newly married pair enjoyed a drive into the country while waiting for the departure of the flyer which was to start them on their wedding journey. They will visit relatives of the bride at Stillwater, Minn., before returning to Kallispell which they expect to make their home. Mr. Thomas and his bride are extremely popular and many of their acquaintances would have enjoyed giving them a charivari as good as some which Lew has attended, but the utmost secrecy was maintained in the wedding preparations and only a select few had the tip, so Lew was successful in making his get away.

Mr. Thomas was formerly employed as bookkeeper at the Brewery plant, but having made some fortunate timber speculations has been traveling since early spring and finishes this summer by getting married to one of the sweetest little ladies of Kallispell. He is, indeed playing in big luck.
