Mulany

Billy

Mar 8 1906 p8

Fifteen years ago Billy Mulany landed at Demersville. Then he was "full" of hope and his system was charged with enterprise. Then he was a bachelor. His stay in Scooptown was of short duration. He came to the spot now called Kalispell and erected "blarney castle" which sheltered him and his friends and their tormenters for several years. A few years after Kalispell was incorporated he heard the buzzing of a bee in his bonnet. It proved to be an aldermanic insect. So in due time Billy became one of the city "dads" which was as near paternalism as he has ever ventured. The Herald-Journal became well acquainted with Billy and learned of his sterling qualities of mind and heart, and has always been the custom of this "family journal" took much interest in his future welfare and prospects and advertised his virtues. So, like other good men, Billy got married, which means that he got wise and acted just like a real sensible man. He set a most excellent example, which has been followed as near as possible by every bachelor in town. Happiness and prosperity have been his constant companions. Recently the people of this city, without regard to former political affiliations, creeds or conditions of servitude, and without the consent of any other nation, city or town on earth, nominated him for alderman from the third ward, and will see that he is elected, and thus keep unbroken the chain of success that has followed him since his arrival in Flathead p
