Conrad	Arthur	Randall	La Neta	Nov 21 1906	Nov 22 1906 p8	Conrad-Randall. At the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Randall, 1002 Fourth avenue north, last evening was performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss La Neta Randall and Mr. Arthur Conrad. The wedding was private being attended only by the immediate relatives, and the ceremony was conducted at 9 o'clock by Rev. F. J. Mysand, rector of the Episcopal church. Later in the evening quite a number of the young friends of the bride and groom called and remained with them until they left on the 11:45 a. m. train for the east. The young couple will spend two or three months in the east visiting Boston, New York and other eastern cities and will remain for some time at the Virginia home of the Conrads. At Boston they will be joined by Lee Ford and bride, who were married last week at Palo Alto and the two young couples will spend their honeymoon together. Mrs. Randall, mother of the bride, will accompany them as far as St. Paul, where she will be met by Mr. Randall, now in that city, and will go to Iowa for a six weeks' visit. The bride is one of the most popular and prominent society ladies of the city, having resided here with her parents since childhood. The groom is a son of Hon. and Mrs. W. G. Conrad, who was also raised in Great Falls, and has for several years been connected with the Central Banking company.—Great Falls Tribune.

Ritchey	J E	Campbell	E Pearl	Sep 20 1906	Sep 27 1906 p5
						Ritchey-Campbell The marriage ceremony that united the lives of Mr. J. E. Ritchey and Miss E. Pearl Campbell was performed by Rev. Chews at the residence of Mr. Edmund Gale last Thursday afternoon in the presence of a limited number of the immediate friends of the bride and groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at which a couple of hundred so many were present. The room were tastefully decorated with sweet peas and vines. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchey departed on the evening train for their new home at Conard, where Mr. Ritchey has a farm that produced a fine crop this year, and where he is interested in the store business. Mr. Earl Ritchey, the groom was practically raised in the Flathead country, having come here with his parents when quite a young lad. Everyone knows him and everyone likes him. His charming bride was for two years one of the most efficient teachers of the Kalispell public schools, and her many graces of mind and heart endeared her to all the young folks with whom she was thrown in contact. Kalispell society suffers a loss with the departure of these two young people. May they live long and prosper is the wish of the Herald Journal.
