| | | | | The announcement that Miss Mabel Lapp and Mr. Walter Bishop will be married early in March, comes as one of the pleasant surprises of the season. The friends of these two popular people are almost as happy as they are. | For Walter Bishop, last Tuesday was a day of happiness and sorrow, pleasure and grief. On that day he led Miss Maybell Lapp to the altar and she became his bride, a few hours later his father passed beyond the great divide and now while the many friends of Walter and his accomplished wife vie with each other in wishing them years and years of happiness and prosperity every one offers their deepest sympathy in this time of their bereavement and sorrow. |

Conrad C D

Baldwin Kokoa

31 Jan 1907 p2- announcement

The engagement of C. D. Conrad and Miss Kokoa Baldwin has been announced. The wedding will be solemnized early in March.

14 Mar 1907 p1- marriage

Conrad-Baldwin
There have been many pretty weddings celebrated in Kalispell during the life of the city, but none prettier nor more elaborate than the marriage of Miss Kokoa Baldwin and Mr. Charles D. Conrad. The Episcopal church was most artistically decorated for the occasion. Smilax, carnations and roses were used in profusion by skillful artisans. Our powers of description are not equal to the task of portraying its beauties. Word painting is not our forte, so we will leave that for others to do. The hour fixed for the ceremony was 6:30 p. m. The ushers, Messrs Hummer, Tobie, VanDuser and Swaney were early at the church, all clad in full dress suits. Each one performed his part in true courtly style. Several minutes before the arrival of the bridal party every seat in the church was occupied. Then Professor Zimmerman came in and at once seated himself at the organ and began to render the processional, Mendelssohn's wedding march as only a real musician can perform it. The music was really entrancing. Rev. T. E. Dickey took his place and then the bridegroom and his best man Mr. A. M. Moore, appeared on the scene and faced the officiating minister. At this moment the strains of "Gales" wedding music rang out and the bridesmaid Miss Catherine Conrad, preceded by the ushers, and followed by little Eunice Whiteside as flower girl, and then the bride leaning on the arm of her father Major M. D. Baldwin, walked up the aisle and took their places, the bride directly under a huge wedding bell, and then Rev. T. E. Dickey tied the nuptial knot using the beautiful Episcopal marriage ceremony. Then the Postlude Dudley Buck's wedding march was given. Afterwards a great many proceeded to the residence of Major Baldwin where a grand reception was held and abundantly enjoyed. The young couple were the recipients of a great many beautiful presents, these we cannot begin to enumerate much less attempt to describe. A large number of congratulatory telegrams were received and read during the reception.

18 Apr 1907 p8- license

Marriage licenses were issued this week to W. T. McKeown and Rosamond Grace O'Hara, both of KallsPELL; and Lloyd J. Sissel and Margaret E. Clark, both of White fish.

18 Apr 1907 p8- marriage

McKeown-O'Hara.

The ceremony that united William T. McKeown to Rosamond Grace O'Hara in the holy bonds of matrimony was performed last Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Catholic church, Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating. The wedding was a public one and a large audience of friends of the bride and groom were in attendance.

In the afternoon there was a reception at the home of the bride, and the happy couple there received the congratulations of their many friends. They were the recipients of numerous handsome presents. In the evening they left for the coast on their wedding tour to be gone a couple of weeks, after which they will return and make their home in this city.

Mr. William T. McKeown, although he is one of the most prominent and successful lawyers of the city, and has been honored twice by the people of the county choosing him for their prosecuting attorney, is certainly to be congratulated in having won such a charming bride as is his wife. She was raised and educated in this county, and is justly one of the most popular of our young ladies. The Herald-Journal extends good wishes to both the bride and groom.

Shanley George Henry Boland Margaret Inez 14 Feb 1907 p3- marriage

Shanley-Boland

At 9:30 o'clock yesterday forenoon the marriage of Miss Margaret Inez Boland of this city and George Henry Shanley of Butte was solemnized at St. Ann's cathedral in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends, says the Great Falls Tribune.

The cathedral was very prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers when the bridal party composed of the bride and groom and the bridesmaid, Miss Iva Boland, sister of the bride, and the best man, Dr. J. Arthur Lamb of Kalispell, entered.

As they passed up the aisle Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered upon the organ. The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of gray chiffon broadcloth, and she carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. At the altar the party was met by the pastor, Rev. Father Thomas McCormick, who performed the ceremony of the Catholic church.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home on Second avenue north between Sixth and Seventh streets, at which the guests numbered 22. The rooms were beautified by the profuse use of palms, ferns and cut flowers, while the table center piece consisted of a large cut glass bowl filled with pink roses.

The bride and groom received a large number of beautiful gifts in cut glass and silver, among these being a handsome chest of silver presented by the Four Jacks club in Butte, of which the groom is a member. Mr. and Mrs. Shanley left on the afternoon train to an accompaniment of rice and old shoes, for southern California, where they will remain for about a month and will be at home in Butte after March 15.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Boland and is a native of this state, having resided in Cascade county nearly all her life, having made her home with her parents in Cascade and Neihart and for the past few years has resided in Great Falls. For the past four years she has been engaged in teaching school in the Stockett and Cascade schools but since last September has been teaching in Butte.

The groom is a prominent architect of the state having formerly been located in Kalispell, but has recently made his headquarters in Butte. Among the out of town guests were Miss Shanley and Miss Nellie Shanley of Kalispell, sisters of the groom, and Dr. J. Arthur Lamb of Kalispell.
