Bond Walter Weightman Miss Mabel

14 Jun 1907 p5

BOND-WEIGHTMAN.

On Tuesday evening, June 11th, at half past eight o'clock, Mr. Walter W. Bond, and Mabel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weightman, were married at the home, at Ravalli, Montana.

The attendants were Mr. C. J. Peterson and Miss Ida, sister of the bride. The Rev. T. E. Dickey read the Episcopal marriage service, uniting them for life with the impressive, sacred and indissoluble bonds of the church.

No invitations or announcements were issued; and only a few relatives and near friends were present.

Very many friends however, have a keen and kindly interest in these young people. Mr. Bond is one of our most honorable young men; and Mabel — she is still Mabel to many of us, is one of the best and most wholesome of Kalispell's daughters.

Perhaps no better thought may go out to the bride and groom than a sincere hope that the beautiful simplicity and dignity attending their wedding may be the key note of their married life; and that the significance of their vows may unfold to its fullness.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond returned to Kalispell Wednesday, and will reside on Third avenue east.

BUSEY-ELLIOTT.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Elliott and Mr. James Edgar Busey took place at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. W. C. Miles performed the impressive ring ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white net over chiffon with lace trimmings and carried lillies of the valley. Mrs. Henry D. Wilson was matron of honor and was gowned in pale green chiffon voile and carried roses. Misses Martha Elliott and Josephine Walker were bridesmaids, and Frances Riley was flower girl. Mr. Harry Wilson acted as best man. Before the ceremony Miss Nell Lowell sang Guy D. Hardlot's "Because," and during congratulations, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Miss Lois Abel played Lohengrin's wedding march. In the parlor the decorations were autumn leaves, and in the dining room Montana kinnikinnick was used. A two course luncheon was served by Misses Bernice Brown, Ruth Canfield, Lillian Clark, Grace Bradley, Mary Sweetlick, Flossie Rose, and Tully White. Miss Elliott was born and raised in Holton. She is a graduate of the Holton high school and taught in our city schools for several years, after which she went to Montana, where she accepted a position in the County High school as teacher of English and History. She is a universal favorite in Holton, loved by all who know her. She will be greatly missed in social circles and it is with sincerest regret that the young people of Holton lose her from among them. Mr. Busey holds a responsible position with the Missoula Mercantile Company and is very popular at home. The young couple left on the evening train for Chicago and will return to Holton before going to Kalispell where they will be at home after December 1st.—Holton (Kansas) Signal.

CONRAD-BALDWIN.
The marriage of Mr. Charles D. Conrad and Miss Kokoa Baldwin occurred on Tuesday evening, March the twelfth, at half after six o'clock, at Christ Church.
The church was beautifully embowered in southern smilax, and in front of the altar hung the wedding ball of smilax interwoven with white flowers. Messrs. Tobie, Swaney, Hammer and Van Duzer ushered the guests, and at the appointed hour the Reverend T. E. Dickey, the groom and Mr. A. M. Moore, as best man, entered and awaited the bride and attendants at the altar. The music of Mendelssohn's wedding march measured the approach of Miss Catherine Conrad, the bridesmaid, Miss Eunice Whiteside, flower girl, and the bride accompanied by her father. The marriage was solemnized with the ring service of the church. Subdued music from the organ continued through the service and resolved into a recessional march as the bride and groom passed down the aisle.
The bride wore a princess gown of chiffon cloth, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.
A reception, following the wedding, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin at their home on Third avenue east.
A wealth of smilax, white carnations and roses formed the decorations. Little misses acted as attendants to the guests, and young lady friends of the bride served them in the dining room.
Mr and Mrs. Conrad left on the evening train for a stay of several weeks in Ohio and New York and will return to become residents of Kalispell.

Marriage licenses issued during the week were: Charles D. Conrad and Kokoa Baldwin, both of Kalispell; James Tucker and Lottie Fox, both of Whitefish.

Eastland J M McCully Anna 3 488 24 May 1907 p5

EASTLAND-McCULLY.
 Rev. J. M. Eastland, who has been in Montana thirty-one years; was the first Methodist preacher in the Flat-head Valley; has been preaching and building churches and singing hallelujah songs over the valley for seventeen years; has traveled almost every circuit and held revivals in almost every school house and church; and who has always looked after the widows and orphans, became uneasy the other day for fear the river might rise as in days of old.
 He proceeded in his usual business-like way, and consulted Jimmy Lang and Rev. A. C. Snow. Then he gathered a few of his most select friends at 225, 8th Avenue West, on the 22nd of May and was married to Mrs. Anna McCully, a highly esteemed widow lady of forty-three summers and nine children. The eldest is a married daughter living in Oregon; two sons are working at the mills; one young lady is about eighteen; and there are five little ones large enough to pick up potatoes and gather the eggs.
 Some beautiful presents were received, one fine rocker being presented by Mr. and Mrs. Frederberg and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe.
 Mr. and Mrs. Eastland moved their household goods to their beautiful home east of the river, and a grand reception was given them Thursday evening by his old friends. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life and are glad he has a chorus to help him sing his old favorite song: "No Not One."
 —A Friend.

HARMON-HANNAN.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, when Mr. Hubert P. Harmon and Miss Helen Irene Hannan were united in marriage.

The decorations were in autumn colorings, and in the various rooms there was artistically massed a profusion of white chrysanthemums, sweet peas, and bridal-wreath berries; with borders of flowers and vines draped from the walls. The porch was embowered in vines and hung with Japanese lanterns.

At eight o'clock the wedding march announced the coming of the bride and groom, attended by Miss Ruby Herrick and Mr. Fred S. Perry. The marriage service was read by Rev. H. M. Green, of the Episcopal church. After the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon will be at home after November 15th at 718 Second Avenue east.

KAMMEYER-SPANNUTH

Mr. Harry Kammeyer and Miss Ida Spannuth were married at the German Lutheran church in Kalispell at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon. The young people took their vows in the presence of large number of their friends, who had been invited to witness the ceremony.

The church had been elaborately and beautifully decorated with flowers, the color scheme being white. A wedding bell of sweet peas was supported by white floral arches, and beneath the bell the bride and groom took their places while the marriage service of the church was read by Rev. E. Ziegler.

The bride's attendants were Misses Olga Spannuth and Lena Kammeyer, and Paul Spannuth and Albert Reimer attended the groom.

After the ceremony a reception and dinner were given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Spannuth, parents of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Kammeyer have gone to Seattle, where they will make their home. They are two most excellent young people, who deserve the happiness and prosperity their many friends in the Flathead will wish may be theirs.

Marriage license were issued this week to Claude R. Gregg and Emma M. Lee, both of Kalispell; Harry H. Kammeyer, of Seattle, and Ida Spannuth, of Kalispell; George Betzer of Somers and Grace E. Gowdy, of Winona, Minnesota; R. A. McMordie, of Fernie, B. C., and Ethelyn R. Kennedy, of Kalispell.

J. D. KAYLOR MARRIED.

The following notice of the marriage of J. D. Kaylor is from the Indianapolis Star of August 28th. Mr. J. Kaylor has been east for several weeks, and while his friends here suspected he would not return alone, he had given none of them any direct information. The Star says:—

"The marriage of Miss Jean Wylie and Mr. James D. Kaylor, of Kalispell, Montana, took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandfather, Mr. Andrew Wylie, of Irvington. The wedding guests included only the members of the immediate family and a small group of intimate friends. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Day, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Irvington. The rooms were made attractive with potted plants, ferns and clusters of summer blossoms. There were no attendants. The bridal couple entered the ceremony room together. The bride's gown was a simple French baste, trimmed with lace.

"An informal reception was given after the ceremony. Those who assisted in receiving and entertaining the wedding guests were the bride's sisters, Mrs. A. E. Larsh, Mrs. J. R. Kingsbury, Miss Anna Hoffman, and Miss Adelle Bowman. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Kaylor left for a wedding trip and later will go to their home in Montana.
