WEDDING BELLS

At 10:30 this morning, in the Catholic church, Rev. Father O'Farrell officiated at the ceremonial which joined and cemented in holy matrimony Mr. William T. McKeown and Miss Grace O'Hara. The wedding was public and having been much heralded was very largely attended, attracting the popularity of both contracting parties. After the wedding at which high mass was celebrated along with the impressive ritual of the Catholics, there was a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride and a reception some hours afterward, when the numerous friends of both parties had an opportunity to extend congratulations and good wishes for the future of Mr. and Mrs. McKeown. They leave tonight for Portland, Oregon, on their wedding tour and in that city will be the guests of Mr. McKeown's brother and sister who live there. Early next month they will return to KallsPELL and shortly thereafter begin keeping house. The gifts were numerous and costly and with the exception of a few ordinary housekeeping devices, the gifts of friends would almost suffice for a well appointed menage.

Miss O'Hara, the lady in the case, is one of the fairest daughters of KallsPELL and here she was educated and has grown into lovely womanhood. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Hara, who have resided here many years; Mr. O'Hara was formerly connected with the G. N. railway, but has more recently served upon the sheriff's staff in this county.

William T. McKeown is serving his second term as county attorney. He is, perhaps, the most popular lawyer in the county, having located here in 1901. His friends are legion and from the reservation to the Canadian boundary everyone has the glad hand of "Bill" McKeown.

If good wishes go for much, the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. McKeown is assured, and may they live long and happy ever after in KallsPELL.

Shanley	George H	Boland	Margaret I	8 Feb 1907 p5-announcement	15 Feb 1907 p5- marriage
				The blushing god Cupid, with reckless severity, has again invaded a circle of sworn to celibacy, the famous Park Company. The original membership of five has withstood the penetrating shafts of love for so these many years, but now the Flying Dutchman has been taken captive. Uncle Sam who is to be best man at the wedding first whispered the news to be French Count. Mephisto twirled his mustache and hastened to communicate with Abraham Lincoln, Mel and Forty-Four are ashamed to show their faces now. The foregoing is all relevant to the startling tidings that George H. Shanley is to be married at Great Falls next Monday to Miss Margaret I. Boland, a vivacious young lady of the Falls City, who has been teaching school in Butte, where her many charms took the Flying Dutchman captive. Dr. Lamb and Miss Shanley will try to reach Great Falls for the felicitous occasion and hope the Great Northern will let them through the snow slide. George Shanley is one of the most popular young men that ever made his home in Kallispell and he is adding to his prestige since he took up his temporary residence in Butte, where he found a larger field for his talent as an architect and builder. Some of the biggest blocks constructed in Butte last year were planned and supervised by Mr. Shanley and there he also found his true love, the sweet girl he is about to marry.	Dr. J. A. Lamb and Miss Shanley returned Wednesday from Great Falls where they attended at the Shanley-Boland nuptials. A local paper gives the following report of the affair: Miss Margaret Inez Boland of this city and George Henry Shanley of Butte were married at 9:30 a. m. yesterday at St. Ann's cathedral. Rev. Father McCormick officiated. Miss Inez Boland, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Dr. J. Arthur Lamb of Kallispell, was best man. The cathedral was prettily decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home on Second avenue, a reception between the guests numbered 22. The bride of beautiful gifts in cut glass and silver, among these being a handsome chest of silver presented by the Four Jacks club in Butte, of which the groom is a member. Mr. and Mrs. Shanley left on the afternoon train for southern California, where they will remain for about a month. They will be at home in Butte after March 15th. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Boland and is a native of this state, having lived in Cascade county nearly all her life. She formerly made her home with her parents in Cascade and Nehalem and for the past few years has lived in Great Falls. For the past four years she has been engaged in teaching school, in the Stockton and Cascade schools, but since last September has been teaching in Butte. The groom is a prominent architect of the state, having formerly been located in Kallispell. He has recently made his headquarters in Butte. Among the out of town guests were Miss Shanley and Miss Nettie Shanley of Kallispell, sisters of the groom.

"Happy is the bride the sun shines on," is an old but grand proverb and if there is truth in it the married life of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Thompson will be the very happiest. Wed Tuesday was a perfect summer day and at 6:30, the time appointed for the ceremony, Christ Episcopal church was comfortably filled with friends. The decorations were ivy vines and the altar was banked with a profusion of beautiful white asters. Miss West presided at the pipe organ, Miss Mary Lewis accompanying on the violin. "Hearts and Flowers" was played just before the wedding party arrived, being to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party came in. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Conklin, dressed in a princess gown of pale green, carrying pink roses came first. Following the maid of honor was the little ring bearer, golden-haired Harline Diabow, dressed in creamy white; then came the fairy flower girls, Louise Shoemaker and Julie Rennie, carrying baskets filled with sweet scented blossoms, strewn them in the path of the charming bride, Miss Conklin, who was dressed in a white silk tulle made princess entrain and trimmed in rich lace, two very wide folds making a complete finish for the skirt that fell in graceful lines to the floor. A beautiful white veil of Brussels lace was worn, also long white gloves. The bride's flowers were white roses. At the altar the groom, Mr. John R. Thompson, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Chester Brinthal, met the wedding party. Rev. H. M. Green performing the impressive ceremony, immediately afterward a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, the O. A. Colbys.

The house was a bower of beauty, white sweet peas being used in large quantities banked on the piano and on tables. An arch of green vines and white satin ribbons was in one corner and it was here the bridal party stood to receive congratulations, and hear the best wishes of their many friends. The array of wedding gifts was large and shows in some degree the esteem in which they are held. These were pieces of useful ornaments, china, cut glass, silver, linen, two large leather rockers and a fine rug presented to them by the Melrose Hardware company with whom the groom has been connected for several years.

The bride is possessed of a rare bird-like voice and is among the most talented of Kallspell's girls. Both have many friends.

In the dining room the decorations were all in pink and the refreshments were served by Misses Mayme and Nellie Wade, Kate and Gertrude DeBrow, March and Ruth Lewis, and Flossie Wilson.

Miss Hollins and Miss Brinthal presented each guest with a pretty bunch of sweet peas.
