McKEOWN—O'HARA.
Mr. William T. McKeown and Miss Rosamond Grace O'Hara were united in marriage on Tuesday morning at half past ten o'clock at St. Mathews church.
Native greens and white were used about the altar, and above hung the wedding bell. On the opening of Mendelssohn's wedding march, Miss Helen Kavanaugh, as maid of honor, entered the church, followed by Miss Aileen Bennett accompanied by Dr. Maloney, and with Miss Nyra Brink as ring bearer. The bride came with her father and they were met at the altar by the groom and Mr. Clifford O'Hara, best man.
Father O'Farrell read the service, uniting them in the holy bonds of marriage according to the rites of the Catholic church. After the ceremony, "O Promise me" was sung by Mrs. Kuhlman, and High Mass was celebrated.
An informal reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Hara, from two to five o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. McKeown left on the five thirty train on a trip to the coast.

Marriage licenses have been issued this week to Lloyd J. Sissel and Margaret E. Clark, both of Whitefish; W. T. McKeown and Rosamond Grace O'Hara, both of Kalspell.

MARRIED IN JAIL.
A wedding entirely out of the ordinary occurred at the county jail Tuesday afternoon. Malcolm McLeod and Mrs. Mary Therriault being the parties most directly concerned. McLeod, who is a quarter breed Indian from the reservation, had been sentenced to a year in the penitentiary on the charge of forgery, to which he had plead guilty. His bride to be was not daunted by the fact that Malcolm would have to spend what should be his honeymoon in Deer Lodge, and she went to the jail, where the marriage ceremony was performed by Judge S. L. Wallace. The same evening McLeod was started for the penitentiary to begin serving his sentence.

JOHN K. O'BRIEN MARRIED.
 The following announcement of the marriage of John K. O'Brien is from the Stillwater, Minnesota, correspondence of the American Lumberman.
 Mr. O'Brien has a host of friends in Kalispell and Somers who will join his friends elsewhere in wishing him and his bride long years of happiness.
 Stillwater, Minn., Aug. 8.—John K. O'Brien, a young lumberman whose home was formerly in this city and who now resides in Seattle, Wash., and Miss Agnes Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Long, of this city, were married at St. Michael's church in this city today, Rev. Charles Cochran officiating. The bride is one of Stillwater's most charming young ladies and a friend of the groom from days when they were children. Her father, William Long, is one of the pioneer loggers of the upper St. Croix river. The groom is a son of John O'Brien for many years a resident of Stillwater and engaged in logging on the St. Croix. He afterwards founded the John O'Brien Lumber Company at Somers, Mont., being associated with James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern railway, in this enterprise. A year ago Mr. O'Brien disposed of his interest in the Somers plant to Mr. Hill and went to Seattle with his family to make his home. He organized the John O'Brien Logging Company, and is now engaged in logging in the vicinity of Vancouver, B. C. The groom of today is the oldest son and is associated with his father in logging enterprises. The newly married couple will leave tonight for the west and probably, will make their home in Seattle.

SHANLEY-BOLAND.

Mr. George H. Shanley, formerly of this city, but now of Butte, and Miss Inez Boland, of Great Falls, were married at St. Ann's cathedral, on Monday of this week, at 9:30 a. m. The Tribune gives the following account of the ceremony:—

The cathedral was very prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers when the bridal party, composed of the bride and groom and the bridesmaid, Miss Iva Boland, sister of the bride, and the best man, Dr. J. Arthur Lamb of Kalispell, entered.

As they passed up the aisle Mendelssohn's wedding march was rendered. The bride was gowned in a travelling suit of gray chiffon broadcloth, and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. At the altar the party was met by the pastor, Rev. Father Thomas McCormick, who performed the ceremony of the Catholic church.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home on Second avenue north, at which the guests numbered twenty-two. The rooms were beautified by the profuse use of palms, ferns and cut flowers, while the table center piece consisted of a large cut glass bowl filled with pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Shanley left on the afternoon train to an accompaniment of rice and old shoes, for southern California, where they will remain for about a month and will be at home in Butte after March fifteenth.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F. Boland and is a native of this state.

The groom is a prominent architect of the state having formerly been located in Kalispell, but recently made his headquarters in Butte. Among the out of town guests were Miss Shanley and Miss Nellie Shanley of Kalispell, sisters of the groom, and J. Arthur Lamb of Kalispell.
