Murray J A Gullickson Lillie A 27 Oct 1908 p5- marriage

ENGINEER WEDS GIRL HE RESCUED

Meet on the Locomotive Driven by Bridegroom at Fernie Fire.

Another romance of the Fernie fire culminated in Justice G. V. Stocker's court yesterday afternoon when J. A. Murray, aged 30, a locomotive engineer on the Canadian Pacific railway, was married to Miss Lillie A. Gullickson.

They first met while the fire was at its height at Fernie. Mr. Murray was one of the fearless engineers who hauled a train of refugees from the stricken city to other cities thru the blazing forests and out of the danger zone.

Miss Gullickson, who was then living at Fernie, was a passenger on one of these trains, or rather she was a passenger on the locomotive.

The train was crowded to its capacity and Miss Gullickson was one of a few people who were offered accommodation in the engine cab.

"We got pretty well acquainted during the ride to Cranbrook," admitted Miss Gullickson yesterday, "but we came to know each other much better since, for I remained in Cranbrook, where Mr. Murray resides.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray will return today to Cranbrook, where, as he put it yesterday, he will continue to live when he isn't "on the job."

Both bride and bridegroom were covered with confusion when the best man stole a march on Mr. Murray and kissed the bride before he had presence of mind enough to do so.—Spokesman-Review.

Peattie Ned Shelton 20 Nov 1908 p5- announcement

The most successful social event of the season was the dancing party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Van Duzer, Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Shelton, whose marriage to Mr. Ned Peattie, takes place in Ogden, Utah, next Wednesday.

It was a most enjoyable affair and there were many pretty evening gowns worn by the ladies; brilliant lights and music making the scene one to be remembered. Dancing occupied the time until after 11 o'clock when a procession was formed and to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the merry throng, led by the host, hostess, Miss Shelton and her guardian, Mr. Grubb, went into the dining room where most elaborate refreshments were served on individual trays. The table was very attractive the center piece was a pink basket filled with Killarney roses; candlesticks with pink shades and simulated pink roses held the candles; wide pink ribbons fastened to the ceiling over the center of the table were gracefully caught at the four corners of the table and ended in a big bow with streamers. When the guests had finished their repast the gracious hostess proposed a toast to Miss Shelton which Mr. Grubb feelingly responded to and in a few well chosen expressions left nothing unsaid as to the loveliness of her disposition and the happiness which is her birthright.

Miss Shelton is a strikingly handsome girl and her popularity here as a reigning belle has never been questioned. Her beauty is of the regal and queenly type and since her childhood has been known as "Beautiful Peggy" by many friends. She has grown from babyhood to young womanhood in Flathead. She is a sparkling and vivacious young woman and no social affair has ever been quite complete without her.

Price Jack Beckwith Sadie 31 Jul 1908 p2- announcement

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Sadie Beckwith to John Price of KallsPELL was a distinct surprise to many of the friends of the young lady. Miss Beckwith has spent the last two years in Boston and Mr. Price, being a resident of KallsPELL, nothing was suspected by Miss Beckwith's friends in Missoula, when her sisters, Mrs. C. H. McLeod, Mrs. J. M. Keith and Mrs. George Briggs issued invitations for a "500" party, to be given at the home of Mrs. C. H. McLeod on Thursday afternoon. Those who accepted their invitations are doubly glad that they did so, while those who regretted, have regretted more than once. The afternoon was spent most delightfully playing cards, and when refreshments were served each guest found on her napkin a faint spray of white blossoms typical of the fair young girl, soon to become a bride. The announcement of this interesting news was made in a very clever way. The guests were seated at the tables and the playing began when it was discovered that they had no score cards on which to record their gains and losses. This was a passing oversight (?) and was referred to one of the hostesses, whereupon the most exquisite little score cards were passed. They were in the form of a booklet, on the outside of which was a hand-painted spray of orange blossoms; inside was found a message in an envelope containing a card bearing the following words, "Retrospect, Sadie Beckwith, John Price." When the surprised guests realized the full import of this significant inscription they hastened to offer to Miss Beckwith their sincere and best wishes for the happy culmination of this most interesting event. The bride-to-be has lived almost all her life in Missoula. She is the possessor of all the traits of character which go to make the perfect woman, and her sweet and kindness of heart are reflected in her face. While Mr. Price is but slightly known in Missoula, yet those who are honored by his acquaintance speak in glowing terms of his nobility of mind and strength of character. Much happiness is wished and predicted for Miss Beckwith and Mr. Price for the future.—Missoulian
