Alward	Herbert V	Monelius	Kate	29 Apr 1910 p2- engagement
The announcement of the engagement of Mr. Herbert V. Alward and Miss Kate Montelius is not a surprise to their intimate friends. This popular young couple are prominent socially here and for several months the engagement has been speculated upon. Miss Montelius was born in Flathead and graduated from the county high school at the head of her class. Naturally quick, bright, fun-loving and merry she has retained the love of her schoolmates and won the admiration of all the new-comers. She is particularly practical about the home—in fact there is nothing she cannot do and do well. She attended Milwaukee Downer after graduating here and also went to the Cedar Falls normal school. She has always been an enthusiastic basketball player. Mr. Alward is a nephew of Mr. Harry Kelm, coming originally from New Brunswick. He spent several years in New York city and Missoula, coming here more than two years ago to accept the responsible position of cashier in the First National bank. He is considered one of the substantial and dignified business men of the county. The match is, from every point of view, an ideal one. The wedding will take place in the early fall and from now until that time there will be any number of events given in their honor.

ALWARDMONTELIUS. Perfect in every detail was the wedding of Mr. Herbert V. Alward and Miss Kate Montelius, which occurred on Thursday evening, Sept. 6, 1910, at Christ church. The church was artistically decorated with festoons of soft feathery greens, interwoven with white asters and goldenglow. The altar was beautiful with its masses of white flowers and soft candle light. At six thirty, the wedding march, played by Miss Forskelson and Cleora Logan, heralded the approach of the bridal party. Rev. H. M. Green, and the groom attended by Mr. Vincent White, entered from the vestry, and at the altar awaited the rest of the bridal party. The ushers, Mr. Carl Hummer and Mr. Andrew Beckwith, of Missoula, entered, followed by the four bride's maids, Misses Katherine Duncan, Miss Ames, Florence Wilson and Elise Whiteside. They were all gowned in yellow and wore large black hats with drooping plumes, and each carried long-stemmed yellow crysanthemums. Mrs. Richard Cap as matron of honor, looked lovely in cream silk crepe with a black picture hat, and a bouquet of yellow crysanthemums. The little flower girls came next scattering golden petals as they advanced. They were Jane Rhoades and Helen Jane Dickey, and were very sweet in dainty white dresses. Frances Keith followed, bearing the wedding ring in a large yellow rose. Leaning upon the arm of her father, Mr. Lew Switzer, came the bride. There have been brides and brides, but surely none ever looked more beautiful than Kate. Her gown was of white embroidered chiffon over meshaline, trimmed with real lace and pearl trimmings. A soft daisy veil, fastened to her hair with white ribbons, fell to the hem of the train. She carried a shower bouquet of brides' rose buds and lilies of the valley. The marriage service, by which this young couple were joined in holy matrimony, was most impressively read. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Switzer. They were assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Alward, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Keith. Mrs. Switzer wore a gown of white crepe over taffeta, trimmed with broad bands of heavy lace. Mrs. Keith's gown was of embroidered net over cream coline and white satin trimmings. The house was profusely decorated in goldenglow and white asters, and sprays of green. The guests enjoyed an informal evening and were served with pineapple, angel food and fruit cake, by the Misses Beas Tate, Maria Tate, Kate Dishrow, Ean Jones, Nina Brink and Phyllis Walker. Mrs. J.

Bellefleur William Duffy Irene

9 Aug 1910 p5- marriage

One's curiosity is aroused when he sees a pair of old shoes sliding and dangling behind a carriage. Yesterday the carriage contained a newly wedded pair, Mr. William Bellefleur and Miss Irene Duffy. They were married at the Catholic church by Rev. Frank O'Farrell at four o'clock in the afternoon. After a sumptuous feast served at A. H. Hay's cafe, they were driven to the train, and left for points on the coast. Upon their return to Kalspell, they will be at home to their many friends at 795 Third avenue east. Congratulations.

BROWN HOCOMB

On last Saturday afternoon, September 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hocomb, in the presence of one hundred and fifty friends and relatives, occurred one of the most beautiful weddings ever seen in Helena, Montana, when their only daughter, Flossie Estella, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph E. Brown, of Somers, the Rev. P. A. Armstrong officiating.

A spacious bowery hall had been especially erected for the occasion, which was tastefully decorated with evergreens and native shrubs whose profusion of white and red berries contrasted conspicuously with the glossy green of the foliage. At one side of the hall had been fashioned an arch of evergreen at the top of which hung a massive wreath artistically fashioned from native vines and autumn flowers.

Promptly at 4:30 o'clock, while the strains of the wedding march, played by Robtson Bros., floated thru the rooms, the bridal party led by the officiating minister, took their places beneath the arch. The bride was attended by Miss Zina Bell Lister, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Albert Hocomb acted as best man.

The beautiful and impressive ring service was used, after which the married pair received the hearty congratulations of their hosts of friends.

The bride was tastefully arrayed in white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts.

The guests were received by Mrs. Mand Shueiss assisted by Mrs. Clara Attebury.

At the close of the marriage service the guests were conducted to the dining room which was presided over by Mrs. George Benjamin and Miss Hatty Benjamin, where a bounteous wedding supper was enjoyed, after which those so inclined tripped the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours.

The bride is one of Helena Flats' most estimable and popular young ladies. The groom holds a responsible position with the Somers Lumber company. They will make their future home in Somers.

A HAPPY ROMANCE

The climax of a happy romance occasioned by the opening of just an ordinary old Indian reservation, culminated yesterday in the marriage of Mr. Charles A. Bruning, of Nebraska, and Miss Mary A. Redlingshafer of Charlton, Iowa, the wedding occurring at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. O. A. Anderson, near Montford.

Last summer when Uncle Samuel was giving away chances on land in three Indian reservations which his excellency proposed to open for settlement, it so happened that the couple mentioned drew numbers in the same reserve, the Coueur d'Alene, and chanced to make their selections on adjoining quarters. When settling time came the romance had its inception, and the twain believing intensified farm life was really the best after all, decided to abandon one of the tracts and both prove up on the one.

There was quite a crowd of friends and relatives present at the ceremony yesterday, which was performed by the Rev. Harold H. Griffs, of the Christian church of this city. After congratulations and best wishes, a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruning will return to their homestead, which is located near DeSmet, Idaho, after spending a few days with relatives here.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

From the Madison (Wis.) Democrat is gleaned the following news: Mrs. Theodore Herfurth, 703 East Gorham street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Sabena Mildred, to Mr. William Lloyd Davis. Miss Herfurth is a brilliant young woman, a graduate and post-graduate of the University of Wisconsin, well known and popular in Madison and university circles. For the past two years she has held a position as instructor in the German department of Milwaukee Downer college and formerly filled a similar position in the university. Mr. Davis is a graduate of the university and a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is now engaged in the business of real estate and investments in western lands. The wedding will take place early in December after which the young couple will spend six months in travel abroad. On their return they will make their home in Madison.

All of Mr. Davis' friends in this city will be glad to hear of his good fortune, and nowhere that he is known will he receive heartier congratulations than from Kallspeil where, for two years, he was superintendent of schools, and one of the most successful and best men over in our schools.

DAVIS-HERFURTH

This evening at 7:30 o'clock at Grace Episcopal church Rev Addison A. Ewing will unite in marriage Miss Sabena Mildred Herfurth, daughter of Mrs. Marie Herfurth, and William Lloyd Davis. A musical program of half an hour's duration will precede the ceremony, given with the rare interpretation of Joseph M. Boyd, an old-time friend of the groom. The strains of the majestic bridal march from "Lohengrin" will announce the approach of the bridal party, led by the two head waiters, George Gove, of Milwaukee, and Frederick Maschen, a son, followed by Edward M. McMahon, Thomas Mills of Edin, Arthur Grant of Grand Rapids, all fraternity brothers of the groom, and Earl D. Akin, a nephew of the groom, who is a student in the university. The two bridesmaids, Miss Marie Voss and Miss Edna Harrison, nieces of the bride, will walk next, both gowned in delicate pink crepe, wearing Grecian head bands fashioned out of satin roses. The bride on the arm of her brother-in-law, T. G. Murray, will be preceded by Mrs. T. G. Murray as matron of honor, whose gown is a handsome cream lace over yellow satin, completed by a head wreath of yellow satin roses and a spray bouquet of yellow roses. The bride will wear a dress of rich ivory satin trimmed beautifully in duchess lace, and a veil falling to the length of the handsome court train. Miss Herfurth's bouquet is a fragrant combination of bridal roses and daisy lilies of the valley, her only other decoration to be a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. Mr. Davis will be accompanied to the altar from the society by his best man and old-time friend, Harold E. Edmunds, of Yankton, S. D. The impressive ring service will be used, the altar and chancel rail forming a background of white chrysanthemums and trailing southern oxalis. As the bridal party step from the altar the march from Mendelssohn will be played at the organ, and the exit from the church will be heralded by the pealing out of the chimes in the church steeple. Almost a thousand invitations have been issued to friends for the ceremony, which will be followed by a reception to intimate friends of the bride and groom at the Herfurth home, 703 East Gorham street. Prof. Stephen W. Gilman, of the department of commerce in the university, is master of ceremonies. At the home each of the receiving rooms has been given a charming scheme of floral decoration. In the reception room where the young couple will receive, great bunches of shaggy white chrysanthemums have been combined with amaranth and trailing ferns to form a fitting background for the occasion. In the back parlor pink carnations and delicate sprays of stevia are used; the dining room shows a fragrant combination of bridal roses, amaranth and sprays of ferns; the music room, where a five-piece orchestra will be stationed, is in yellow chrysanthemums, and the den is flashing red poinsettias. A buffet lunch will be served from the dining room.—Wisconsin State Journal.

Goodell	J W	Duncan	Catherine	15 Apr 1909 p5- engagement	16 Sep 1910 p5- marriage
				The engagement of Miss Catherine Duncan and Mr. J. W. Goodale of Whitefish is announced. The wedding will take place in June. Miss Duncan is well known here, is a graduate of the Flathead county high school, and her many friends are wishing her much joy and happiness. Mr. Goodale is to be congratulated.	About forty guests gathered at the home of Mrs. Jemima Duncan at Whitefish to witness the marriage of her daughter, Catherine to Mr. John Goodell, on Wednesday evening, September 14. The house was beautiful with its decorations of cedar and pink and white asters. The dining room table was most attractive with its daisy cover and a center piece of pink and white sweet peas. From the electric chandeliers was suspended a shower bouquet of the same sweet flowers. At 8 o'clock as Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Florence Wilson of Kalspell, began, Rev. J. Gaston, the groom and Mr. Fairburn as best man, entered the living room and awaited the bride's coming, beneath a canopy of cedar boughs and asters. Misses Stella and Gladys Duncan, sisters of the bride, were her maids, and they looked beautiful in their pink gowns of embroidered chiffon. They carried pink carnations. The bride, entered with her mother and was very dainty and beautiful in a gown of white crepe du chine over mesaline, a gauzy veil enfolding her, and her arms filled with brides' roses. Soft music continued while the impressive marriage service was read which made these two happy young people one for life. After congratulations had been extended, the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding supper was served by Misses Ima Jones, Nina Ames and Maud Miller. Mr. and Mrs. Goodell left for the east on a wedding trip and they will also visit points on the coast. Upon their return they will begin house-keeping in a cozy cottage which was a wedding gift to the bride from her mother. Mr. Goodell is one of the most popular engineers on this division of the Great Northern, and he is most fortunate in winning for his bride Catherine, who has spent a large part of her life in Kalspell and vicinity, and is beloved for her sweet ways and her fidelity.

Railsback

Edgar M

Schumacher

Tillie J

27 Sep 1910 p8- engagement

2 Dec 1910 p10- marriage

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The following is taken from the Champaign (Ill.) Daily News and will be of interest to the many friends in Kalspell of Mr. Railsback and Miss Schumacher:

At a party Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emma Schumacher, announcement was made of the engagement of her daughter, Miss Tillie J. Schumacher, to Mr. Edgar M. Railsback, five young lady friends of Miss Schumacher had been invited to a "thimble" party and after refreshments had been served the engagement was announced in a unique manner.

The bride-to-be is an accomplished young lady, being a graduate of the Champaign high school and of the University of Illinois in the class of 1902. Since leaving the university she has been an instructor in German in the Decatur high school and year she was instructor in the Champaign high school and is considered one of the best teachers that ever taught there. It was with considerable regret that the board of education parted with her services last June. She was popular and well liked by both teachers and pupils.

Mr. Railsback holds a responsible position with a mercantile company in Kalspell. They will reside at that place after the wedding in November.

Champaign Daily News: A pretty Thanksgiving wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Emma Schumacher, 405 East Green street, when her daughter, Tillie J., was united in marriage to Mr. Edgar M. Railsback, of Kalspell, Montana, Rev. J. Andrew Holmes officiating, and the ring service being used. The rooms were draped with cedar boughs brought from Montana.

The bridal party stood under a canopy formed of the cedar while the altar was banked with palms. Pink carnations formed the decorations in the dining room in which was spread a large bride's table. The linen used on this table was a present to Mrs. Schumacher some thirty years ago from a relative who was a linen designer in Germany. The pattern was a special design and only the one set was ever woven from it.

The ring bearer was little Louise Blaine, who carried the ring in a calla lily. The groom was attended by his brother, Homer Railsback, of St. Louis. The bride was attended by Mrs. Lola Fischer Hollister of Lincoln, Neb. Miss Helen Bryan of Champaign rendered the wedding march. The bride wore a white silk crepe de chine trimmed with lace and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of brides' roses. The gown of the matron of honor was of white cloth with gold and lace trimming. She carried her carved ivory wedding fan. The bride's mother wore a gown of pearl gray silk.

Dinner in five courses was served by Mrs. Fanny Brown and her assistants.

The bride was a graduate of the Champaign high school and of the University of Illinois, class of 1902. She was later a teacher of German at Decatur and instructor at the university and last year taught in Champaign high school. The groom is connected with the Missoula Mercantile company of Kalspell, Mont., and is a young man of fine character and business ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Railsback will be at home after January 1, at Kalspell, Mont.

The couple, when they departed on Thursday evening were accompanied as far as Kalspell by a party of six of the wedding guests. Under leadership of Mr. Railsback's brother a portly porter was tipped to present Mr. and Mrs. Railsback with a large bird cage containing a chandelier. Despite the protests of the couple that there was a mistake as to their identity, the cage was placed on the hat rack above the seat occupied by them and left there against efforts of Mr. Railsback to tip the porter to take it away. The sextet had a lot fun out of the incident and others before arriving at Kalspell.

9 Dec 1910 p10- marriage

REDLINGSHAFER-ANDERSON

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning, in the Central Christian church of this city, occurred the marriage of Mr. Harold L. Redlingshafer and Miss Carrie V. Anderson, in the presence of a large number of immediate friends and relatives, Rev. Harold H. Gries performing the impressive ceremony that made the twain one.

The bride and groom are two of Kalspell's most worthy and popular young people, and have the congratulations and very best wishes of all their friends and acquaintances on the happy occasion of their marriage. Mr. Redlingshafer is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Redlingshafer, living northwest of town. He graduated from the school of this city, and later took up work in the forestry service, where he has made rapid advancement, now holding an important appointment in the head office at Missoula.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grow, with whom she has made her home since living in Kalspell. She is a young woman of excellent character and disposition, and has won a large circle of friends since coming to Kalspell.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Redlingshafer have been prominently identified in church circles of the city, and it is here they will be most greatly missed. The happy young couple left last night for Missoula where they will make their home, going by way of Spokane, for a short wedding tour.

25 Nov 1910 p5- marriage

SAUNTRY-BERNE.
At St. Matthews church, on Thanksgiving day, November 24, Mr. John Sautry and Miss Agnes Irene Berne were married by Rev. Father O'Farrell. At 9 o'clock, the appointed hour, the church was filled with the friends of the bridal couple, and to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march they entered the church. Mr. Gregory Duffy and Mr. Dan Sautry, a brother of the groom, were the ushers. They were followed by Mr. Phil Simpson as best man and Miss Hazel Pohl, the bride's niece, as maid. They were the only attendants of the bride and groom, who next came. Father O'Farrell met them at the altar, and by the brief, yet impressive words of the marriage service they were made man and wife. High mass was then sung and at the offertory, Carrie Jacobs Bond's love song, "I Love You Truly," was rendered. The recessional was Mendelssohn's wedding march.
The bride was beautifully gowned in white messaline, with a long thin veil held in place by bride's roses. She carried a bouquet of the same flowers. Miss Pohl looked very sweet in her dainty pink gown and large black hat. Her flowers were pink carnations.
Mr. and Mrs. Sautry are both well known in Kalspell. Mrs. Sautry filled a responsible position with the Northern Idaho & Montana Power company. Mr. Sautry is the successful manager of the Kalspell business college. Hosts of friends wish for this happy pair all the good things which life contains, and they hope that the home where they have begun life's journey may be filled with every blessing.

SMITH-VAN ZANDT WEDDING

Dr. C. S. Smith, one of the popular and eminent young members of the medical fraternity of this city, was married in Bozeman on Wednesday evening September 4, to Miss Carolyn Van Zandt, of Bozeman. Dr. Smith has been a resident of Kalspell for the past year, being associated with Dr. Macdonald in the practice of medicine. He has made many friends during his residence here, and who will be pleased to extend to the bride and groom their warmest congratulations on their home-coming.

The Bozeman Chronicle of the 15th contained the following account of the wedding:

One of the most elegant social functions of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Justin M. Smith at 8:30 o'clock, when Dr. Clarke S. R. VanZandt, and Miss Carolyn rriage.

The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white roses and car about seventy-five guests had arrived at the event of the evening.

Mrs. O. E. Myers, who played the wedding march, was the first of the bridal party to enter the parlor. She was clad in an imported silk gown of and silk, artistically trimmed with pearl ornaments, with picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

When the bridal party reached the parlor, the music was changed to low, sweet strains from De Koven, and Rev. O. P. Bishop read the ring service while the music continued softly to the close.

Heartier congratulations would be impossible. The whole through young couple and words of love and cheer and congratulations were spoken by all.

Elaborate refreshments were served and the happy company partook of the bride's cake and carried away pieces of the wedding cake that sweet dreams might come to them.

The luncheon was served by the Misses Edith Armstrong, Alice Chisholm, Vida Work and Mrs. R. E. Martin.

One room was set aside for the presents and it was filled. The tableware, cut glass, dishes of all kinds and many articles of beauty and usefulness.

At a late hour the guests departed wishing Dr. and Mrs. Smith peace, happiness and long life.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith left on No. 3 this morning for an extended trip to Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Salt Lake City. They will be at home to friends in Kalspell, Mont. after October 20.

Bozeman is a city of fair ladies, but the guests agreed that the bride was one of the queens of this city. She was clad in a gown of cream white marquisette, over white silk chiffon cloth, and wore a crown made of roses, maiden-hair fern and swan, scods. She carried a bouquet also of the same flowers.

The groom wore conventional black. The bride's sister was gowned in blue crepe de chine, and her mother was dressed in a cream-white gown of chiffon cloth.

The bride is one of the most accomplished and charming young ladies of this city. She is the daughter of the well-known Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Van Zandt. She is a graduate of the Bozeman public schools, of the Gallatin county high school and the state college of this city. And after finishing these courses, she studied in New York city, being an accomplished musician and a social leader.

The groom, Dr. Clarke S. Smith, is a leading physician of Kalspell, and is widely known there, and popular both in social circles and in the medical profession. He is a graduate of the medical department of the University of Minnesota.

Sprague Raymond McCrea Helen

22 Jul 1910 p8- marriage

SPRAGUE-M'CREA

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. McCrea, on Thursday evening, at 6 o'clock, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Mr. Raymond Sprague of Seattle.

The beautiful new home was profusely decorated throughout in white and green. In the dining room festoons of amilax were strung from the chandeliers to the corners of the dining table which, with masses of carnations, lent an air of beauty to the festive board. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Maud Hundley, Miss Helen McCrea, the bride, all radiant and sweet in her soft gown of white silk, a filmy veil held in place by a bridal wreath, and her arms filled with spicy white carnations, came slowly down the board stairway. She was preceded by her tiny sister as flower girl and the little brother bore the ring upon a dainty pillow. Miss Katherine McCrea, as bridesmaid, looking like a dainty pink rose in the gown she wore, came next, and at the foot of the stairs was waiting the bride's father, who led Helen into the room where were waiting the groom and his best man, Mr. Harold McCrea. The impressive service was read by Rev. Father O'Farrell, and as the golden circlet was slipped on the finger, he pronounced the pair man and wife.

One of the most pleasant features of this affair was that this date was the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George McCrea. Mrs. McCrea wore a beautiful gown of blue crested with black lace and a number of beautiful gifts in silver were given to them in remembrance of the day.

After the dainty refreshments had been served, the cake cut, the bouquet thrown from the staircase, and the bridal gown was changed for the neat traveling suit, and farewells given, the happy couple left on the evening train for Seattle where they will reside.

They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts of silver and cut-glass.

Stannard Geo F Swaney Jeannette

28 Jun 1910 p5- engagement

The many friends of Mr. Geo. F. Stannard and Miss Jeannette Swaney have been trying to hold the fact of their engagement secret until the interested parties wished to have it publicly announced. But it was evidently too good to keep and so some one told. Everyone is delighted over the happy event. The wedding will take place on July 29, when the bridal couple will leave for an extended trip to Europe, spending most of the time visiting Mr. Stannard's relatives in Wexford, Ireland. Upon their return to Kalspell in November, they will reside in the Fred Tinkel residence which was recently purchased by Mr. Stannard.

22 Jul 1910 p5- marriage

STANNARD-SWANEE

Mr. George Francis Stannard and Miss Sara Jeannette Swaney were united in marriage on Wednesday, July twentieth, nineteen hundred and ten, at two p. m. At the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Macdonald the relatives and old friends of Mr. Stannard and Miss Swaney convened to witness the impressive ceremony.

The living room and library were beautifully decorated in white blossoms and soft feathery greens. The dining room was in white and pink decorations.

Promptly at two o'clock Rev. Fisher and Mr. Stannard, accompanied by Donald Macdonald, took their places in the library. Then softly, the beautiful strains of Carrie Jacobs Bond's love song, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. Charles Swaney, began as Miss Swaney, attended only by her flower girl and bridesmaid, descended the stairs and joined the waiting group in the library. The ring service was then read and the happy pair were united in the bonds of holy wedlock. "Jennie," as she is affectionately called by the many, many friends who love her, looked very beautiful in the shimmering white crepe de chine gown. It was princess, cut-train, with pearl trimmings; a panel effect from the bust to the hem of the skirt, and also from the shoulders to the train, gave to the gown an air of distinction and gracefulness. A soft filmy veil was worn, and a shower bouquet of white pansies and maiden-hair fern was carried. Miss Ruth Fisher, as bridesmaid, looked very sweet in her pink gown and she carried pink roses.

Jessie Macdonald and Mary Fisher were very dear in dainty white dresses with their arms filled with pink roses. Little "Wynne" Stocking filled the responsible position as ring-bearer to perfection. She said she was "the carrying."

After the ceremony came the hearty congratulations, and very conspicuous were the wells of tenderness overflow that does sorrow. The guests then repaired to the dining room where everything—the decorations, refreshments, the girls who served—was pink and white perfection. As the guests were chatting merrily an automobile was driven up, and into it stepped Mr. and Mrs. George Stannard, together with the flower girls, "the carrying" lot, and they were driven to the home of Mrs. G. G. Pomerooy, who is one of Mrs. Stannard's dearest friends, and who, thru illness, was prevented from going to see "Jennie" married.

Later in the afternoon the pair left on the east-bound train for New York and Elizabeth City, and then they will sail on the Italia for London. They will France and also at the home of Stannard's parents, Brickbat House, Wexford county, Ireland. They expect to be absent about three months and upon returning to Kalspell will reside in their beautiful home, corner Fourth avenue and Second street.

Never was there a more beautiful wedding in Kalspell, nor one which the contracting parties more widely known and loved.

Mr. Stannard has resided here about fifteen years, and her sunny disposition and charm of manner have placed her first in the hearts of all who have known her during these years. She has been a home-maker for her father and duties were always cheerfully and anxiously performed, and there is a lonely niche in the old home for no one can fill "Jennie's" place there.

Mr. Stannard is widely known over the state of Montana, and here long before there was any Kalspell, and the high honor with which he has always been regarded by everyone, proves his sterling worth and integrity. He is to be congratulated upon the choice of his partner, and everyone wishes for and Mrs. George Stannard a well of happiness and health.

SUCCUMBED AT LAST
Cupid's arrow or later reaches them all with his dart. For some time he has had a bead on A. D. Stillman—the lawyer-rancher of Pleasant Valley—who at last succumbed to the attack and was married in Portland on Thursday, June 30, to Miss Effie E. Erickson. For some time Miss Erickson has been "teaching the young idea how to shoot" out in Pleasant Valley, never suspecting that Cupid was taking lessons on the quiet. A. D. is a man of sterling qualities, and his bride is loved for her womanly charms and graciousness.
Mr. and Mrs. Stillman returned to Kallispell from Portland on Wednesday, and left for the Stillman ranch, which is 45 miles west, today. The newly wedded pair have the congratulations of their many friends.

WEDDING SATURDAY.
The marriage of Miss Maxine Keogh to Charles A. Strodbeck occurred Saturday morning at the Catholic church, Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating. They were attended by Miss Grace McCarthy and Herbert H. Hissell. The bride came here last winter from Devils Lake, N. D., and has been teaching school at the Big Meadows where Mr. Strodbeck is in the downs service at Star Meadow station, and it was here the romance started which culminated last Saturday.
The happy couple have the best wishes of a score of friends. They have gone west on a wedding trip.

Sugden Elmer Blaker Hannah Pauline 26 Jul 1910 p8- marriage

SUGDEN-BLAKER
Mr. Elmer Sugden and Miss Hannah Pauline Blaker were married at the home of the bride's parents in the Duncan addition Saturday evening in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. H. H. Griffin, of the Christian church, performing the ceremony.
The wedding came as quite a surprise to a number of the friends of the young couple, and the fact that they were willing to move the wedding date up a few weeks and call the baker of their friends started them off with an even hundred dollar wedding present that will buy a lot of fine chickens, and help generally in getting things going. A few friends had gathered at the Blaker home Saturday evening and on questioning the prospective bride as to when the wedding day would be, were informed that for all they knew it might be that night. Taking up the cue a twenty-five dollar wager was offered that it wouldn't occur before midnight, and later it was raised to an even hundred. The couple couldn't see the easy money go that way, and Elmer hurried himself, secured the license, routed out the little minister, and the knot was tied at 11 o'clock Saturday evening to the astonishment of the friends who made the offer.
The bride was attended by Miss Anna Hansen, and Mr. Frank Root acted as best man in the groom. The happy young couple left on the late train for Lake McDonald, where they spent Sunday.
Mr. Sugden is a capable young business man of the city, being connected with the business department of the Inter Lake, while his bride is a charming young woman who has also been in the newspaper office for several years. They have many friends who extend hearty congratulations, and The Bee force, from the devil down to the manager, extend the glad hand and hope the happiness of their married life will dispense the adage about "marrying in haste and repenting at leisure."

HOW AFFINITIES MEET

News of the wedding of Charles H. Swaney and Miss Edyth Elizabeth Young has been received by relatives in the city. They were married last Wednesday, at Miss Young's home in Iowa, and may be expected in Kalspell any time next week.

This attractive young couple have many friends in Kalspell and the valley. Miss Young came here about three years ago to visit her brother, Bruce Young. She exhibited great talent and cleverness in singing, and no public entertainment was considered complete without her appearance at least once on the program. Her personality, her wisdomness, also added to her popularity. Scarcely any of her friends had any idea that she had met with her affinity until her engagement of Charley Swaney, lucky dog, was announced on the eve of her departure to Iowa, in preparation for the marriage under the paternal roof.

The happy groom needs no introduction in Kalspell. If not born here, he was not much of a figure when Kalspell first appeared on the map. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Swaney and has lived all his life in Kalspell. He got his schooling here, but developed an artistic temperament which led him to the traps and drums of orchestral music, at which he is most expert and has finally made him part proprietor of one of the profitable moving picture shows here—The Orpheum. Charley's wild oats all blossomed into roses and if good wishes will keep the flowers in bloom, those expressed for the welfare and happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swaney will keep the vises heaped up.

A Mr. Pleasant, Iowa, paper just came to hand, describing in graphic detail the marriage event which took place there early in the month which will interest Kalspell people. With the half-column writhing, appears the handsome likeness of Miss Edyth Young-Swaney. The article follows:

A very quiet and impressive wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Young, on East Monroe street, when their daughter, Edyth, became the bride of Charles H. Swaney of Kalspell, Iowa.

The fine home was made more beautiful for the occasion with a few tastefully arranged decorations, and the company which was composed of only the relatives and a few friends numbered about twenty-five. Rev. Dr. T. J. Myers, a neighbor and longtime friend of the Young family, officiated and made the ceremony a beautiful one indeed. The happy pair were unattended, and there was a delightful atmosphere of informality prevailing. Immediately following the ceremony and the subsequent congratulations, the company was seated at a splendid wedding supper.

Miss Edyth Young-Swaney is perhaps one of the best vocalists that the city has ever been able to lay claim to. Her beautiful voice has been a delight to all who have been fortunate enough to hear her for years past. She graduated in the Hammond Conservatory of Music, and has studied under some of the best masters in the Chicago musical circles. During the past few years she has been teaching her art in Kalspell, Iowa, where she became acquainted with her husband. She is a young woman of high character and splendid accomplishments able from her music, and she will be much missed by her hosts of friends in Mr. Pleasant, but who rejoice with her in her happiness.

The bridegroom is a man who stands high in the esteem of the citizens of his native city. He is engaged in the theater business, in the capacity of owner and manager. He, like his bride, is a musician and a lover of music. He has long lived in Kalspell and takes his bride there to make their future home. They expect to go tomorrow.

Following the wedding supper, a very pleasant evening was spent in the Young home. The bride delighted the company with several selections with piano and voice. Miss Nellie Giddens also responded to the wishes of those present and sang.

Mr. and Mrs. Swaney were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents from their numerous friends here.

16 Aug 1910 p8- announcement

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whiteside, for the wedding of their sister Frances Jurgens Kleinschmidt to Mr. Alba Namara Tobie, on the evening of Tuesday, September sixth, nineteen hundred ten, at seven thirty o'clock, at the Whiteside home, Kalspell, Mont. Mr. Tobie has, for many years, held a responsible position in the Conrad bank and is widely known all over the Flathead country. Mrs. Kleinschmidt, who came to Kalspell from Helena, to reside, about eight years ago, has endeared herself to scores of friends, who have been eagerly looking forward to this interesting event.

9 Sep 1910 p2- marriage

TOBIE-KLEINSCHMIDT.
A large company of friends witnessed the marriage of Mr. A. N. Tobie and Frances Jurgens-Kleinschmidt, which was solemnized on Tuesday, September 6, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whiteside, Kalspell, Montana. The spacious rooms were profusely decorated throughout. In the dining room the walls were completely hidden with garlands of graceful cedar, sweet peas. The living room was swathed with purple and white beautiful with masses of lavender and purple asters, and branches of cedar. In the southeast corner of the room was a canopy of lavender and white asters. The great veranda was converted into a tiny forest, being completely banked with cedar, and the electric lights gave it a fairy-like charm. The guests were graciously received by Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside and a number of Kalspell ladies. Mrs. Whiteside was beautifully gowned in an imported embroidered chiffon of pale lavender, with characteristic trimmings. Mrs. Jurgens' gown was of pearl gray crepe with lace trimmings. At 7:36 Riff's stringed orchestra, stationed behind a screen of cedars in the music room, began the wedding march. Little Dorothy Dobner and Eunice Whiteside entered the living room, bearing long strands of lavender chiffon entwined with smilax which formed the aisle thru which the bridal party came. The little girls looked very dainty and sweet in their sheer white dresses, profusely trimmed with lace. In their hair were fastened bows of lavender ribbon and they wore sashes of lavender. Pretty lavender hose and silk pompons upon their slippers gave the finishing touch to their costumes. Rev. Harold Grims entered and took his place under the canopy, where he awaited the contracting parties. Mr. Tobie, with Mr. A. Kitzman as best man, came next, followed by the bride's maid, Miss Haze Whiteside. Her gown was most exquisite helle crepe melon, with real lace bertha and draped overskirt. In her dark hair gleamed ropes of pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of pale lavender sweet peas. Thru the aisle of smilax and chiffon, now came the bride. Always beautiful and charming, with a sweet dignity of carriage, she looked more lovely than ever before. Her gown was of a new shade in lavender, hurried crepe charmesse. A silver sheen lay all over it, and the trimmings were of embroidered chiffon in deep lavender and silver, over which was a net embroidered in silver beads. She wore silver shoes, pale lavender gloves and a necklace of amethysts. In her hair silver beads were fastened, and her shower bouquet was of dark lavender sweet peas. The marriage ceremony was read most impressively by Rev. Grims, immediately after which the newly wedded pair were overwhelmed with the sincere and hearty congratulations of the guests. The refreshments were served in the dining room by Cleora Logan, Leola Logan, Gladys Tate, Nina Brink, Gertrude Diltrow and Irene Leopold. Ice cream tinted with lavender and cake, together with lavender mints, were served. Mr. and Mrs. Tobie have the best wishes of their scores of friends. During the thirteen years Mr. Tobie has lived here he has won the confidence and esteem of everyone. Mrs. Tobie is a woman of extraordinary ability and her cheerfulness and gracious manner has endeared her to all who are fortunate in knowing her. Mr. and Mrs. Tobie want to thank here a part of their honeymoon will be spent. There were very many magnificent gifts of linen, silver, glass, china and a number of pieces of massive furniture.
