Christensen John Stillman Agnes 9 Jun 1911 p8- marriage

STILLMAN-CHRISTENSEN.

At the home of the bride occurred the wedding of Miss Agnes Stillman and Mr. John Christensen on Tuesday, June 6, 1911. Only a few intimate friends and the relatives of the contracting parties attended the wedding, but a great many were invited to the reception in the evening. The bride looked lovely in her gown of white messaline and lace veil. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and in the veil were fastened lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Lillian Peeler was the bridesmaid and was gowned in a dainty pink chiffon dress, with pink roses. The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Scott Saling. The Rev. H. M. Green, rector of the Episcopal church, performed the wedding ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with wild ferns and flowers and marguerites. In the dining room the guests were served with cake, ice cream and coffee by Mesdames Grubb and Standard, assisted by Misses Leopold, Cleora and Luella Logan, Green, Fisher and Gertrude Disbrow. Miss Kate Disbrow attended the door.

The bride received many beautiful gifts of silver, glass and china. Mr. Christensen holds a responsible position with the KallsPELL Flour Mill. He is a young man of industrious habits and is respected most highly in KallsPELL. His bride has, during the several years she has lived in KallsPELL, where she attended school, enjoyed a large circle of intimate friends, among whom she was ever a favorite. The young couple will make their home on Second avenue east.

Clark Clinton DeLong Bessie 1 Sep 1911 p1- marriage

DOUBLE WEDDING.

About thirty guests were present at a quiet but beautiful wedding at the home of R. R. Ricketts, at Somers, Wednesday evening. The principals were Mr. Claude Larabee and Miss Blanche Reed, and Mr. Clinton Clark and Miss Bessie DeLong. Rev. BIERMAN-MARSH.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bierman was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Thursday evening, when their daughter Ida May, was married to Mr. Frank E. Marsh. At 8:30 o'clock the wedding march, played by Miss McElroy and Mr. Marion B. Riffe, was begun and the bridal party marched into the living room, standing beneath masses of snowballs and other white flowers. The ring was carried in a white rose by Esther Bierman, who was very sweet in a dainty dress of blue. The bridesmaid was Miss Edna Carver and she was also attired in pale blue with a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of white satin softened by an overdress of white chiffon. Her long filmy veil was fastened on with lilies-of-the-valley, and her shower bouquet was of white roses and the same flowers as were worn in her veil.

The groom was attended by Dr. Bogardus of Eureka. Rev. F. A. Armstrong of the Methodist church performed the marriage ceremony, the ring service being used.

A delightful wedding supper was served in the dining room where the decorations were in white and green. The bridal table was most attractive in its profusion of white roses.
