PROMINENT KALISPELL PEOPLE MARRIED

E. R. PALMER AND MISS MARY PETERSON UNITED IN MINNESOTA TOWN.

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, in Benson, Minn., Mary Peterson was united in marriage to E. R. Palmer on Tuesday, December 27, at 8:30 o'clock p. m. The house was profusely decorated for the occasion. The dining room was in white carnations and greens. In the living room were red carnations, and in the parlor, where the ceremony was performed, were massed pink roses and Christmas greens. The beautiful love song, "Because," was sung, and then to the strains of the wedding march the happy couple, unattended, came down the stairs and took their places where the minister, Rev. Heath, of the Congregational church, awaited them.

After the ceremony and supper the newly wedded pair left for Minneapolis, where they spent several days before coming to Kalispell.

Mrs. Palmer, better known here as Miss Peterson, was formerly one of the successful teachers in the Kalispell city schools. She has countless friends who love her for her sunny disposition, and her sterling worth. Mr. Palmer is also well known in Flathead valley, and his occupation as captain of boats on Flathead lake, has placed him in contact with scores of people who could always count on him as a true gentleman, and a capable business man.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will spend the remainder of the winter in Kalispell, where their hosts of friends will be glad to welcome them.

JONES--SCHNELL

One of the most beautiful weddings which have occurred this summer was that of Harry W. Schnell and Miss Ena Jones. On Wednesday evening at 6:30, just as the refreshing rain had cleared away, and the sun came streaming in thru the western windows, Miss Jones, accompanied by her bridesmaid, Miss Cleora Logan, came down the stairway, and met the bridegroom beneath a floral bower in the living room. John Jones, the bride's brother was the best man. Rev. Clarence Mitchell of the Christian church performed the marriage ceremony, and during it Miss Josephine Hunt continued to play softly the strains of the wedding march. The bride was most beautiful in white chiffon over mes-saline, with a long veil and shower bouquet of bride's roses. Always sweet and dainty, she looked more charming than ever in her bridal gown. Miss Logan seemed like an unopened pink rosebud in her pretty dress of pink marquisette and a huge bouquet of pink peonies.

Little Helen Chester and Master Miner Stocking dressed in white were the flower bearers and added greatly to the pretty picture.

The rooms were artistically decorated in yellow blossoms and green vines and looked like a spot in some pretty garden.

After the ceremony and congratulations from the hundred guests present, refreshments were served. The bride and bridegroom then departed for a wedding trip to Spokane. They were accompanied to the depot by many of their friends who gave them a happy sendoff.

It would be hard to find a young woman who has made more friends or who is more greatly admired than Mrs. Schnell. During the few years she has made her home in Kalispell she has always been a favorite and she is beloved for her graciousness. Mr. Schnell is counted as one of the best business men in this city, where he has been living for the past two years. He has won the respect of all with whom he has had business relations because of his integrity and capabilities.

Upon the return of Mr. and Mrs. Schnell they will reside at Second avenue west and Tenth street.
