Sugden boy Elmer 10 Dec 1912 p8

HE'S A NINE-POUNDER TOO.
Elmer Sugden is a happy man; that is, there has been a change in the degree or state of his happiness. No, it is not because he won some premiums at the poultry show, or the fact that he was elected president of the association for the coming year.
The fact, and incidentally the reason, is that Elmer was on Sunday morning presented with a nine-pound baby boy. According to the proud father it is the finest child that Dr. Stork ever delivered in KallsPELL, or any place else. Elmer's cigars were pretty good, any way. The Moose lodge is preparing to levy a special assessment of $1999.98 against Mr. Sugden and so fine a youngster ought to easily be worth that amount.
