QUICK-HEIMARK

The wedding of Mr. Earl Quick and Miss Mathilda Heimark in the lodge room at the McIntosh hall last evening united two of Kalispell's very popular young people. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. A. Armstrong, was simple though elaborate. To the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Diagonal, the bridal party took their places, the groom and his attendants marching in from the right and the bride, on the arm of her father, preceded by two little ring bearers and followed by her attendants, entering from the left. The simple ring service was said and the pastor then introduced the couple as man and wife.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white brocaded satin, with jet and shadow lace trimmings, and wore a long wreath wedding veil. Her sister, Miss Dena, wore yellow silk and Miss Lizzie Simpson, the other attendant of the bride, was dressed in pale green. The little ring bearers, Velma Marie Hammond and Esther Verna Quick, both relatives of the groom, were sweetly garbed in white. The groom was attended by his brother, Eugene and Mr. Frank Adams.

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Quick witnessed the ceremony and showered them with congratulations and well wishes for a long and prosperous wedded life. The assembly then marched into the banquet hall, where a sumptuous wedding feast was served. The bride's cake was a five-layer fruit cake, surmounted by a wedding bell.

While the guests were eating, the newly-weds slipped away to the station and left for Spokane, where their honeymoon will be spent. Tables were cleared away and the young people present enjoyed dancing during the remainder of the evening.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Quick will be at home to their friends in their own little cottage, 1004 Third avenue east. They are the recipients of many substantial wedding gifts, which will tend to make wedded life easy and happy for them.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Heimark, well known and prosperous ranchers of the lower valley. Tillie, as she is familiarly known by her many friends, is a general favorite with everybody.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Quick of this city, and has resided in Kalispell for a number of years. He is a printer by trade, and an efficient and popular member of the Bee force. This paper unites with hosts of friends in extending congratulations to these two young people.

HARVEY-REUGSEGGER.

(Contributed.)

There was a very pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Harvey, Kalispell, Mont., April 2, 1913, when their daughter, Miss Ada E. Harvey, was united in marriage to Mr. John G. Reugsegger of Niara, Mont. The home was beautifully decorated for the joyous event with plants in bloom. The walls were decorated with bouquets of evergreen artistically arranged. The bride was dressed in white, wearing a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley. The groom was dressed in conventional black, carrying in his hand the ring which was to be presented to the bride. The ceremony was performed at noon by Rev. D. M. Harvey in the presence of 30 guests, after which they retired to the tables, and partook of a bountiful feast. All of the guests were relatives of the groom and bride.

Then came the distribution of presents which amounted to nearly $100. To many this couple need no introduction. Ada E. is a young lady of charming qualities and of a cheerful and helpful nature. The groom is a young man of sterling worth and character with upright habits, and possesses energy and ability which bespeak for him a successful life.

The happy couple will begin house-keeping on a homestead near Niara in a couple of weeks.

ACCOUNT OF REINKING.
 WALTERS WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd B. Reinking have returned from their honeymoon, and by Monday will be ensconced in their new home, at the Bennett residence, 926 Third avenue east. On their tour they visited Glendive, Del. Rio, Missoula and Spokane, returning to Kalispell from the latter point.

The Beach (N. D.) Advance of October 24, devoted considerable space to an account of their wedding, from which the following is taken:

A wedding of much local interest occurred Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters, when their only daughter, Grace, became the bride of Floyd B. Reinking of Kalispell, Montana.

The color scheme used in the house decorations was yellow and white, and was most effective with the dark woodwork. The lights were covered with chrysanthemum calyxes and cut flowers in the prevailing colors covered the tables and piano.

The first chords of "O Promise Me," which was sung by Mrs. O. R. Niece preceding the ceremony, sounded just as the clock struck 6. This was followed immediately by Mendelssohn's Wedding march, played by Miss Marion Kucheman. At this signal Dr. Mitchell of Kalispell, Montana, took his place under the bower, and the groom, attended by the groomsman, Harvey Walters, only brother of the bride, came forward. Little Margaret Lovell and John Keohane, quite winsome in all white, formed the pathway from the altar with white ribbons. The bridal party then descended, the flower girls, a dainty blonde and a brunette, entering first, carrying French baskets of yellow roses. These were followed by the ring-bearer. He carried one large yellow rosebud and carefully guarded his golden charge.

The maid of honor and only attendant of the bride, graceful and charming in a yellow satin trained gown, carrying a large bouquet of yellow roses, preceded the bride, who entered on her father's arm.

The bride's gown was cut with a long train and made of white satin charmeuse and was trimmed with pink-essence lace and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds and white sweet peas. Her long veil formed a lacy fringe about her face and was caught in at the back with tiny spray of orange blossoms. The only jewels she wore was a gift from the groom, a gold Blagoo pendant, studded with pearls and diamonds.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, Miss May Reinking, the maid of honor, and only sister of the groom, sang very sweetly, "Bonds, My Dearest Dear."

Many complimentary remarks were made on the dark beauty of the bride and the fine, manly appearance of the groom.

The mother of the groom was becomingly gowned in a silver-grey charmeuse with pearl trimmings, and the bride's mother in black satin.

Many lovely gifts in silver, china and crystal were received.

The bride and groom left on the 8:30 train for Spokane, where they will spend their honeymoon. The best wishes of the community, follow this young couple to their new home, and wish them well in their life's partnership.

STENDAL-ROBERTS

A very pretty wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stendal, corner First avenue west and Eighth street. The contracting parties were N. E. Roberts and Miss Olive Stendal, two of the best known and most popular young people of the city.

The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. J. Roberts and a brother of C. B. Roberts, the prominent Portine lumberman. Ning grew up in Kalspell, attended high school here and is favorably known by everyone. The bride came to Kalspell with her parents about three years ago from British Columbia. She has been in the employ of various firms in the city, more recently with Wilson's, and has attached hosts of friends by her sweet and accommodating manner.

Only relative and a few very immediate friends witnessed the wedding. The wedding march was played by Miss Alta Woolf, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. A. Stanchiff. Miss Barrett, of Grand Forks, British Columbia, was bridesmaid, and Theron Stendal, of Seattle, brother of the bride, attended the groom.

The bride looked even more beautiful than ever in her wedding dress of brocaded charmeuse and veil done up with white roses. Miss Barret was prettily dressed in pink chiffon and carried pink flowers. Little Miss Thelma Stendal walked before the bride, carrying the wedding ring on a rose bud. The ceremony was impressive and beautiful.

A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the Stendal home. The newlyweds were escorted to the train by a large crowd of friends, who insisted that they march up the very center of Main street. Of course, there were plenty of signs, old shoes and rice in evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Roberts have gone to Portine to make their home, where Ning is in the employ of his brother. They carry with them the best wishes of their numberless friends.

George B. Robertson and Frances Depew were united in marriage Friday evening by Justice I. D. Rognelein. Mr. Robertson is a telegraph operator on the Great Northern at Java.

FISHER-RUBINAU

The wedding of S. G. Rubinau and Miss Ruth Fisher was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the Fisher home, corner Fifth avenue west and Second street. Only the relatives and a few very intimate friends were present. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. George McVey Fisher, father of the bride. Miss Ruth was attended by her two sisters.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Rubinau left by auto for Whitefish, whence they took train west. It is understood that they will spend their honeymoon in Spokane, Missoula and other cities. Upon their return, they will go to Yellow Bay on the east shore of Flathead lake for the summer.

Ruth Fisher was born and raised in Kalspell and is one of the city's loveliest native daughters. Her schooling was derived in the local public and high schools. She is admired by all who know here for her good qualities, and Mr. Rubinau is to be congratulated upon his choice of a life partner.

The groom has been instructor in science and agriculture at the local high school for the past two years. It was there that he first confronted the charms of the girl who has become his wife. Mr. Rubinau is uniformly respected and liked by all who know him. He is a young man with a bright future before him in the profession that he has chosen.

The congratulations and best wishes of hosts of Kalspell friends are extended both the bride and groom. The Bee wishes them long lives of extreme happiness.

HULBUSH-SEAGER

The marriage of Ida Montague Hulbush and Harold S. Seager took place Saturday, August 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hulbush of Cut Bank. The bride was attended by her sister, Nora, while Ronald I. Seager of Cut Bank acted as best man. Rev. J. H. Smith officiated at the wedding, the ring ceremony being used. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride was charmingly attired in white brocaded satin veiled with tulle and trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a long veil caught to the top with a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a large bouquet of white and pink roses. The groom was attired in conventional black. The bridesmaids wore pink brocaded satin draped with white chiffon and carried pink bouquets. Pink and white were the colors in the decorations. In the center of the table sweet peas and smilax were used. The vows were plighted. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served. Pink and white decorations were used in the table decorations. The bride is a native of Montana, being the second wife of the late John Hulbush, who was killed in a battle with the horn on the Fort Belknap reservation and has lived in the state all her life. She came to this city only recently after having proved up on a claim near Cut Bank, where she has many friends. Mr. Seager's first home was in Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the New York Military Academy. At present his home is in Cut Bank where he had land interests. After an extended trip through the east they will return to Montana where they will make their future home. The immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The town guests were Mrs. W. A. Hulbush and Mrs. T. B. Bonney, mother of the groom and Mr. Ronald L. Seager, brother of the groom, all from Cut Bank.—Cut Bank Pioneer.

POHL-SIMPSON.
 Impressive and beautiful was the marriage ceremony which was solemnized at St. Matthew's church, Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating, when Mr. John Phillip Simpson of Tacoma, and Miss Hazel Pohl of this city, were joined in matrimony.
 The altars were decorated with white carnations and ropes of smilax, and the lights from the candles and the electrolights made the chancel dazlingly beautiful. At the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the ushers and bridesmaids proceeded up the aisle of the church to the chancel rail. The ushers were Gregory Duffy, Peter Staunty and Frank Kohlmeier. Miss Rachel Harshman, one of the maids was gowned in yellow mossaline. Miss Katherine Thomas wore pale blue and Miss Leta Haines wore a pink gown. They carried muffs made of smilax and white carnations, and on their heads they wore dainty white lace Normany caps with wreaths of flowers to match their gowns, and a tiny veil hanging lightly on the shoulders.
 Following came the maid of honor, Miss Emma Pohl, sister of the bride. Her gown was pale green crepe trimmed with white fur. Her hat was a picture hat of white with dainty green flowers. She carried a pearl rosary.
 Next came the bride who was the cynosure of all eyes. Her beauty was enhanced by her exquisite wedding robes. The bridal gown was broad-caded ivory satin, en train, and falling softly over it all was an overdress of hand embroidered marquisette. A beautiful lace veil fastened to the dark hair with a pearl ornament, covered her face and fell to the train. She carried a white prayer book and a shower bouquet of white azalea blossoms and maiden hair ferns.
 As the ushers and maids reached the chancel rail they stood on either side, and the maid of honor and the bride entered the chancel and here were met by the bridegroom and his best man, Charles Pohl, the bride's brother.
 Immediately high mass was begun, the singing being rendered by the choir with Miss Nellie McCabe at the organ and Miss Kalta directing. At close of the service, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played and the wedding party marched out of the church and repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Katherine Pohl on First street east where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

In the evening from 6:30 until 8:30 a reception was held at the home of the bride, and a throng of friends came and went during the evening. The house was beautiful with its decorations of white and green. The bridal party stood before portieres made of ropes of cedar to receive the guests. Tea and cake and coffee were served in the dining room. There were a great many beautiful wedding gifts. At midnight Mr. and Mrs. Simpson took their well-remembered departure for Tacoma, where they will reside and where the bridegroom holds a responsible position with the Byllesby company. Mr. Simpson, before going to Tacoma, resided in KallsPELL, and while here, he made a great many friends who congratulate him upon winning for his bride, one of the fairest young women who has ever graced this city. Mrs. Simpson has always been most popular with old as well as young, and the only reason they are not loath to have her leave KallsPELL is that she has gone with one who is in every way worthy of her. Their hosts of friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Simpson Godspeed and all the good there is in life.

2 Jlu 1913 p8- marriage

Smith Daniel
 Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Clarence Mitchell, D. D., pastor of the Central Christian church, united in the holy bonds of matrimony Edwin M. Smith and Miss Harriet A. Daniel, both of Greenville, Mo. The ceremony was performed at the Ferawell, in the presence of a few friends. Miss Daniel, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Higgins, of Polson, for several weeks, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Higgins, came to Kalispell yesterday morning. The young people are most favorably known in Greenville society circles. Mr. Smith is president of the Wayne County bank of that city, and a leading merchant of the place. Miss Daniel comes from one of the old Missouri families and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return this week to their Missouri home.

 ARE MADE HAPPY

E. N. Eaton was wearing a smile yesterday like the father of the first one in the family and a ten-pounder at that. But that wasn't the occasion. No, indeed. He had simply had a good day, and issued five marriage licenses. Those made happy by his official act were:

Ross E. Jones and Miss Ruth Marverson, both of Clubank.
 Otto B. Haverlandt of Creston and Miss Alfareta Greene of Winston, Pa.
 Frank Paro and Miss Mary Wilhelm, both of Elmo.
 Baptiste Couture of Polson and Miss Appollonia Wilhelm of Elmo.
 Harold B. Moore and Agnes Froeman, both of Kila.
 Henry E. Smith of Hot Springs, and Miss Mary S. Hemmer of Kalispell.

ARTMAN-SYLER

Le Roy, N. Y., April 2.—A wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Almira Artman on the Polson road, one and one-half miles south of Le Roy, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, when her daughter, Sarah A. Artman, was united in marriage to Frank W. Syler of Buffalo, Mo. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John R. Gates, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of about 30 guests, the Methodist service being used.

Throughout the house a color scheme of pink and white prevailed, and was carried out in carnations and ribbons. To the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," played by Miss Beatrice Cleveland of Warsaw, members of the bridal party entered the living room and took their places before pillars of green and white where the marriage vows were exchanged. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ruby Artman.

The best man was J. S. Higgins of Buffalo.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served. The room decorations consisted of strings of white maline, which hung from the center of the ceiling to the corners of the table, on which the ceremony was a large bouquet of pink and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Syler left on an afternoon train for a short time after which they will return to Le Roy, leaving in about two weeks for their future home in Belton, Mo.

Mr. Syler is a forest ranger in the government service.

CUPID'S STORY
Mrs. Stella Gardner left this morning for Polson. A whispering Cupid left the information with the Bee that she will there meet F. H. Tupper and go to Missoula, where they are to be wedded this evening.
Mrs. Gardner and Mr. Tupper are both well known in this city. The former has clerked in the Wonder store for a couple of years and in that capacity made many friends. Mr. Tupper is connected with the Shulkin Brothers firm, at present being located at Polson. He has a fine homestead near the lake city, where he will probably take his bride. The Bee extends advance congratulations.

SMITHERS-WALCHLI. The wedding of Miss Edna Smithers to Mr. Fred Walchli occurred on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride on Fifth avenue west. Only the relatives and immediate friends were present. The marriage vows were given by Rev. T. A. Stancliffe, the ceremony being very simple. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Walchli left on the night train for Spokane. Mrs. Walchli is one of Kalispell's very popular young women. For about three years she has acted as book-keeper and cashier for the Eagle shoe company and in both a business and social way has won many friends. Mr. Walchli is a graduate of the local high school and of the state college of mechanical engineering. At present he is in the employ of the city engineering department. Both are most estimable young people and start out on the sea of matrimony with the well wishes of many friends.

Watt Everett Nelson Grace

19 Sep 1913 p4- marriage

WATT-NELSON. The marriage of Everett Watt and Miss Grace Nelson was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson, of 412 Sixth Avenue east at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Clarence Mitchell. The brides' maids were the Misses Loretta McCarthy and Hattie Olegard, and the groom was attended by George Butterfield and Floyd Esley. The wedding was a quiet home affair, about fifty immediate friends and relatives being present. The house was very prettily decorated in autumn leaves and cut flowers, and immediately after the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The couple left for Spokane at one o'clock, where they will spend a brief honeymoon, and just before their departure a luncheon was served to a few of their most intimate friends at the Kalispell hotel. Mr. Watt's fellow employes in the Kalispell Drug company decided to have a little sport at his expense, and succeeded beyond their expectations. He had obtained the license the day before and left it in the pocket of his coat, which he hung up in the rear of the building. Someone conceived the idea of perfoliating the document, and the loss was not noticed by the frustrated bridegroom until shortly before the ceremony. He believed that he had lost it, and proceeded to get Clerk of Court McNeely out at an early hour to see if he could not get it renewed. He was told that this could not be done on short notice, and was advised to see County Attorney Thompson. Mr. Thompson was also routed out, and stated that legally the only thing which could be done was to get a search warrant if he suspected his friends, or else go through the legal formality of making affidavits to the facts in the case, but as the time was short this was out of the question. He came back and admitted to his friends that the wedding was off—for the present—and that he would have to go to Spokane to have the knot tied. However, they induced him to go to the home of the bride, and there he found the missing license in the hands of Mr. Mitchell. His friends had begun to be rather sorry for him by this time, but they say that the look of relief upon his face when he saw that the day was saved was worth going a long way to see.
