Amesbury Clyde Johnson Helen 5 Jun 1914 p8- marriage

JOHNSON-AMESBURY
 At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Johnson, 828 Third avenue east, on Wednesday evening, June 3, occurred the wedding of Miss Helen Johnson and Clyde Amesbury. Nearly one hundred guests were invited to attend the wedding. The rooms on the first floor were profusely decorated with honeysuckle and graceful bridal wreaths, the pink and white blossoms blending in charming harmony. In the alcove of the living room was suspended a wedding bell, made of white, trailing branches of the spirea, and beneath this the ceremony took place. The wedding march, played by Miss Josephine Hunt at the piano, and Miss Cleora Logan on the violin, was started at a few moments after 8 o'clock, and the bridal couple came down the stairs and took their places beneath the wedding bell, where they were made man and wife, the impressive marriage ceremony being read by Rev. George McVey Fisher.
 The bride was very charming in her wedding gown, which was made of ivory messaline and shadow lace, trimmed with pearl. A thin veil fell to the hem of the gown and was caught in place by lilies of the valley. Her arms were filled with the most exquisite roses. The bridegroom wore conventional black and a white rose boutonniere. Miss Mildred Jenkins attended the bride and Ray Johnson, brother of the bride, was best man. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Amesbury were showered with congratulations. The company repaired to the dining room, where they were served with ice cream and cake by Misses Luella Logan, Mildred Jenkins, Margaret Bureh, Helen Holt.

The newly wedded pair tried to escape from their friends when they went to the station for the 10 o'clock train, but had to submit to being escorted in various kinds of vehicles amid showers of rice and old shoes. They went to Belton, where they will make a brief stay before going to Malta, Montana, where Mr. Amesbury is engaged for the summer. They expect to return to KallsPELL early in the fall.
 The bride is one of the most distinguished young women of KallsPELL, and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. She recently was employed at the Conrad bank, where she held a responsible position for more than a year. Mr. Amesbury is an expert engineer, and for two years held a position here with the Miracle company, before going to Malta, where he is with A. Jaqueth.

15 May 1914 p8- marriage

FITCH-DRAPER

The culmination of a happy romance was the wedding of Miss Meryl Adele Fitch and Charles H. Draper, yesterday evening at 7 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. H. Fitch. The young couple met a couple of years ago when they were attending school at Bozeman.

Simplicity was the keynote of the wedding. Only a few old-time friends of the family were present at the impressive ceremony. Rev. Falls, who for years has been a close friend of the bride and who was her pastor when she was a small girl, came from Pocatello, Idaho, expressly to perform the marriage ceremony. The house was a profusion of pink and white blossoms, sweet scented cherry and apple blossoms making the rooms a perfect bower of springtime. Miss Lillian Peeler played a wedding march, and unattended, the bridal pair took their places before the minister, and in solemn and impressive service, were made man and wife.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and lace, with pearl trimmings. She wore in her hair lilies of the valley and a huge bouquet of the same flowers, intermingled with ferns, was carried in her arms, and fell to the hem of her gown.

After the ceremony, a two-course supper was served and the color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper quietly slipped away after the ceremony and left for the coast, where they will spend their honeymoon. After July 1, they will be at home at Red Lodge, Montana, where the bridegroom is engaged in the newspaper business.

They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

The invited guests were: Messrs. and Meslames G. H. Adams, Lawson, and son, T. C. Hand, Smithers, G. W. Millett, Miss Lillian Peeler, Miss Grace Murphy, Mrs. E. Brady, Mrs. E. Ingals, Dr. O'Neil, George Bath, R. F. Haines, Thomas Hardy and J. H. Quigley of Chicago.

AMES KEYSER
Miss Nina Ames and Don Keyser were married Thursday evening, July 9, at Christ church at 8 o'clock. It was a beautiful wedding because of its simplicity. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties attended the wedding. The chancel and altar were decorated with pink and white carnations. As the wedding march, played by Mrs. T. D. Long, was sounded, the bride and bridegroom, attended by Mrs. H. V. Alward, Miss Theresa Bjornby and Bert Reed, walked down the aisle, and took their places before Rev. C. A. Lindley at the altar, where they were made man and wife, the impressive ring service of the Episcopal church being used. The bride looked charming in her wedding dress of white lingerie, over which fell in soft folds a lace veil. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bride's maid wore a white dress and carried pink roses and the matron of honor was also gowned in white, and carried pink and white carnations.
After the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Alward, where refreshments were served. Mrs. Keyser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ames of this city. She was graduated from the Flathead county high school with the class of 1900 and then took a course at the Business college. Mr. Keyser is one of the force in the O'Neil printing office. They will begin housekeeping at once in their home on first avenue west north, which was all ready for their occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. Keyser are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.
